LORIMER TELLS OF FEUDS IN ILLINOIS

Trouble With Kohlsaat Laid to Difference Over Nomination of Blaine.

MEDILL IMPLACABLE FOE

Senator Says He Was Accused of Theft of Half Million as Result of Quarrels With Editors in Chicago.

WASHINGTON. Jan. 11. Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, told today the story of his life in politics to the Senate investigating committee and the length of his differences with some of the Chicago newspaper publishers. The opposition of H. H. Kohlssat, he testified, began at the Chicago convention, at which James G. Hiaine was nominated for President.

"I was a Binine man and began to organize the Illinois delegation for him," said Senator Lorimer. "Mr. Kohlssat sent one of his men to tell me that he had no objection if i voted for Hiaine myself, but that I must stop surking to split the Illinois delegation or he would put me cut of public life. I went on just the same."

"Did you ever talk to Mr. Kohlssat shout driving you out of the party" taked Senator Kern.

Newspaper Attacks Bitter.

"I don't think I ever talked to him in my life," replied Mr. Lorimer, "but what happened verified what he said. A newspaper stery came out that I had stolen $500,000 from the Chicago water department. Expert bookkeepers reported that I had turned in every cent I collected. About four lines was printed to that effect, and the Impression was left with many people that I had stolen the money."

Differences with the late Joseph Medill, owner of the Tribune, he testified began when Mr. Medill was said to have been a candidate for the United States Senate.

United States Senate.

"It was about 1895," said Senator Lorimor, "when he sent for me and I told him it would be impossible to elect him. I told him I could not support him, as many of my friends were pledged to Colonel L. M. Davis. Colonel Davis later released them with the request that they work for Medill, but Medill withdrew before the conference adjourned, and from that time his attacks on the men who had hesitated, but were willing to support him, were very bitter. He never indicated what his grievance was and he never connected the attacks with his candidacy, but they came on regularly."

"Did the Tribune ever support you?"
saked Senator Kern.
"It did once. It said I was unfit for office, but that it was no time for Republicans to quarrel and that I had better be elected with the rest. They have opposed me constantly since 1895.
"What was the cause of your quarrel." "What was the cause of your quarrel with the newspapers other than the Tribune."
"Medill used to control Republican affairs pretty much in Cook County and when Kohlmant came in he wanted to divide the influence. I quarreled with him because I would not do things he wanted me to do."

"NEW COUNTY" PLEAD 4000

Vashon and Maury Island Residents Seek Own Government.

TACUMA. Wash. Jan. 11.—(Special.)

The next Legislature will be asked to create a new county to be known as Vashon, if residents of Vashon and Maury islands have their way. They are now a part of King County. In the past week, practically every community on the two islands has voted for the change. This will require legislative action and the island resilents are hoping to organize effectively. The population of the two islands is about 4000, equal to several of the smaller counties.

Taxes paid by the islands to King County amount to $12,000, the residents say, while their return from the county amounts to $40,000. The principal TACOMA, Wash, Jan. 11 .- (Special.)

CLATSOP LEVY 26.4 MILLS

High Assessment Caused by State Tax Increase of $40,000.

ANTORIA. Or. Jan. 11.—(Special.)— The County Court today fixed the tax layles on the 1911 roll at 22.7 mills for county and state and 3.7 mills for county school, a total of 26.4 mills. The reason for the high levy is that the rounty's portion of the state tax was $40,000 more than it was last year. The assessed valuation of the property as fixed by the Assessor was $9.629.361, but the State Board increased that valuation to more than $21,000,000. The court appropriated $40,000 for road improvements in addition to what is raised by special levies in the several to have direct charge of all road construction in Lane County, was decided upon by the County Court yesterday, and the court is now seeking a suitable man for the place. A practical man capable of directing the work, and of giving the county expert engineering advice, is what is wanted. The court expects to keep for itself the planning of road work and the final say as to what roads are to be improved and how, but they want an expert who will advise them as to the best forms of construction to use in the different sections of the county, and to give accurate estimates of all the different elements of cost of any proposed improvement. The present Deep Interest Evinced in Outcome, Which Even Prophand to give accurate estimates of the tifferent elements of cost of any proposed improvement. The present Road Supervisors will not be displaced, but will rather be aided by the expert. County Judge Helmus W. Thompson has been giving the subject of good roads his careful attention ever since he was appointed to the office two years ago, and he is especially pleased at the move made by the court to carry on a systematic campaign for good roads this year. There are over 150c miles of roads in Lane County, little over half of which have any sert of improved surface. Three miles of road between Eugene and Springfield, and five miles northward from Eugene toward Junction have been macadamdized, and are the only first-class roads in the county. Others are from passable to poor in the Winter time. ets Cannot Forecast.

