Prosperous Jeweler and Girl Just Out of Her Teens Are Held for Deportation-Man Over 50. Three Bairns Deserted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14 .- (Special.)—The remance that came into the life of beautiful Herina L. Anyos lour years are, when she went into long dresses, is smashing to pieces on Angel faland. She spends her days in tears in a cell. Her nights are filled with dreadful dreams of the future she is doesned to in Berlin if Uncle Sam deports her, as she fears is more than likely.

On the other side of the island is On the other side of the island is the hero of her life, straight, stern, staiwart as beits a guardsman of the Kaiser. His 50 years of experience have raised him above the suffering of mere incarceration, but his love for the girl just out of her teens moves him to curse the III-luck that came to break up the happiness of a life for which he deserted his wife and three children in Berlin. Pair Followed Long.

Months ago the deserted wife and the German authorities took the trail of Shipman and Miss Anyos. All over the country were sent circulars describ-ing the German jewelry merchant and the Bulgarian beauty. At last they were discovered in San Francisco. Im-migration inspectors aided in arresting the couple, and the findings in their case have been sent to Washington. The sentence of deportation has been passed upon them and they are held pending an appeal to the Commissioner of Commerce and Labor. Stylish Suite Occupied.

Shipman was arrested in his place of business at 720 Mission street, where he dealt in jewelry and carried on the Pacific Coast business of the German-Austrian Importing Company. Miss Anyos was arrested at the Summerset Apartments, at Pine and Jones streets where the couple has lived in style for almost a year.

Shipman is reputed to be a wealthy man. Certainly he did a thriving busi-ness at the Mission-street store, and the couple, who have been received as man and wife, have been prominent in German social circles about the bay for nearly a year.

NEW YORK, Feb. 14 .- (Special.)-Miss Edith Regan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Regan, was married to day in St. Patrick's Cathedral to William Gardner, British Vice-Consul in this city, Cardinal Farley officiated, & Power Company in 1906, there being it being the first marriage ceremony he has performed since his elevation to 41 years of its existence, the cardinalate,

Following the wedding, the low pontifical mass was celebrated by Monsignor Lavelle, assisted by Monsignor Hayes and Monsignor Lewis, Cardinal Farley being present before the altar with several attendant priests.

the canal and locks at Oregon City. When authority is granted steps will be taken at once to close negotiations for this property. Up to the time the War Department closed today the Secretary had not approved the request of General Bixby, but he probably will do so tomorrow, in which event the formal offer of the price agreed upon will be submitted to the present owners of the Oregon City locks and it is believed the offer will be accepted. Pending approval of this request by LOCKS ARE TO BE SOLD

(Continued From First Page.) Although the canal is only 40 wide, the Federal authorities asked for bids on a right of way 100 feet wide, in addition to a pi ground 100 by 100 feet at the head of the canal upon which buildings to house the keeper were to be construct-The Government officials ancounced that it is customary for them to buy 100 feet in providing for canals and they did not want to take less than that width in this instance. Price of $600,000 Asked,

In response to the Government's request for a price the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company set a value of $600,000 on the property, agreeing at the same time to pay half the expense of a retaining wall, the estimated cost of which was to be $170,000. While this would have made the net revenue to the traction company $515,000, the Government would have been required to expend $685,000.

This did not meet with the War Department's approval and the engineers made a recommendation for a new canal on the east side of the river. Things then went along without interruption until last August, when members of the Federal Canal Board visited the canal. President Josselyn and Major McIndoe held several conferences, and subsequently the price was lowered to $450,000. However, Major Melnde evidently thought that he could get the property for less than

MURDER CHARGE DROPPED

Shasta County Case More Remarkable Because Distinctive Features and Southern Accent Are Plainly Shown.

AUBURN, Cal., Feb. 14.—Shasta County's grand jury declined today to return an indictment against H. F. Bremer, son of a wealthy South Carolina brewer, who was charged with the murder of Thomas Raffleton, near this

Pifty witnesses were examined and their testimony developed a remarkable situation. About one-half of them positively identified Bremer as the man seen with Raffleton, here just before the murder, while the other half asserted as positively that they had seen Bremer at Sisson and Dunsmuir at that time. Both sets of witnesses were com-posed of men reliable and disinterested. The fact that Bremer is a young man of unusually distinctive features, and that he speaks with a strong Southern accent makes the mistaken identity by one or the other faction the more extraordinary.

Bremer was arrested in Montgomery. Ala., last Autumn and fought extradi-tion up to the court of last resort. His father came to California with him and testified today before the grand jury. Thomas Raffleton was murdered for a sack of gold nuggets that he was carrying. His skull was crushed with a club and the body hidden in the brush. Bremer had served a term in the Ne-vada State Prison for robbery, and his photograph, taken from a rogues' gallery, was said by 17 persons to be that of the man last seen with Raffleton. This seeming identification led to his pursuit and arrest.

HERO OF MUTINY IS DEAD

Admiral Salmon Noted for Achievement in Sepoy Outbreak.

LONDON, Feb. 14.—Admiral of the fleet, Sir Nowell Salmon, died today at the age of 77. He was one of the rare possessors of the Victoria Cross, which he won for bravery in the field in 1857 at Lucknow. He was attached as Lieu-tenant to the Naval Brigade, and while the sailors were attacking a strongly occupied fort they suffered from the occupied fort they surfaced now the extraordinary marksmanship of one of the rebeis. Salmon volunteered to climb a tree which exposed him to almost certain death, in order to pick off the Indian marksman. His field glass was shattered in his hand by the sharp-shooters, but Salmon shot the Sepoy dead.
