

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

REGONIAN TELEPHONES. Printing-room, Main 1070 A 6055. City circulation, Main 1070 A 6055.

AMUSEMENTS. BAKER THEATER—(Eleventh and Morrison)...

ORPHICUM THEATER—(Morrison, between Fourth and Sixth)...

PANTAGES THEATER—(Eleventh and Adams)...

EMPEROR THEATER—(Park and Washington)...

LYRIC THEATER—(Fourth and Stark)...

STARS AND STRIPES ON JOY, OGDON, TIVOLI—First-run pictures, 11 A. M.—11 P. M.

STOLEN AUTOVOS RECOVERED—The automobile stolen in the city on Tuesday night while he was witnessing the play at the Hellig Theater was recovered early yesterday...

MRS. E. A. COOKLEY'S FUNERAL HELD—The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Cookley, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Cooney, 423 Waco street, Tuesday, was held yesterday afternoon from the Skewes undertaking parlors...

TWO DAIRIES OUT OF 22 CONDEMNED—From the monthly report of Deputy Commissioner Nelson of the Dairy and Food Commissioner's office, covering dairy inspection in Turner, Or., and vicinity in December, 22 dairies are shown to have been inspected by him. Of these two were condemned.

MRS. PRATT'S FUNERAL HELD—The funeral of Mrs. Frances Emily Cole Pratt was held yesterday afternoon from Zeller's chapel, on Williams avenue. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

STREETCARS MAY CROSS BRIDGE—Provisions are made for double street railway tracks on the concrete bridge to be built across the Sully gulch on East Twenty-first street.

CONSTRUCTION ENGINEER APPOINTED—Mayor Hushlight announced yesterday the appointment of R. E. Kremers as chief engineer of construction in the office of the building inspector.

GRANDE TO INSTALL OFFICERS—Evening Star Grange, No. 27, Patrons of Husbandry, will hold an all-day session Saturday afternoon at the Jefferson High School, to install officers for the ensuing year.

MOUNT SCOTT WOMAN AT REST—The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Westfall, who died at her home at Mount Scott, was held yesterday afternoon from the Jefferson High School.

MORNING MEET TODAY—The January meeting of the Portland council of the Congress of Mothers will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Jefferson High School.

WRIGHT'S SAMPLE SHOE SHOP has moved from the Oregonian bldg. to the ground floor, at 244 Washington street, between Second and Third.

MILLS COLLAGE near Oakland, Cal., a woman's college. Spring semester opens January 10. Luella Clay Carson, L. D. president. For catalogue address Registrar.

PATRON HOME DIRECTORS TO MEET—The regular monthly business meeting of the Patron Home Association will be held Friday, at the home, at 18:30 A. M.

WANT THE OCEAN IN WINTER—The climate is very mild and the famous Hotel Gearhart was never more attractive. Winter rates, $5 per day. American plan.

AUCTION SALE TODAY at 2:30 P. M.—Mortgage sale of the Baltimore Antiques Furniture Co.'s stock, at 162 Park st. Baker and Crowell, auctioneers.

VAULTS for storing trunks, silverware, etc., a convenience to those leaving the city for a period of time. Chamber of Commerce Safe Deposit Co.

PUR SALE—Northeast corner Thibault and Gilliam (190x190). Inquire of E. J. Stroebel, sec. of Stroebel & Barenstetter Land Company, 124 Sixth.

TO LEASE—Location on upper Washington street, suitable for garage purpose; term of years. E 658, Oregonian.

STORE FOR RENT on Sixth street just off Washington; long-term lease. Apply Wakefield, Pries & Co., 45 4th.

V. KASPAR, ladies' tailor, has reduced prices on all orders, $61, 602 and 480 Merchants Trust bldg.

DR. BALL, dentist, has returned and opened offices in the Marquam bldg. Main 2844.

HERRINGER'S BIER—Same price as local beer. Make it the best test days, now is considered out of danger.

COURT CITES SIX TO APPEAR—To show cause why they are not in contempt, Judge Bean issued an order in the United States District Court yesterday for Caspar Ling, C. A. Sweek, George W. Young, Green Hudspeeth, James Dalton and J. W. Geary to appear in court February 5. This proceeding has grown out of the suit of the Pacific Livestock Company against W. D. Hanley and 20 others in which the defendants were enjoined from interfering with the plaintiff company and others in the use of the waters of Shively River, in Harney county. It is alleged that certain of the defendants have violated and disregarded the terms of this injunction and have completely shut off the water from the use of a number of persons.

MAYOR APPOINTS DEPUTY INSPECTOR—Mayor Hushlight yesterday appointed D. K. Soden, who was recommended by the Employers' Association, to the position of a deputy in the department of electrical inspection, under Chief Inspector Anderson, a union labor man. Mayor Hushlight named Mr. Anderson as the chief inspector of electricity in the Building Inspector's Department, there was much comment on the appointment was not the best that could have been made and that it was political. Soden is a desired man at the place by the employers. Now, both men, more or less representative of the two sides, are to work side by side in the city's employ.

