Talk in Letter.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25-(Special.) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—(Special.) - Mayor Relph has answered the So-cialist county committee, which recent-ly took him to task for naming William McDevitt a member of the Civil Service Commission, instead of appointing C. W. Hogue, who had the informement of the Socialist organization. In a letter sent to Secretary Keller, of the Social-ist committee, the Mayor defines his po-sition in the following language: ist committee, the Mayor defines his po-sition in the following language; "The charter of San Francisco vests the appointive power of the election commission in the Mayor. Every Ladies' and Misses' fancy, man-tailored Suitevery Blue Cheviot at half price.

Only 5 Days Left in Which to Double Your Money

WE USE that sentence advisedly. When we offer, at half price, these warm homespuns and mixturesthese foreign-looking tweeds and cheviots-fashioned by master hands into becoming Winter suits, we know that every woman who buys is doubling her money. The increasing sales in our ladies' suit shop constrain us to yield to the ladies of Portland credit for a high degree of discernment. We believe implicitly in the worth we offer, because we know our ability to command the finest products of the looms-the service of the world's best designers. We buy for you in the great fabric markets as we would buy for ourselves in the finest retail shops.

Again, let us remind you-there are only five days more in which you may choose from this array of fashion and fabric, at half what you would expect to pay.

THESE handsome blue serge suits, designed and fash-I ioned by men tailors, are selling for one-fourth less than their price, without charge for alterations by our own tailors. Splendid workmanship in these; your suit will fit you perfectly when we deliver it to you.

THIS is raincoat time. We are selling ladies' and misses' Mandelbergs for less. The fabrics were woven on English looms and rainproofed in London-town. When you buy English raincoats for less than their price, you are exercising visible economy. These are the reductions:
