day. "There have been less than 30 light cases of smallpox in the city and those have been confined to eight or nine houses. Only five college stu-dents have had the disease and these have been secregated and quarantined. The principal danger of contagion was in the public schools, but since the students have been vaccinated that has been reduced to a minimum." "The conditions in this city are no worse than in most of the other cities of the State," said Dr. W. T. Johnson, of the Corvall's Hospital. "Students will be in no greater danger here than in their own homes. If everyone would be stamped out in a week." These statements were made as the result of a number of inquiries from people of the state who are planning to attend the short courses at the Ag-ricultural College bext week.

WILSON IS TAFT'S CRITIC Speaker Says President "Truckled

to Liquor Traffic."

Rev. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the temperance committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, formerly pastor of Centenary and Grace Methodist Churches, severely criticised Presi-dent Taft in an address at the First Christian Church last night, saying the President "has truckled to the liquor traffic." The President's declaration to meet the committee of ministers in Portland who desired to protest against Secretary Wilson's taking part in the Brewers' Congress, and the President's treating the sailors on a battleship in San Francisco harbor, were commented where the Der Wilson

San Francisco harbor, were commented upon by Dr. Wilson. "Secretary Wilson's episode is re-minding people," said Dr. Wilson, "that William H. Taft, as Governor-General, opened 453 saloons on the streets of Manila before a missionary was al-low: I to open his mouth or an Ameri-can teacher to open a school. That after the San Francisco disaster he recommended to the Senate commit-tee reimbursement of the liquor dealers for their losses, although everybody
