CAR COMPANIES INVESTIGATE EXTENSION PLAN.

Mount Tabor Committees Confer With Officials-Report of Lines Awaited.

Committees from South Mount Tabor have been conferring with F. I. Fuller, of the Portland Raliway, Light & Power Company, and also with officials of the Mount Hood Raliway & Power Company for the past few days in regard to the proposed raliroad extension through that district. One of the conditions of the Portland Raliway, Light & Power Company in its offer to operate an extension is that the property-owners shall build the track and guarantee the payment of $200 a month income to the car operated over the extension. To this guaranty the property-owners have objected, although and departing at the end of the Hawthorne-avenue line showed that the in