BERLIN. Jan. 11.—(Special.)—A general election will be held throughout the German Empire Friday, January 12, to choose members of the Reichstag. Rarely has an election excited more interest since the founding of modern Germany and rarely has greater importance attached to the result. The widespread disastisfaction over the policy of the government in the Moroccan negotiations, a disastisfaction which left it apparently without a single friend in the Reischstag, and the great increase in the cost of the necessaries of life, which bears most heavily upon the wage-workers and all persons saries of life, which hears most heavily upon the wage-workers and all persons of small incomes, have created a situation in which the most acute political prophets find themselves at a loss to predict the probable result at the polls. It seems to be conceded that the parties of the Left—the liberal groups and the Socialists—will make gains, but their probable extent is uncertain.

Many New Parties Formed. The Reichstag just dissolved was elected in January, 1907, and sat for the five years' term provided in the constitution. It was constituted, following the elections of 1907, as follows:

Amenda declares that, in addition to putting the ground glass in his coffee, his wife did other unkind things, including beating a tattoo on his head with a flatiron when he sought rest in his bed, stabbing him with an umbrella, tearing up his pay check and showing demonstrative affection for family friends.
The couple were married at Hannibal, sential points of variance between these various parties, five great groups can be named which comprehend fairly the concrete views of all but the particularistic voters of the empire. These groups are the Conservativas, Center, National Liberals, Radicals (or progressives) and Socialists.

The Conservatives are, above all, a government party and the representatives of the great landed proprietors of North Germany, especially Prussia, the eastern provinces of which form their stronghold. They are strongly monarchistic, opposed to every step that may lead to a more direct participation of the common people in governmental affairs and opposed to the general franchise, favoring instead "a franchise based upon the organic groups of the people."

The Center or Catholic party is the strongest party numerically in the Reichstag and has been the strongest almost without exception since 1874. From this it comes that the Center has always held the decisive vote on all questions and the government has always had to reckon with it. Its moving principle is the protection of the interests of the Roman Catholic Church and its equality before the law with the Evangelical or state church. It supports a high tariff and since 1858 has been a government party, alled with the Conservatives on all important questions and building thus tomorrow.

Mr. Bacon especially refrained from making his retirement public, as he desired the first announcement to come from Harvard University, which yesterday chose him to be a fellow in place of Judge Lowell, deceased.

Ambassador Bacon said he wished his friends to know that there were no ulterior motives for his resignation. He had for 17 years been a member of the portant questions and building what is called the "black-blue bl

Once the all-powerful party of Germany, which, supporting Bismarck, played an important role in the formation of the Mr. Bacon added that he welcomed the opportunity to identify himself ac-tively with the great problems of American civic and National life.

Important role in the formation of the modern empire, the National Liberals have failen from a high estate.

The Radicals, who term themselves the "Progressive People's Party," are made up of three previously existing radical factions—the Radical People's party, the Radical League and the German People's party, all of which had delegates in the last Reichstag. In March, 1810, these three principal parties of the left were united. The Radicals are an outgrowth of the old Proicals are an outgrowth of the old Pro-gressive party, which was organized in 1848 by advocates of free trade. The present coalition advocates a syste-matic abolition of the protective tariff. TACOMA, Jan. 11.—Investigation is being made by the prosecuting attorney's office and also by a detective of the Burns' agency into the charge that a juror was bribed in the case of Frank Calvin, convicted yesterday of assault in the second degree in shooting Mrs. Vivian Irving, a nurse at Eatonville. The jury stood 11 to one on the first ballot for conviction on attenuated murder. and equal rights for all citizens and all religions, with absolute religious freedom for the individual. The programme flatly demands a "responsible, collegial imperial ministry." Peaceful arbitration of all international dis-putes is a cardinal point in the party the first ballot for conviction on attempted murder.

After the jurors were discharged yesterday, one of them asked to be excused for the term as he had a cold. Another juror said the rest of them suspected he was crocked. It is alleged one of the attorneys for Calvin well known. Their ultimate political aim is a pure democracy, in which all citizens, including the women, shall have some talking with the juror in a have count times. alm is a pure democracy, in which all citizens, including the women, shall have equal rights. They are unsiterably opposed to armaments and war, to tariffs and indirect taxes; favor communal ownership of property and of all means of production, no interference in religious affairs, separation of church and state, direct legislation by voters through the initiative and referendum, universal direct franchise, abolition of night work for women and children and the fullest self-government down to the smallest municipal divisions of the empire.

The Socialists have no friends among the other parties and are hated by the Emperor, who has termed them "the arch enemies of the empire." Their growth has been almost phenomenal. In 1871, 192,258, in 1890, 1,427,288, and in 1907, 2,258,000. This growth has come in the face of most determined opposition from the government, which suffers no Socialist to hold any important government position or to receive any political honor, decoration or title.