EREWORTH LEAGUE TO RALLY—The third quarterly rally of Portland district Epworth League will be held in the Woodstock Methodist Episcopal church Friday night, January 15. Miss Mary Hepburn, a deaconess, will be the chief speaker. She will outline the work of the league with special emphasis on the visitation of the sick and care for the needy. The rally will be in charge of Mrs. Lena Sweetland, first vice-president of the district. The Woodstock chapter will furnish a social program, beginning at 8 o'clock. The first part of the services will open at 8 o'clock.

BUSINESS MEN'S CLUB TO MEET—The East Side Business Men's Club will meet tonight in the auditorium of the East Portland Branch Library, at East Eleventh and East Alder streets, to discuss plans for a freight depot and freight facilities for the East Side. A report will be received from the committee appointed to investigate proposed amendments of the franchise of the O. W. R. & N. so that tracks extending to the railroad bridge may be operated under common-user provisions. Reports will be submitted by the committee on auditorium and public market sites and the status of these questions will be announced.

W. T. POSTER TO DELIVER LECTURE—W. T. Poster, president of Reed College, has consented to deliver the first lecture of the course which the United Improvement Club is sponsoring in the auditorium of the East Portland Branch Library. The date has not been decided, but may be the next Monday in the month. The course will include lectures on the "City Beautiful," "Greater Portland Plans" and similar topics. Several prominent men have been invited to speak. All the lectures will be open to the public. Mr. Poster's lecture will pertain to the benefits of college education.

WOMAN'S CLUB CLASSES TO MEET—The art department of the Woman's Club will meet today at 2 o'clock, in Woodmen of the World hall, Tenth and Commercial streets. Papers will be read on West and Copley, by Mrs. D. S. Smith and Mrs. F. L. Stinson. Mrs. Welster, the leader, will speak on the "Banks of the works under discussion." The Portland Psychology Club will meet today in Olds, Wortman & King's cafeteria, on the fourth floor, at 10 o'clock. "Thoughts for the New Year," will be given at 2:30 o'clock by Mrs. Alice Welster. Other speakers will follow and library books will be exchanged.

DENVER CALLE LUTHERAN PASTOR—Rev. C. A. Jensen, pastor of the Trinity United Norwegian Lutheran Church, at Portsmouth, will visit this district next week and will accept the pastorate of the Norwegian Lutheran Church at Denver, Colo. Mr. Jensen has been pastor of the Portsmouth church about three and one-half years ago. He now is pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran Church at Eugene. Mr. Jensen succeeded him to the pastorate of Trinity Church. The successor to Mr. Jensen has not yet been chosen.

ENEMY-DAY CAMPAIGN DROPPED—Because only 20 of 122 ministers responded to an invitation to give financial support to the Men and Religion Forward Movement, and an eight-day campaign in February and March, those in charge of the Portland branch of the work have decided to abandon the plan. The eight-day campaign from February 25 to March 5, although the short campaign has been dropped, the work of organizing effort under the five heads of social service, Bible study, evangelism, boys' work and missions will be continued.

CLUBS TO CONSIDER SCHOOL CHANGE—The United Improvement Clubs' Association will consider the school amendment proposed by the Civic Council at its meeting Monday night in the auditorium of the East Portland Branch Library. The amendment was before the last session of the Legislature and will be explained to club delegates. All clubs have been requested to send their full delegations to the meeting.

COOPER BACK FROM SAN FRANCISCO—Mr. Cooper, who left for San Francisco, returned yesterday. Mr. McCarthy, of Tacoma, arrived on the McCarthy from San Francisco yesterday. Mr. McCarthy has been in the city for several days and will be in the Legislature at Sacramento for the Associated Press. He is a prominent Elk and says all the Tacoma Elks will be in Portland in the coming Elks' reunion.

LADIES AID SOCIETIES TO ASSEMBLE—The Ladies Aid Society of Taylor-Street Methodist Church has invited the various Aid Societies of all the Methodist churches in the city to an all-day meeting in the church parlor January 10. Luncheon will be served from 12 to 1 followed by a social hour. A program has been arranged for the afternoon.

COHEN'S TRIAL BEGINS TODAY—Max G. Cohen, who was indicted on a charge of soliciting a bribe from a woman of the underworld while acting as Municipal Judge in the absence of Judge Taylor, will begin his trial today in Judge Morrow's department of the Circuit Court this morning.

ALLEGED PERJUROR GAINS DELAY—Sell Masterman, under indictment in the United States Circuit Court on a charge of perjury in connection with an Indian liquor case, was arraigned yesterday and was given until next Monday to make a plea to sell for less than $23.50. Jimmy Dunn, room 215 Oregonian bldg. Take elevator.

