Attorney for Estate Argues That Mother's Previous Suit Nullifles Present One.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19 .- The State Supreme Court took under advisement today the appeal of Beatrice Anita Turnbull, daughter of Lillian Ashley Turnbull, from the decree o Ashiey Turnbull, from the decree of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, which donies her a daughter's share of the millions left by the late Eilas ("Lucky") Baldwin. Judge Hutton, attorney for the ap-pellant, urged that although the com-mon-law marriage, which he contended was in affort between Idilian Ashler. was in effect between Lillian Ashley, now Mrs. Turnbull, and Baldwin, might have been voided later, nevertheless the issue of the marriage would be entitled to a daughter's share of the es-tate. #### Miss Pankhurst Astounded.

Having thus expressed herself, Miss Pankhurst was astounded when she was told that quite a few young women take advantage of Leap Year in the United States. "It would be well for those girls to think of matters of more importance," she said. "The suffrage movement has drawn women to one another and they have buried all rivalry in their new work. The woman of the future will not worry herself into a state of ner-vous prostration over trivial matters, such as the winning of a man's affec-

"We have simply kept on fighting and it was necessary for us to nettle Lloyd George and Mr. Asquith a little to get anything. If you don't bother the life out of English statesmen you'll never get anything, so the nettling was in a good cause. "The trouble in America is that the average citizen does not take enough interest in politics. He leaves all that to the grafters. When women take a hand there will be fewer grafters.

That has been proved by the election of women to the Board of Guardians in England. Men who have formed that Board, which looks after the poorhouses, have been terribly corrupt, but since women have had a hand in the
