ALADDIN, by the aid of his wonderful little lamp, accomplished fictional wonders, yet not with all the conjuring power at his command could he have brought about in a decade what Portland enterprise and Twentieth Century skill, science, ingenuity and brains have given to the Rose City in a brief twelvemonth as embodied in the HOTEL MULTNOMAH.

Thebes or Rome in all their glory could boast of no greater architectural or artistic triumph than stands right here in YOUR city today. Combining all the magnificence and splendor of antiquity, Oriental luxury and Continental elegance with the practical comfort and refinement of the Occident, the HOTEL MULTNOMAH occupies a pre-eminent position among the caravansaries of America.

Leaving out all consideration of civic pride, it is a duty you owe to yourself to inspect this wonderful institution. Thursday night, February 8, has been designated as the time when you are to be afforded an opportunity of delving into every cranny of the immense structure.

JUST A WORD ABOUT THE OPENING DINNER

FOR the premier of the HOTEL MULTNOMAH on February 8, a special Table d'Hote dinner has been arranged at two dollars and fifty cents per plate, and in order to secure accommodation it will be necessary to make reservations without delay. ### CITY BEAUTIFUL CAMPAIGN TO HUM

February 29 Is Set Aside to Swell Roll of Greater Portland Association.

10,000 MEMBERS SOUGHT

Committees to Meet Friday at Commercial Club to Outline Work for Canvassers—$1 to Be Annual Fee Charged.

February 29 will be a red letter day for the Greater Portland Plans Association, for on that date 10,000 men, women and children of the city will become affiliated with the "City Beautiful" movement, if the campaign for membership is carried out in accordance with the present plans of the organization.

To organize for a whirlwind campaign the several committees of the association will meet Friday noon at the Portland Commercial Club. Every improvement club, every commercial and advertising body and all women's organizations and church organizations will be invited to participate in creating a live, active and progressive association of 10,000 members pledged to work for the cause of civic development.

$10,000 Fund in View

An annual fee of $1 will be charged. If 10,000 members are obtained, this will mean that the association will have available a fund of $10,000 a year to carry on the city beautiful campaign. The officers of the association will serve without pay and every dollar received through contributions and membership fees will be expended in preparing literature and data to meet the movement for the benefit of the members and the general public.

One of the first steps to be taken will be the preparation of a publication containing the various drawings of the Greater Portland plans by Architect E. H. Bennett. It is estimated that it will require about $4000 to meet the expense of the publication. A committee will confer with the ways and means committee of the City Council this afternoon and request that a sufficient appropriation be made to cover the cost of this publication.

Active Campaign Planned

It is expected that several hundred workers will volunteer assistance in the campaign for membership February 29. According to present plans, the city will be divided into 30 or 35 districts and a corps of workers will make a thorough canvass of the respective localities with a view of getting every citizen to become a member of the association.

With each membership fee there will be given a button engraved with the name of the association. The button will serve as a receipt for the $1 fee and will also serve to designate what citizens are members of the association and in sympathy with the city beautiful movement.

FRAUD CHARGE IS DENIED

Temple W. Alexander Enters Pleas of Not Guilty to Indictments.

Temple W. Alexander entered pleas of not guilty before Presiding Judge Gatens yesterday to indictments charging him with obtaining money from the United States National and Lumbermens National Banks by means of forged O. W. R. & N. Company vouchers. The pleas followed the action of Judge Gatens in overruling demurrers to the indictments interposed by Dan R. Murphy, the defendant's attorney.

District Attorney Cameron was assisted in arguing against the demurrers by A. C. Spencer, of counsel for the railway company. Attorney Murphy argued that, inasmuch as the vouchers read that they were payable at the banks only on being dated and signed by the persons in whose favor made out, the fact that they were not dated should have been warning to the banks not to advance the money on them. He urged that, lacking this dating, the vouchers did not purport to be evidence of indebtedness of the railway company, and, therefore, that no crime had been committed. Attorneys for the prosecution read in answering from several standard authorities on the wording and form of indictments, proving to the satisfaction of the judge that all the details urged by Mr. Murphy are not necessary to a valid indictment.

AGED GERMAN WOMAN, HERE TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS, SUCCEDES AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Selma Logus.

Mrs. Selma Logus, one of the city's oldest German residents, died Monday night at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mrs. Logus came from Eselen, Germany, 28 years ago, and since that time has lived in Portland continuously. The Logus home at 361 San Rafael street is one of the oldest in that section of the city. Mrs. Logus is survived by her husband, a son and two daughters. The children are: Court Logus, Mrs. Fanny Haas and Mrs. Charles Ringler. The funeral will be held at the Finley chapel tomorrow at 2 P. M.

HARMON MAN CALLS

John F. Bible, Once Near-Mate of Bryan, Sounds Field.

WILSON IS NOT LIKED

Wagon Manufacturer, of Kentucky and Michigan, Denies That Ohio Democrat Is Allied With Wall Street Interests.

