At least one-half of the crowd of 599 that was packed into the hall cheered and a score rushed to Harvey to con gratulate him. Many literally hugged him.

Witness Faints in Court.

There was cheering several times in the address of George C. Brownell, who spoke last and cross-examined the witses for the defendant. While C. M. Idleman, of counsel for Harvey, was summing up, Mrs. Charlotte de Parque, a sister of Mrs. Ruth Cowing Hill, fell from her chair in a faint and was carried from the hall by her brother. Thomas Cowing, and his wife. She soon was revived, but did not re-enter the room. A report was current tonight that the case would be taken before the grand jury, which will convene July 10, but Sheriff Mass and Detective L. L. Levings, who have worked up the evidence, refused to say whether this would be done.

mystery, however, is likely to be dis-pelled within a short time-just as soon as it may be thought wise to give full publicity to the scope of the campaign. At present the desire is to work as quietly as possible along lines involving the personality of Colonel Roosevelt, and there are preliminaries to prepare before it may be expedient to make it known how comprehensive the plan of operations is to be. Here, however, are the salient facts incovered today:

1. Emissaries have been sent into the Southern States to get a line upon the situation there with reference to obtaining Roosevelt delegations to the Harvey did not make a statement, other than that he was glad to be free and that the newspapers had made mistakes in previous reports. His wife was seated by him when the verdict was given and she was congratulated as profusely as her husband.

Time of Tragedy Fixed.

According to Deputy District Attorney Stipp, who appeared for the prosecution, almost the exact time of the crime was shown. Witnesses testi-fied that a clock in the Hill home had stopped at what was thought the time of the murder. Dogs had barked at the home of a neighbor about the time the clock stopped. Harvey was seen at the station a short time before and it was argued his movements had been timed so he must have been in front or at the Hill home at the time the clock stopped and when the dogs A subsequent act, the embarked. ployment of lawyers to defend him by Harvey, the prosecutor said, indicated a guilty knowledge. Sheriff Mass said after the trial that it was thought by him and his associates before the hearing that this would be sufficient evidence upon which to hold the dafendant. The first witness, Clarence W. Matthews, of Hillsboro, who lived about 300 feet from the Hill home, testified that he saw Mrs. Hill in her yard late in the afternoon of June 8, when he went by her home to stake his cow.
