Treasurer of New York Wholesale Dry Goods Company Believed Not to Have Speculated—Partial Restitution is Made.

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Percy Vanderoef, well known in mercantile circles here, surrendered at the Criminal Court building late today to face charges of embezzlement of approximately $140,000 from the large wholesale dry goods house of VanBuren & Thornton Company, of which he was treasurer. He entered a formal plea of not guilty and was locked up in the Tombs for further examination Friday.

Vanderoef is 31 years old, and lives in East Orange with a mother and sister. His salary has been $4000 a year, and he held $13,000 of stock in the corporation, which, counsel said today, had been turned over as partial restitution for the alleged defalcations.

District Attorney Whitman, who appeared at the arraignment of Vanderoef on the technical charge of the larceny of $100, by drawing a check on the firm to pay personal restaurant and taxicab bills, said that Vanderoef's books indicated a shortage of more than $100,000, covering a period of 14 years. All the alleged defalcations were by check transactions, covered up, it is alleged, by fictitious entries.

It is implied that his accounts had undergone only perfunctory examination until recently, when suspicion was aroused.

"I never knew of Vanderoef's speculating in the market," said his counsel, "My opinion is that he simply lived beyond his means. He has made a full statement to me and has signed his desire to aid in the examination of the books and to make restitution for any shortages."

EX-HUSBAND IS BITTER

Decision of French Court Recites That New York Man Declared He Would Jump Out Window if Wife Came in Door.

PARIS, Jan. 3.—"If Cavallieri comes in by the door I will jump out of the window," was the statement made by Robert Winthrop Chanler, of New York, according to the decision of the Civil Court here today, in granting a divorce from Chanler to Mme. Lina Cavallieri, the grand opera singer, on the ground that Chanler constantly refused to receive his wife at his home. The proceedings were formal. There were no pleadings and the judgment was read in an empty court.

"When an authorized agent," said the judgment, "summoned Chanler to take up his wife again, Chanler replied that he declined to live with his wife, adding that he had had enough and had mapped out his life otherwise."

The action was brought in the name of a liquidator named to arrange the property rights of the parties and Chanler was ordered to pay all costs of the action.

ADMIRAL PROTESTS AGAINST INSULT TO UNIFORMS.

Commandant of Training Station Says Navy Man Was Told He Could Sit Only in Gallery.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 3.—The action of a San Francisco theater in refusing seats to a sailor in uniform excusing to the gallery brought a letter of protest today in Mayor McCarthy from Rear-Admiral C. B. T. Moore, Commandant at the Naval Training Station at Yerba Buena Island. Seats in the orchestra were twice refused the man, said the Admiral. The man was told that the lower floor was sold out, and twice he returned later in the day in civilian clothes to buy good orchestra seats in a good position. Admiral Moore says:

"I see no reason why there should be any discrimination against the servants of the United States Government, who are properly conducting themselves, by reason of their uniform. Men who do not conduct themselves properly are recognized by the service as disgracing their uniform and it is always the effort of the people in the service to see to it that they belong to a respectable and self-respecting branch of the service of the United States, and we consider that we are entitled to the co-operation of the people of this country in our efforts to protect our men against such unjust discrimination."

The action of the theater was deplored by Mayor McCarthy in his reply to Admiral Moore.

LA GRANDE, Or., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—La Grande and Union County have come within range of the cold snap now, for below zero weather is indicated for tonight. Last night the mercury registered 1 above zero and the rapid fallings tonight promise another record for the winter.

Sufficient snow to make excellent sleighing covers the entire valley, but as yet has not interfered with rail-riding. No wind, fortunately, accompanied the cold snap.

PRISONER IS STILL WEAK

Attorneys Say Half-Hour Consultation With Him Exhausted Minister Following Collapse of Previous Day.

BOSTON, Jan. 3.—Attorneys for Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, awaiting trial on a charge of the murder of Miss Avis Linnell, said a half-hour consultation with the accused preacher in his cell at the Charles-street jail exhausted the prisoner's strength. They are seeking a continuance of the trial, which is set for January 15, and the proceeding is expected to be a long one.

Richeson is fast recovering from his recent self-mutilation and that his mentality is unimpaired.

District Attorney Pelletier said there will be no compromise of the case because of the preacher's recent act. He says he has carefully investigated the case and is satisfied that he will be physically and mentally competent to stand trial upon the date set.

District Attorney Pelletier said: "The defendant is in good physical condition and is making marked daily improvement. His mentality has not been impaired. There is no question but that he will be able to attend the trial January 15. It may be of interest to know that for breakfast today he had two eggs and a pint of milk and for dinner a stew. He sat up in bed and seemed to be in the best of spirits. The stitches have been taken from his wound already."

"I had no conversation in regard to a compromise at my conference with Chief Justice Aiken. I feel it is due the Commonwealth to make the fact and unequivocal statement and to settle baseless rumors regarding the outcome of the case and the condition of the defendant."

