'JOS' BURNETT HAS TALK TODAY. Another program of special interest at the regular weekly meeting of the Portland Ad Club at the Multnomah Hotel will be enjoyed today. Joseph Burnett of the Seattle Times, president of the Seattle A. Club and president of the 1912 Golden Toteball club, will address the club on the "New Spirit of the Northwest." Colonel C. E. S. Wood will deliver an address on the "Stakes of the Local Spirit." A spirit of get-together on this part of the program will prevail, and one of the best meetings the club has ever had is promised. The meeting will be in charge of J. L. Yarnall, commercial manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company.

MORALS AND TRADE

Fred B. Smith Says America Is Awakening Now. Y. M. C. A. MAN IS GUEST. "Bad Morals Will Bankrupt Any Country in Time," Says National Leader of Men and Religion Forward Movement. Fred B. Smith, National leader of the Men and Religion Forward Movement and secretary of the International Y. M. C. A., committee, met the board of directors, committees of management and officers of the Portland Y. M. C. A. and representative business men of the city at luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. He said the Men and Religion Forward Movement is gathering greater work throughout the United States by educating the men in the churches to do evangelistic work in a systematic way. "We are having a struggle in this country to define the type of religion that will be permanent with us. We are a new country and there is a peculiar strain on the religion of our men. There is a tendency to fall away from the old standards. "Business men, such as I am speaking to, should be keenest in their interest in religion, because business men are the ones who profit by the application of its teachings in the lives of men. The two states in the Union at the present time which have the largest amount of money per capita are Maine and Kansas and each is a prohibition state. Kansas has $1400 per capita and Maine has $1600 per capita. "Good morals produce commerce. Bad morals will bankrupt any country in time. America is being stirred as never before in its life by this special Men and Religion appeal. "I just received a long-distance call from Seattle, where the eight-day campaign is in progress. The word was that that city had its greatest day today. "For me to outline a plan of work for you to do, I must first know to what you care to do, inasmuch as Portland people have thought best not to have the eight-day campaign at this time. But I have been assured by prominent Portland ministers that they believe in the Men and Religion Forward Movement and that its object will be attained by a campaign in every church and district, by which men and boys will be educated to put forth evangelistic effort. "Company Traveling Fast. The International Quartet, composed of Paul J. Gilbert, of Des Moines; P. H. Metcalf, of Youngstown; C. M. Keeler, of New York, and Ed W. Peck, of Minneapolis, gave a concert here yesterday. They are traveling with Mr. Smith, who is visiting all the cities where the three campaign teams are at work. "He came in from Seattle yesterday and left last night for San Francisco, Oakland and Los Angeles. He will go from there to Atlanta, Ga. "This week the Men and Religion campaign is in progress in Walla Walla, Seattle and Jacksonville, Wis. Next week the three teams will conduct campaigns in San Francisco, Spokane and Charleston, S. C. "MISSED LILLIAN O'BRIEN WEDS. Coe Aloysius McKenna Takes Railroad Man's Daughter as Bride. One of the largest weddings of the season was solemnized at Saint Mary's Cathedral yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Lillian O'Brien became the bride of Coe Aloysius McKenna. Archbishop Christie read the impressive ceremony and Father McDevitt said mass. The altar was decorated with deep pink roses in tall vases and lighted with many candles. An attractive setting of palms and pink carnations used about the church added to the scene. Miss Cornelia Stanley was maid of honor and Miss Mabel Shea acted as bridesmaid. The ushers were Dr. John N. Coghlan, Sexton Taylor, Joseph Cronan and Frederick Martin. The bridegroom was attended by Cassimir Campbell and Frederick Leeston-Smith. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. O'Brien. Departing from the usual custom of having the reception immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McKenna and Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien received from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss O'Brien who is one of the most attractive girls of the younger set, is the only daughter of Mr. J. P. O'Brien, vice-president and general manager of the Harriman Trust in the Northwest, and Mrs. O'Brien. Mr. McKenna is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. McKenna. He is a graduate of Columbia University and also took special courses at Notre Dame and George Washington universities. He is a prominent member of the Sons of the American Revolution, the Portland Heights and University clubs. "RAVISHING MUSIC. Harold Bauer the Great Interpreter of Modern Times. The Harold Bauer piano recital at 2:30 P. M. next Sunday afternoon at the Heilig under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman is arousing extraordinary interest in local musical circles. The Musical Leader says of Bauer: "His color effects and shadings, the wonderful singing tones which he brings from the instrument, and his ravishing pedal effects are among the least of the qualities of his art. There is a nobility of inspiration and of expression which raises every line and every measure into a plane where one can only reckon with the soul and spirit of the interpreter as well as of the composer." "DAMAGED PIANOS. Carlomagno just received, all more or less damaged. These must be closed out at once. Don't fail to call and see them before buying. Prices and terms to suit you.