John F. Bible, wagon manufacturer, of Kentucky and Michigan, five times Mayor of Ionia, Mich., and at one time prominently mentioned as a running mate for William J. Bryan, has been in the city for several days on business with a boom for Governor Harmon for the Democratic Presidential nomination as a side line.

"I am not the authorized representative of Mr. Harmon, but a personal friend, having weekly letters from him, and promised to keep him informed of the political condition of the different sections during my travels, that have recently extended over several states in the West," said Mr. Bible at the Portland Hotel last night. "The last time I talked with him he consented to permit me to tell one incident about him of which I was personally cognizant and I believe that the time is now ripe to tell it, as he is accused of being the candidate of Wall street and under its influences."

Revival of Road Recounted

"While I was Mayor of Ionia, July 20, 1897, there was a wreck on the Pere Marquette Railroad in which 32 were killed and 183 injured, all residents of Ionia and riding on passes at the time. Governor Harmon was receiver of the road that had been forced into insolvency for stock-jobbing purposes. Every one of these cases was settled without litigation and it is a record for such classes of cases. The Pere Marquette road was a distinct Michigan enterprise and its existence was of vital interest to the state. He succeeded in paying off all its debts and turning it back to the stockholders without any loss and today its stock is worth more than ever before. During this reconstruction of the road I knew personally that he thwarted an attempted steal of $10,000,000 of terminal bonds by Wall street interests."

Wilson Is Distliked

"After touring the country and making a careful study of the situation I am convinced that Harmon will receive the Democratic nomination. While an intimate friend of Mr. Bryan and have been his follower for years, I cannot follow him to Woodrow Wilson, as I feel toward him the same as Henry Watterson does. The best interests of the country would be safe with Harmon as no interest can control him, financial or otherwise."

FAT ELKS SHARP RIVALS

Portland "Bill" and Walla Walla Man After $25 Prize.

Keen rivalry has arisen between F. S. Ratliff, of Portland, and Jacob Kauffman, of Walla Walla, in their respective qualifications to be called "the biggest Elk in the United States."

The question will be determined once and for all when the Elks meet in Portland next July as the fattest Elk appearing in the parade will be awarded a $25 cash prize. Both Ratliff and Kauffman have entered the contest and will appear in the parade. Meanwhile they are engaging in a heated controversy by correspondence. Ratliff, who only a few days ago lodged at Moscow, Idaho, first heard of Kauffman's intentions of entering the fat Elks' contest last week and immediately wrote a pointed letter to the Walla Walla man in which he expressed his doubts as to Kauffman's size and his ability to maintain a respectable weight through the heat of the Summer.

Kauffman has gone into regular training under the direction of Fred Hedger, secretary of the Walla Walla Elks, and yesterday yesterday partially as follows: "I have heard of you and know of your bigness. But, really, now, are you so great and only 'Jake' has it occurred to you that the advertised weight of 'Jake' may not be correct and that we are using diplomacy and finesse to win the prize for our big man. I won't mention that if I have you bluffed this letter will not be written in vain."

Garland Would Be Justice

Charles W. Garland, attorney and former deputy in the office of District Attorney Cameron, yesterday filed notice of his candidacy for a Republican nomination for Justice of the Peace, Portland district. His slogan is: "A clean, expedient and efficient administration as a Progressive Republican."

150 SEATTLE MEN COMING

Commercial Club to Fete Big Party Next Saturday Night.

Portland and Seattle will clasp hands across the banquet board at the Commercial Club next Saturday night, when 150 Seattle merchants will visit the city on their annual Winter outing to California.

The party will travel on a special train over the O. W. R. & N. and South-Union routes, officials of which roads organized the excursion. Among the visitors will be a number of distinguished citizens of Seattle, including Colonel Alden J. Blethen, editor of the Seattle Times, and Scott C. Bone, editor of the Post-Intelligencer. Both received telegraphic invitations from the Portland Commercial Club yesterday asking them to speak at the banquet.

DAIRIES ARE SPREADING

Central Oregon Creameries Apply for State-Brand Wrappers.

Evidence of interest in the dairy industry in Central Oregon is shown by applications to the State Dairy and Food Commissioner yesterday for state-brand wrappers by three creameries recently opened at Bend and Redmond. The Prineville Creamery has also announced that it will establish a branch at Bend. Further encouragement to prospective dairymen is the announcement that the bank at Bend intends to obtain a herd of cows to be re-sold to settlers on terms.

The establishment of three new creameries in the Bend county will be gratifying news to all men who are interested in the development of the dairy industry in Oregon," said Deputy Commissioner Judd yesterday. "There are undoubtedly many sections of Central Oregon where dairying can be carried on as profitably as it is in the Willamette Valley. It is unfortunate that the dairy industry has not been carried on there long ago. Now that the dairymen have awakened to their opportunities it is to be hoped they will restore you to your normal self again. And this can all be accomplished within a few moments."
