Widening of East Glesan Street Is Move.—The viewers appointed to as-sess the damages and benefits for the widening of East Glisan street to 89 feet between East Forty-seventh and East Sixtleth streets have filed their report, and the final hearing will be report, and the man hearth, held February 14 by the Council. I is considered almost sure that the report will be approved and the street declared widened. The general as-sessment is about $10,000. Several buildings will have to be moved back to conform to the new street lines and some front porches will have to be moved. East and west of this part of East Glisan the street has already been made 80 feet wide, and when this part is declared widened East Glisan will be 80 feet wide to Rockwood, a distance of ten miles. The next step is to open East Glisan between East Twenty-eighth and East Twenty-sixth street and make connection with Sandy boulevard. Several houses have been built in the street between these two Requisition is Refused.—Thomas W. Murphy and Joseph Locke, expert horsetraders, will not be brought back from California to answer to a larceny charge, because Governor West, on advice fom the District Attorney here, has refused to issue requisition for them. It is said that the amount involved in the charge against them has been repaid to the victim. The two men were regularly indicted and were traced by Deputy Sheriff Leonard to San Francisco, where they were ar-San Francisco, where they were ar-rested a few days ago. In explana-tion of the failure to extradite them, it is said that the indictment was re turned under the belief that they would be found within the jurisdiction. The case against them is not strong. During the several years they operated here, the two men, together with one Ghormley, were arrested and sued civilly many times.

Policemen to Testify Against Ballet.

—Policemen will be important witnesses in the triais of Police Captain Bailer and ex-Sergeant Cole, soon to be taken up in the Circuit Court, and the prosecution is dropping hints that the testimony will be sensational. For several days Deputy District Attorney Page, who is preparing the cases, has had long conferences with many policemen, who are expecting to be called as witnesses. The nature of this prospective statement has not been revealed.
Mayor Rushlight was closeted with Deputy Page for a long conference yesterday, supposed to have been with relation to these cases. Bailey and Cole were indicted for alleged corruption in office, principally on the testimony of women of the streets.

SCAFFOLD TOO HIGH, FOREMAN FINEN.

—A fine of $10, the minimum under the law, was imposed by Presiding Judge Kavanaugh resterday on M. Reuter, a foreman for the Portland Sheet Metal Works, who entered a pies of guilty to an indictment charging that he permitted men to work on a scaffold sus-pended 35 feet above the ground and minus a railing. The law provides that scaffolds more than 20 feet above the ground must be protected by railing. Reuter said the scaffolding was erected by a blance by ampleyer and was not in his absence by employes and was not in use more than a few hours. Judge Kavanaugh took his view of the case. The charges against Reuter were pressed by the Sheet Metal Workers' Volce.
