Big Purchase of A. B. Kirschbaum Philadelphia Less Than Cost to Make

Although we can look back to more than half a century of Men's Clothing Business, never have we experienced such unprecedented selling as yesterday! Little wonder, when you see the quality of this tremendous sale. When the doors opened Friday morning we had exactly 1536 Suits and 237 Overcoats—at 6 o'clock last night hundreds of them had found new owners. Yesterday we told the story of this purchase—one that will be remembered for years to come! Our Clothing Chief was in the East when A. B. Kirschbaum & Co., Philadelphia, ended their wholesale season. On account of late delivery of woolsens, they had a large number of Suits unsold. Their acceptance of his offer meant an actual loss of over $2500 on the Suits we bought.

Those who come today will have over 1000 Suits and 175 Overcoats to choose from. This includes, besides the Kirschbaum purchase, every Fancy Winter Suit and Overcoat in our entire stock. Think what this means!

More than 800 of the remaining Suits are of $35, $30, $38, $25 and $22 grades—the balance, around 200, worth $20. Every size for men of all builds—for the slim man, the extra tall man, the extra stout and short. Every suit is made under the famous Kirschbaum "all-wool" policy, and each Coat bears the well-known Kirschbaum Cherry Tree label, as illustrated. Hundreds of season's newest patterns in grays, pencil-stripe blues, browns, tans—invisible plaids, self-stripes, unobtrusive checks.

Our Own Stock of Overcoats which formerly sold at $35, $30 and $25 are included—Raglan Overcoats, Belted-Back Greatcoats, Young Men's Overcoats, Ardoe Raincoats, Chesterfield Overcoats.
