PIONEER WOMAN TO BE LAID TO REST

—The funeral of Mrs. Jane Warnstaff, an Oregon pioneer, who died at her home, at 385 East Eleventh street, Sunday, will be held today at Astoria, where interment will be made in Greenwood Cemetery. Mrs. Warnstaff was 79 years old, and born in Lafayette, Ind. She was married to John Warnstaff in 1848. In 1852 the couple crossed the plains to Oregon behind an oxteam, arriving in Portland October of that year. They settled at Astoria in 1854, where Mrs. Warnstaff lived until the death of Mr. Warnstaff, March 3, 1907. She then made her home with her children. She had been blind for seven years. She is survived by the following children: Mrs. N. C. Hillery and Miss Elny Warnstaff, of Portland; C. W. Warnstaff, Contra Costa, Wash.; Mrs. W. J. Hester, Astoria, Ore.; Mrs. J. Warnstaff, Elmer, Wash.; and Albert Warnstaff, Bend, Ore.

E. E. DARLING FUNERAL HELD.—The funeral of E. E. Darling was conducted yesterday morning. Rev. Delmar H. Trimble, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church, directed the service, and burial was in Riverview Cemetery. Mr. Darling died Saturday evening at his home, 65 East Sixty-seventh street, after he had been ill a short time. He was born in Ohio and came to Oregon in 1870. He was a member of the Oregon Agricultural College. Mr. Darling had been associated with the North Bank and the Ruth Trust Company for Postmaster Inspector Durand has been in Sacramento, Cal., for several days, investigating clerks with reference to the robbery of the East Side station, where several suspects have been arrested. He was informed that two men were attempting to dispose of stamps in large quantities and were under surveillance. His arrival hastened their arrest, together with their plant of nitroglycerine and burglar outfit. Whether sufficient evidence was found to connect the men with the local robbery is doubtful unless some of the gang has implicated the others.

BANKRUPT MANAGER SETTLES.—Harry A. Meiner, the former Albia merchant who went into bankruptcy in December, has settled with his creditors at 40 per cent on the dollar. An agreement to this effect was filed in the United States District Court yesterday and after proper verification was approved by Judge Wolvorton. At the time of his failure Meiner was in possession of $5829, with assets nominally of the same amount, but they consisted largely of a stock of goods. The order of the court relieves Meiner of his bondsmen liability, returning from his luncheon began to notice the ill effects. He took the bench, however, but after the case had been in progress about 15 minutes was obliged to retire.

JUDGE MCGINN ILL.—Seized with an acute attack of colic, Circuit Judge McGinn was taken to the hospital from the bench during the progress of a personal injury case yesterday. He was resting easy at his home last night and announced that he expected to occupy the bench again today, or at least tomorrow. Judge McGinn had eaten some asparagus in a restaurant near the Courthouse and while returning from his luncheon began to notice the ill effects. He took the bench, however, but after the case had been in progress about 15 minutes was obliged to retire.

DR. GEARY'S SON UNDER KNIFE.—Suddenly attacked by appendicitis after his return from Mexico a few days ago, Everett Geary, the son of Dr. P. Geary, was operated on for appendicitis at St. Vincent's Hospital yesterday. Mr. Geary had been in Mexico for about a year when he was engaged as a civil engineer in railroad work. Symptoms of the disease first made their appearance Monday, and during the night the illness reached an acute stage. He is making favorable progress.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY TO BE REQUESTED.—Within a few days United States District Attorney McCourt will request Judge Wolvorton to convene a Federal grand jury about February 1 or as soon thereafter as will be convenient for the court to sit in California. The grand jury is to be organized shortly to sit on the court of appeals he will learn when Judge Bean will return to the state and Federal grand juries in the order of the latter will have charge of its deliberations.

RIVERS CLOSED TO FISHERIES.—County Clerk Fields yesterday received notice from the State Game Commission that the Willamette River north of the Oregon City falls and the Clackamas River and all its tributaries will be closed to all forms of fishing between March 1 and May 1 of this year. These streams have recently been stocked with salmon by the state and Federal governments, the order states.

DR. WETTERBERG PROGRESSING.—Dr. J. H. Wetterberg, who has been at Good Samaritan Hospital for a week to undergo treatment for gall stones, was reported yesterday to be making marked progress in his condition. As soon as he has sufficiently improved an operation will be performed. This, it is believed, will require about a week.