Attorney Morse, of counsel for Richeson, had a secret conference recently in Charles-street jail with Dr. Howard A. Lott, the attending physician, and Dr. George A. Sargent, the jail physician. Lawyers for the defense may ask that a doctor representing the Commonwealth be granted without an order of the court.

BOY'S HASTE IS FATAL

EAGERNESS TO SHOOT DUCKS CAUSES CARELESSNESS.

Berkeley Lad Accidentally Hits Trigger While Reloading and Is Shot in Breast.

BERKELEY, Cal., Jan. 3.—(Special.)—A boy's anxiety to bag another duck from a flock whirling over his head in the West Berkeley marshes, Walter Blum, 15 years old, when re-loading, accidentally shot and killed himself in the presence of John Perry and Lawrence Woodbeck, youths of his age, who were concealed in the "blind" with him.

The boys had been waiting for the flight of the birds since long before daylight and their fingers were numb with cold when the quarry came into view. They had fired almost in unison and Blum had winged one when he was rattling in the water near him.

Overjoyed at his prowess, he attempted to re-load with fingers trembling with excitement, and in some way struck the trigger of the loaded barrel of his gun.

The charge of shot tore into his body just above the heart. His companions sought to stanch the wound to revive him, knowing that other aid was far distant, but Blum died within a few moments.

NAVY SHOPMEN WALK OUT

Objections to New Timecard Causes Trouble at Norfolk.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 3.—Eight hundred of the 2000 men employed in the Norfolk Navy-Yard walked out today in protest against what they assert is an effort to introduce a scientific time system. The men refused to sign time cards.

The men held a conference late today, but no announcements were forthcoming.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The Navy officials here have instructed Captain Doyle, commandant of the Norfolk Navy-Yard, to explain that the time cards are in no way connected with the Taylor system of scientific management, but rather the following out of a practice of keeping time on each job. The men have just received an increased allowance of 3 cents per day per man, and it is believed here the trouble soon will be adjusted.

President O'Connell, of the Machinists' Union, was summoned to the reportment today to discuss the subject. He expressed his satisfaction with the explanation.

WHAT WILL COLONEL DO?

This will be done. But out of abundance of precaution other steps will be taken to make certain those votes that are instructed, and it is probable that the method similar to those employed by Hitchcock in 1908 will be tried again.

But will the new manager, whoever he may be, succeed as well as did Hitchcock in 1908? Will not the cry for Roosevelt be louder and more persistent this year than four years ago? Will there not be many un instructed delegates will be instructed for Roosevelt? These are the questions that politicians are asking one another; these are the questions that give rise to such frequent mention of the name of Roosevelt.

Hard Fight in Prospect.

It is the consensus of opinion that the Republican party is about to enter upon the hardest fight it has had since 1892. Its prospects for success next November are poorer than they have been since Benjamin Harrison was re-nominated. And this situation has caused many leaders to believe and ask if any candidate can run stronger than Taft. La Follette cannot, for his boom is on its last legs. Cummins could expect to run a close second, but he is a stronger candidate than Taft? Here again is one of the salient topics of current gossip.

MONETARY REPORT READY

Members of Commission Will Make Final Consideration Today.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The National Monetary Commission will tomorrow make final consideration of its report, which, according to a resolution of the Senate, must be submitted not later than next Tuesday. The text of the report probably will be cleared up by the commission on which the legislation necessary to carry into effect the National Reserve Association plan.

The general problem on which the commission is working is how best to safeguard the association from control by any group or set of its members.

Senate leaders declare there is little chance of monetary legislation at this session of Congress. Chairman Aldrich, however, has announced that he will press for some action.

The voters in states having a Presidential preference primary may have considerable to do with shaping opinion for it seems certain that Roosevelt's name will be placed on the ballots of some states along with the name of Taft, and possibly that of La Follette, and it is too early to predict what the result of these primaries will be.

On the other hand, if the Roosevelt movement, that seems to be progressing without any recognized leadership, should be quelled, the situation would be greatly clarified. But will the Roosevelt movement be checked?

PINCHOT DENIES STATEMENT

Ex-Forester Does Not Know What Roosevelt Intends to Do.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 3.—Gifford Pinchot today denied he had said Theodore Roosevelt had told him he would not accept the Presidential nomination if it were tendered him.

The Federal authorities there are awaiting a decision from United States District Judge Donworth, of Seattle and Tacoma, Wash., and if he holds that the passing of old state bank bills together with the intention of passing them as money constitutes counterfeiting, Clyde Eastbrook, Edward A. Thornton, Wesley S. Riber and James Snider, the men in custody will be arrested on Federal warrants charging them with the crime.

The bills which the men are accused of trying to pass are old state bank bills of Georgia, issued long before the Civil War. On the printed side they closely resemble genuine currency authorized by the United States Government. They are blank on one side.

On the question whether in law the action of passing the bills together in this way constitutes a deliberate attempt to "imitate currency or obligations of the United States," depends the fate of the four men in jail.