COUNCILMAN JENNINGS BETTER—J. J. Jennings, Councilman-at-Large, is ill at his home. He is suffering from a complication of diseases. The information given at his residence last night was that he is slowly improving, and that it is expected he will be out in a week.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U. TO MEET—The Central Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet as usual today at 2:30 P. M. The mothers' meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Margaret McKenzie. The meeting will be held at room 302 in the Goodwood bldg.

MRS. RAFFETY IS IMPROVING—Mrs. Raffety, wife of Dr. C. H. Raffety, who has been seriously ill at her home, at East Tenth and East Washington streets, is the best test days, now is considered out of danger.

FOUR MEN BECOME CITIZENS—Judge Wolverton admitted four new citizens yesterday in the United States District Court after an examination of the men, and witnesses who appeared in their behalf. At the conclusion of the examination one of the witnesses attempted to compliment the court for his thorough examination, but was quickly stopped by Judge Wolverton with the remark: "The duties of the court in these matters are specially provided by the statutes." The men admitted are as follows: Alonzo Alfred Johnson, Norway; Harry Alexander Bell, Canada; Karl Magnus Koolvang, Norway; Nils August Peterson, Sweden. Being granted his citizenship Koolvang was permitted to change his name to Edwards.

MONTAVILLA TO GET FIRE PROTECTION—Montavilla is to have fire protection this year, a fire station being provided for in the city's budget. It will be built between the Base Line road and East Ocean street. There has been contention between the residents of North and South Montavilla, but it is practically settled that the fire station will be built between the Base Line and East Gilliam street on a central cross street. The water committee has laid large water mains in Montavilla and placed a number of fire hydrants there on a main on the Montavilla main. A combination chemical engine and hose wagon are to be provided for the fire station.

PATENT ATTACKED—A direct attack has been made against the right to its patent of the Hassam Laying Company in its suit against Consolidated Contract Company for alleged infringement in the construction of street paving. The question came up yesterday in the United States District Court, before Judge Bean, on a demurrer, which alleges that there is not such a "novelty" in the plan of the street construction by the plaintiff to have justified a patent being granted by the Government. The matter was taken under advisement and whichever Judge Bean decides, the case will be appealed to the higher court.

W. H. ST. CLAIR BORN HERE—Alaskan, Who Died December 16, Was Member of Fire Department.

W. H. ST. CLAIR BORN HERE—Alaskan, Who Died December 16, Was Member of Fire Department.

Effort to Trace Him Through Travelers' Checks for $1000 Fruitless. Drug Habit Lessening.

Effort to solve the mystery surrounding "Dr. J. C. Day," who was taken by the police in a downtown hotel Monday after he had created a disturbance, and who was later found to be possessed of a considerable quantity of valuable paper under three different names, proved unavailing yesterday.

BLACK NEVER HAD CASH BELT—Chicago Bookkeeper Says He Does Not Know of Dr. J. C. Day.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Fred W. Black, a bookkeeper for the Sopher Lumber Company, whose name and address were found on a money belt worn by a man who is believed to be Dr. J. C. Day, but whose identity, aside from his name, is puzzling the police of Portland, Or., said yesterday he knew anyone by the name of Dr. Day, nor had he ever owned a money belt.

SMITH NOT IN LOS ANGELES—Real Estate Operator Missing for Several Months.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 3.—(Special.)—Frank C. Smith, formerly a real estate operator with offices at 562 American Bank building, Los Angeles, whose effects and papers were found in the possession of "Dr. J. C. Day" when the latter was arrested yesterday in Portland, has not been seen here for some months.

SEATS ARE SELLING—De Pachmann's Captivating Beauty of Interpretation Has Strange Power Over Audience.

Seats are now selling at the Hellig for De Pachmann's recital Friday night under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman. The marvellous beauty of De Pachmann's tone and his poetic interpretation of Chopin have occasioned the saying, "Just as Shelley is the poet of poets, so is De Pachmann the pianist of pianists." In truth, not Faderewski himself can move other musicians so profoundly as can De Pachmann by his captivating grace of interpretation, entrancing sweetness of melody and exotic sensibility of rhythm. Every hearer invariably leaves the auditorium after one of his recitals in a rapture of awe and delight. And De Pachmann enjoys it as keenly as his audience.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.—Don't take it out of your hide these chilly mornings. I can sell you a guaranteed all-wool coat, convertible collar, for $17.50, but mark you, not made to sell for less than $23.50. Jimmy Dunn, room 215 Oregonian bldg. Take elevator.

RENT A NEW PIANO.—New pianos to rent—at $4 per month; rent allowed on purchase. The Wiley B. Allen Co., cor. 7th and Morrison.

