

SUFFRAGIST SAYS T. R. FOUR-FLUSHER

May Arkwright Hutton Spares Few Words in Denunciation of ex-President.

LINCOLN TALK RIDICULED

"Colonel's Comparing Himself With Martyred President Greatest Joke Perpetrated Upon American People," Declares Woman.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 9.—(Special.)—"Shades of the immortal Lincoln!"

"The presumption of Roosevelt, the four-flusher, the hot-air artist, the man who plays to the galleries, the hero of the African jungle, who carries with him an army of press agents to herald to the world his every doubtful achievement, in comparing himself to the martyred President, to ask the people to believe in Government of the people, by the people and for the people, is a squabble and a farce. They can have it if we explain. They cannot if we don't."

With these exclamations, Mrs. May Arkwright Hutton, the leader of the suffrage movement in the State of Washington, publicist of Spokane and wealthy woman, takes to task the ex-President for his latest utterance on the political situation.

Colonel Big Joke, She Says.

"The Colonel's comparing himself with Abe Lincoln is the greatest joke yet perpetrated upon himself and the American people," she declared.

"The other day I noticed by a press dispatch that Mr. Roosevelt would have people think he was emulating the martyred President. Mr. Roosevelt quoted the following statement from Lincoln in an effort to define his own position:

"I have made this explanation to you as a friend, but I wish no explanation made to our enemies. What they want is a squabble and a farce. They can have it if we explain. They cannot if we don't."

GERMAN SPY SENTENCED

Merchant Marine Captain Must Go to Prison for Three Years.

WINCHESTER, England, Feb. 9.—Heinrich Grosse, a Captain in the German Merchant Marine, who was arrested December 5, on a charge of espionage, was sentenced today at the Assizes to three years' penal servitude.

The trial placed the strict contrast to German methods in espionage, and especially in the trial of Bernard Stewart, the English lawyer, recently sentenced by the Leeds Assizes to three years' imprisonment.

Grosse was tried in open court by a jury. He pleaded not guilty. He testified that he placed the strict contrast to German methods in espionage, and especially in the trial of Bernard Stewart, the English lawyer, recently sentenced by the Leeds Assizes to three years' imprisonment.

The evidence shows that Grosse tried to get information as to the armament of submarine vessels, the preparations as to arming merchant ships in event of war, the extent of naval coal reserves and other matters valuable to an enemy.

"Mary Magdalen" said Barzen. "I don't remember that case. Clerk, bring me the files in the Magdalen case."

PARKER FIGHTS CHARGE

WRIT APPLIED FOR IN SAN FRANCISCO COURT.

Man Accused of Enticing Portland Woman From Home Resists Return to Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Held in the city prison by order of Federal officials on a charge of having enticed a wife from her husband in Portland and placing her in a disorderly house in San Francisco, Parker today applied for a writ of habeas corpus in the Superior Court. The woman is Mrs. H. Ingie, of Portland. She is also in prison.

Parker was arrested early this week on telegraphic information from Portland by Immigration Inspector Robinson. According to the northern states he induced Mrs. Ingie to leave her husband and home and come to San Francisco with him several weeks ago. Soon after arriving here, it is charged, he placed her in a house on the Barbary Coast, where she was found by the immigration inspectors. Parker and the woman have been in jail four days, pending further information from the north.

A temporary writ of habeas corpus was issued this morning, made returnable at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning before Superior Judge Cahalan. The Federal authorities have been summoned to appear to show cause why the writ should not be made permanent.

CAPTAIN LOSES JOB

Scandal on Liner Persia Is Undoing of Officer.

CHARGES ARE SUSTAINED

Company Admits Action With Ref- erence to Berkeley High School Girl Was Direct Cause of Final Dismissal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—(Special.)—When the Pacific Mail liner Persia sailed for the Far East next Tuesday she will be taken out in the command of Captain John Hill, the company having relieved Captain Andrew Lockett of his command of the liner, following the scandal in which the captain was involved on the last homeward voyage of the vessel.

While admitting that Captain Lockett had been taken off the Persia because of the disagreeable affair which centered around Miss Ramona McCaskey, a Berkeley High School girl, officials of the company declined to discuss the subject.

Upon the arrival of the liner Persia a week ago, Dr. E. M. Stephenson, a young South Carolina physician, returning from the Orient on the Persia, filed charges against Captain Lockett, declaring that his conduct as master of the steamer had not been that of an officer and a gentleman. Dr. Stephenson's charge was supported by other passengers.

At one time the situation became so strained that the young Southern physician challenged Captain Lockett to a duel on the deck of the steamer, an aviation which the other is said to have declined.

Officials of the Pacific Mail Company weighed the charges and, after relieving Captain Lockett, decided to relieve him of his command.

BRITAIN'S POWER BOASTED

Churchill Tells Scots Nation Holds Safe Lead on Sea.

GLASGOW, Scotland, Feb. 9.—Winston Spencer Churchill, the First Lord of the Admiralty, attended today a luncheon arranged by the Clyde Navigation Trust and in a speech painted a rosy picture of the preparedness of the British navy to meet all eventualities.

Mr. Churchill spoke at some length on the subject of German and British sea rivalry, taking the view that while naval power was necessary to the existence of Great Britain, it was a luxury for Germany.

Touching on the subject of the prospective naval increase in the two countries, Mr. Churchill said there was no need for excitement or panic. Great Britain had the situation well in hand and there was no chance whatever of her being overtaken in naval strength.

SCHOONER AND FIVE GONE

Sole Survivor Brings News of Dis- aster at Storm-Swept Ensenada.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Feb. 9.—Advice received here from storm-swept Ensenada this morning confirm reports of the loss of the schooner Alsen with five of its crew and the captain. The news was brought to Ensenada by the only survivor. He had been sent ashore to obtain aid in unloading the vessel and when he returned a storm had come up and the schooner was gone.

A captured lifeboat was found on the shore and some distance further along the coast he came across the body of one of the sailors, kept afloat by a life preserver. It was found that the lower portion had been devoured by sharks. This accounts for three of the five men missing. The others have probably been swept to their death at sea. Two relief parties continue to search for the missing vessel and its crew.