RUSHING AUTO BURNS BRIDGE GATE

—Striking a gate on the Hawthorne bridge, late Monday night, a speeding automobile crumpled it up like a jack-knife and skidded 100 feet when the driver threw on his brakes. OREGONIAN ANNUAL ATTRACTIONS

—Appreciation of The Oregonian's annual edition is expressed by T. W. Larkin, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at Beaverton, Ore., in a letter recently addressed to Charles F. Bridwell, of Portland. He says: "It is certainly very kind of you to send me a copy of the splendid edition of The Oregonian. It is one of the best I have ever seen. It is certainly splendid advertising for Portland. It is evident that a man is entitled to the splendid reputation she has. I have often said that if I ever emigrate, I should like to try that country. If I can get away next summer, I am going to try to make a trip in that direction."

CHURCH SHOWS PROGRESS.—An increase of about 30 per cent in the receipts of this church were announced at the annual meeting of the Universalist Church of the Good Tidings at East Twenty-fourth and Broadway last night. The receipts for the year were $1884. The present membership of the Sunday school is about 125. Trustees elected last night were: E. J. Jaeger, G. W. Gridley, C. J. Porter, David Brewer, C. W. Erta, Percy Holmes, the East Side station, where several and E. Trotter. Speeches were made by Eugene Ferguson, Roger M. Sherman and Dr. R. W. Webster.

He took the bench, however, but after the case had been in progress about 15 minutes was obliged to retire.

MISS CREMEN IS DEAD

PROMINENT CHURCH WORKER IS CALLED.—Portland Woman Noted for Extensive Charity Succumbs in 56th Year After Long Illness.

After an illness from which she had been suffering since last August, Miss Anna M. Cremen, one of the most prominent church workers in Portland, passed quietly away at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Cremen, at 484 Twelfth street, at 8:30 last night. She was surrounded by her few friends and relatives when she died.

Miss Cremen was born in Portland 50 years ago, and had lived here ever since. Three weeks ago her condition was active in charitable and church work. She had been a member of the Cathedral parish since childhood, and was one of the first members and one of the most active workers of the Catholic Women's League of that parish.

All her efforts were expended in benevolent enterprises. She was a devoted church representative and an active worker of the Needlework Guild of America, a member of the Oregon Historical Society, patron of the Portland Rose Society, and secretary of the Pioneer's Sons and Daughters. When the Florence Crittenton Home was started here, she was appointed a trustee by Governor Chamberlain. She was also active in assisting St. Vincent's Hospital, in which she took particular interest.

During her childhood Miss Cremen attended St. Mary's Academy here, and was graduated from that institution. She was started home to take a trip to Europe with her mother, and passed a year traveling through different parts of the continent. Her father was J. D. Cremen, a pioneer business man of Portland, who died in 1882.

Miss Cremen is survived by Mrs. Mary Cremen, her mother, Circuit Judge Gatens and his sister, Miss Bessie Gatens, are cousins.

The malady from which Miss Cremen was suffering attacked her gradually. She first began to suffer last August and in September she visited Shipherd's Hot Springs for three weeks, in hope of relief. She went to St. Vincent's Hospital on November 16 and there underwent an operation the following day. The relief that followed proved to be only temporary and she was removed to her home November 24.

From that time she was obliged to stay in bed almost continually, although at times she was able to sit up. About three weeks ago her condition suddenly took a decided change for the worse and from that day no hope for her recovery was felt. She continued to receive friends, however, and was optimistic to the last.

The time of the funeral has not yet been announced. She will be buried from St. Mary's Cathedral, of which she was so long a member, with a requiem high mass.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN SOON

Canvassing Teams Will Perfect Plans Next Friday Night

Arrangements are about completed for the big membership contest which the Portland Young Men's Christian Association is to hold, beginning next Monday and continuing throughout the week. R. W. Hazmond, membership secretary, is selecting captains for the 20 teams that will make a campaign for the purpose of signing up 100 members within the week. A similar campaign will be conducted in the boys' department, under the direction of J. W. Palmer, boys' secretary.

Captains of the Friday night when the two banquets will be held, one for the members of the men's teams and the other for the boys' teams. Final details for the campaign will be discussed at these banquets. H. W. Stone, the general secretary, will make a talk and can be counted on to instill enthusiasm into the movement.

Next week the men's teams will meet every evening to report progress. The dinners will be complimentary to the workers, and it is hoped to have a full attendance every night. Several dinners for the boys' canvassers will also be held during the week.