Wright's Sample Shoe Shop has moved from the Oregonian bldg. to the ground floor at 244 Washington street, between Second and Third. Same old prices prevail.

Pontiac Association Incorporates.—VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The Clark County Pontiac Association has filed articles of incorporation for $250—100 shares at $2.50 a share. The principal place of business will be Vancouver. The object of the corporation will be the holding of fairs and livestock and poultry exhibitions. The incorporators were R. J. Kennedy, J. W. Wulfe, Goodnight, D. S. Cameron and Samuel J. Miller.

NUMBER 19 in a series of indorsements of the Certificate of Title system by bankers, lawyers and real estate men reasons why a Certificate of Title furnishes the BEST Protection to buyers and mortgagees of real estate

TITLE AND TRUST COMPANY Lewis Building, 4th and Oak

W. H. ST. CLAIR BORN HERE Alaskan, Who Died December 16, Was Member of Fire Department.

W. H. ST. CLAIR BORN HERE Alaskan, Who Died December 16, Was Member of Fire Department.

Effort to Trace Him Through Travelers' Checks for $1000 Fruitless. Drug Habit Lessening.

Effort to solve the mystery surrounding "Dr. J. C. Day," who was taken by the police in a downtown hotel Monday after he had created a disturbance, and who was later found to be possessed of a considerable quantity of valuable paper under three different names, proved unavailing yesterday.

BLACK NEVER HAD CASH BELT—Chicago Bookkeeper Says He Does Not Know of Dr. J. C. Day.

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Fred W. Black, a bookkeeper for the Sopher Lumber Company, whose name and address were found on a money belt worn by a man who is believed to be Dr. J. C. Day, but whose identity, aside from his name, is puzzling the police of Portland, Or., said yesterday he knew anyone by the name of Dr. Day, nor had he ever owned a money belt.

SMITH NOT IN LOS ANGELES—Real Estate Operator Missing for Several Months.

SEATS ARE SELLING—De Pachmann's Captivating Beauty of Interpretation Has Strange Power Over Audience.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.—Don't take it out of your hide these chilly mornings. I can sell you a guaranteed all-wool coat, convertible collar, for $17.50, but mark you, not made to sell for less than $23.50. Jimmy Dunn, room 215 Oregonian bldg. Take elevator.

RENT A NEW PIANO.—New pianos to rent—at $4 per month; rent allowed on purchase. The Wiley B. Allen Co., cor. 7th and Morrison.

Wright's Sample Shoe Shop has moved from the Oregonian bldg. to the ground floor at 244 Washington street, between Second and Third. Same old prices prevail.

Pontiac Association Incorporates.—VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 2.—(Special.)—The Clark County Pontiac Association has filed articles of incorporation for $250—100 shares at $2.50 a share. The principal place of business will be Vancouver. The object of the corporation will be the holding of fairs and livestock and poultry exhibitions. The incorporators were R. J. Kennedy, J. W. Wulfe, Goodnight, D. S. Cameron and Samuel J. Miller.

KNIGHT SAYS: "Black and colored velvets are as stylish as ever"—and KNIGHT IS RIGHT Distinctively Uncommon Stylish and Comfortable The KNIGHT SHOE For Men and Women $3.50

"Follow the Children—They Know." Our CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT is unique. It's the largest on the Coast. The kiddies don't have to climb stairs—they and their parents delight in going up the ship-like gangway to the second floor, where special salesmen cater to their requirements.

KNIGHT'S MORRISON AT SEVENTH Full & Gibbs' Bldg.

In the best homes—at the better restaurants you will find that proof of nice discrimination—Blue Label Ketchup

JUST ARRIVED IMPORTED COBURGER BOCK BEER POSTAL DEPOSITS GROW $10,449 Placed in Federal Bank Here in One Day.

Last Week's Pimples Gone! Pimples, Blotches, Blackheads, Disappear When Stuart's Calcium Wafers Are Used.

Where's the Best Place? "HOW WE WON OUR HOMES" The Portland Realty Board invites the homeowners of Portland and vicinity to enter an essay contest for the best articles on the general topic, "How We Won Our Home," and offers the following prizes each week:

EVERY WEEK FOR ARTICLES ON "HOW WE WON OUR HOMES" The Portland Realty Board invites the homeowners of Portland and vicinity to enter an essay contest for the best articles on the general topic, "How We Won Our Home," and offers the following prizes each week:

KEYSTONE PRESS Anything in Printing Front and Stark Sts.

HOME BUILDERS Protect Yourself! Get the Original and Genuine HORLICK'S MALTED MILK

Button and Pleating Shop MOVED TO 509 ROYAL BLDG. 7th and Morrison Sts.

Foster & Kleiser SIGNS COAL East 629 B 6148 LIBERTY COAL & ICE CO. EDWARD E. GOUDEY, BUILDING.