WILSON AND HARVEY ARE FRIENDS AGAIN

Candidate Apologizes for His Bluntness: Editor Says Wound Is Healed.

'BUSINESS' FIRST THOUGHT

New Jersey Statesman Twice Con-Sense of Shame for Having Overlooked Sincere Loyalty in Past.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20 .- The New York Evening Post has sought, for the sake of justice to all concerned, to secure the publication of the correspondence between Governor Wilson and Colonel Harvey, editor of Harper's Weekly. In that sense it applied to them both. Neither wished to be put in the posi-tion of giving out private letters, but both have assented to the publication, with the distinct understanding that the initiative came from the Evening

Harvey by Governor Wilson is as follows:

"University Club, Fifth Avenue and Fifty-fourth street. December 21, 1911, (Personal) My Dear Colonel: Every day I am confirmed in the judgment that my mind is a one-track road and can run only one train of thought at a time. A long time after that interview with you and Marse Henry at the Manhattan Club it came over me that when (at the close of the interview) you asked me that question about the Weekly, I answered it simply as a matter of fact and of business, and said ter of fact and of business, and said never a word of my sincere gratitude to you for all your generous support or of my hope that it might be con-tinued. Forgive me and forget my manners. Faithfully yours. "WOODROW WILSON."

Gracious Words Balm for Burt. In reply Colonel Harvey wrote to

Wilson:

"My dear Governor Wilson—Replying to your note from the University Club. I think it should go without saying that no purely personal issue could arise between you and me. Whatever anybody else may surmise, you surely must know that, in trying to arouse and further your malifical applications.

must know that, in trying to arouse and further your political aspirations during the past few years I have been actumted solely by the belief that I was rendering a distinct public service.

The real point at the time of our interview was, as you aptly put it, one simply 'of fact and of business,' and when you stated the fact to be that my support was hurting your candidacy, and that you were experiencing difficulty in finding a way to counteract its harmful effect, the only thing possible for me to do, in simple fairness to you, he less than in consideration of my own sait-respect, was to relieve you of your embarrassment, so far as it isy within my power to do so, by ceasing to advocate your nomiby ceasing to advocate your nomi-

That, I think was fully understood between us at the time and, acting accordingly. I took down your name from the head of the Weekly's editorial eritien. That seems to be all that there is of it.

"Whatever little hurt I may have felt as a consequence of the unexpected me is, of course, wholly eliminated by your gracious words. Very truly yours, "GEORGE HARVEY."

Wilson Admits Lack of Tact. Governor Wilson replied under date of January 11, as follows:

"My dear Colonel Harver—Generous and cordial as was your letter written in reply to my note from the University Club, it has left me uneasy, because, in its perfect frankness, it shows that I DID hurt you by what I so tactlessly said at the Knickerbocker Club. I am very much ashamed of inyaelf, for there is nothing I am more ashamed of than hurting a true friend, however unintentional the hurt may have been, I wanted very much to see you in Washinsten, but was absolutely captured by wanted very much to see you in Washington, but was absolutely captured by callers every minute I was in my rooms, and when I was not there, I was fulfilling public engagements. I saw you at the dinner, but could not get at you, and after the dinner was surrounded and prevented from getting at you. I am in town today, to speak this evening, and came in early in the hope of catching you at your office.

Candidate Regrets Bluntness.

"For I owe it to you and to my own thought and feeling to tell you how grateful I am for all your generous praise and aupport of me (No one has described me more nearly as I would like to believe myself to be, than you have); how I have admired you for the independence and unheritating courage and individuality of your course and independence and unhesitating courage and individuality of your course, and how far I was from desiring that you should cease your support of me in the Weekly. You will think me very stupid, but I did not think of that as the result of my blunt answer to your question. I thought only of the means of convincing people of the real independence of the Weekly's position. You will remember that that was what we DISCUSSED, and now that I have unwill remember that that was what we DISCUSSED, and now that I have untentionally put you in a false and embarrassing position, you hesp coals of fire on my head by continuing to give out interviews favorable to my candidacy. All that I can say is that you have proved yourself very hig and that I wish I might have an early opportunity to TELL you face to face how I really feel about it all. With warm regard, cordially and faithfully yours, "WOODROW WILSON."

No Physical Rancor Left.

It is noted in the foregoing that men-tion of the Knickerbocker instead of the Manhattan Club is obviously a slip of the pen. Colonel Harvey's reply was as fol-

Colonel Harvey's reply was as follows:

"Jan. 16, 1912.—My Dear Governor Wilson: Thank you sincerely for your mest handsome letter. I can only repeat what I said before—that there is ne particle of physical rancor or resemment left in me. And I beg you to believe that I have not said one word to anybody of criticism of you.

"I have to print a word of explanation to the Weekly's readers, but it will be the briefest possible. Very truly yours.

GEORGE HARVEY."

Ex-Governor Stokes Assured, However, That Roosevelt Does Not Desire Nomination.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 20 .- That Colonel Theodore Roosevelt would no more decline to take the nomination for the Presidency than he would decline to enlist, if needed, in time of war, is the opinion of Lawrence F. Abbott, one of the oditors of the Outlook, con-tained in a letter received here today by Edward C. Stokes, ex-Governor of New Jersey.

"I am convinced he does not desire the nomination and will enter no con-test for it." writes Mr. Abbett, how-

FIXED TIME FOR CONSIDERING STEEL TARIFF SOUGHT.

Defection of "Progressives" From Republican Lineup All Necessary to Pass Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 .- A fight over instructing the Senate finance committee to report back the steel tariff revision bill within a lixed time will be made tomorrow before the measure is referred to the committee for consideration. Regular Republicans advocate hearings to those interested, but Frogressive Republicans favor a reasonable time for the committee to consider the bill. Senator Reed, of Missouri, tomorrow will ask the Senate to refer the bill to the finance committee with instructions to report within 20 days. He sought ineffectually to force this fight today. Republican Senators and Representa-tives held individual conferences today and discussed the prospective position of the "progressive" Republicans. It was pointed out that with the Senate membership now standing as 49 Repul licans, 42 Democrats, 1 vacancy, the defection of only "progressives" from the Republican lineup would be all that would be necessary to pass the
