TWO STATES UNITE

Slips to Be Set Out When Peninsula Park Is Dedicated Today.

PUPILS TO START BLOOMS

Seattle, Tacoma and Several Other Cities to Join Portland in Big Ceremony - Governor to Speak, Rabbi to Pray.

Fortland and many cities of the Pa-cific Northwest will join in the an-nual observance of Ross Planting day this afternoon at Peninsula Park, the new public breathing and outing place which is to be dedicated in connection therewith. The colebration is to be on a most elaborate scale and, as now planned, will serve to emphasize the general "get together" movement in which all the cities of the Pacific Coast are interested.

Coast are interested.

From a very small beginning, the Rose Planting day idea has grown until today it will include Seattle. Tacoma, Vancouver, Dregon City and other cities of this territory and all of them will take part in the general ceremony of this unique mid-Winter event.

Joseph Blethen, associate editor of the Seattle Times, president of the Seattle Ad Club and the Seattle Golden. Potlatch as well as being the official representative of the communical organizations of that city and the Seattle Rose Society, will be the, leading speaker of the day.

Tacoma Alse Joins.

Tacoma Alse Joins.

Tacoma and the Montamara Festo, the big annual carnival of that city and the Tacoma Rose Society, will be represented and each of the two cities of the Puget Sound country will plant native-grown roses alongside the many beautifud flower queens of Portland.

The finest possible selection of rose-bushes that could be made from the Portland nurseries and gardens has been made for the celebration. The Frau Karl Druschki, a pure white; the Madams Carollho Testout, a sumptuous pink; the General McArthur, a deep crimson, and the Franz Deegan, a fine ous pink; the General McArthur, a deep crimson, and the Franz Deegan, a fine creamy yellow with a heart of orange, will be the varieties which will be pinnted in the vast "sunken rose garden" in Feninsula Park. These bushes are perpetuals and bloom from early Summer until late Fall and even into the Winter and represent the finest types of exhibition and decorative roses that are to be had.

Groupe of school children, little hoys and girls from the public schools of the city, selected from many districts will perform the actual duty of setting out the roses. The flowers will be blessed by Rabbi Jonah R. Wise and a comprehensive musical programme of popular and patriotic airs will be played by Signor De Caprio's band.

Gevernor to Speak.

George Washington Mixed With "Bobbie" Burns

Jeff W. Hayes Recalls Old-Tim Banquet When Orator Called First American "Robert" and Apolo-

BY JEFF W. HAYES.

EVERY true American possesses L feeling of reverence for George Washington, a feeling unlike that which he entertains toward our other American heroes, and every patriot will resent to the hilt any undue reflection lowing incident will illustrate this: In one of our elite clubs some years ago were gathered by invitation a num-ber of choice spirits. It was the her of choice spirits. It was the anni-versary of Washington's birthday, and it was to do bonor to his memory that they were assembled. Military men from ancouver Barracks, professional men, oliticians, business men and quite a umber of active militiamen were pres-nt. The banquet was a sumptuous one and the wine served was choice and After dinner, and when speechmaking

"We are here tonight," said he, "to henor the memory of America's states-man, one who was 'first in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of his coun-trymen. I refer to that great and good man, General Robert Washington."

The Colonel then sat down.
Deep silence followed and mutterings were heard. The Colonel saw instantly that he had made a mistake, and struggling to his feet exclaimed:

gling to his feet exclaimed:

"Gentlemen, gentlemen, I rise to apologize and to make an explanation. I did not intend any reflection on General Washington. You see, for the past 25 years I have attended the annual banquet given in memory of Bobbie' Burns and I have invariably been called upon to respond to the toast. 'Robert Burns.' Your wine has been seductive, so much so that I got my dates and names mixed. I rise again to ask that we drink to the memory of America's noblest chieftain, the immortal General George Washington.'

Peals of laughter rang, the Colonel's apology was speedily accepted and the incident passed into history.

Police Drills Ordered.

Weekly drills will be the order in the police department hereafter, according to an order issued by Chief of Police Slover yesterday. The drills are to be conducted under the supervision of Captain Moore, senior captain, who is given absolute authority and are to be held as often as ordered and not less than once a week. The purpose in resuming the drills is to put the police organization in a condition to make a favorable impression during the coming Rose Festival and Eiks convention. The order also aims to build up the police band to a high degree of excellence. All members of the band are ordered to report for practice every Wednesday morning, whether on duty or not.

Colonel Ferguson had accompanied the contingent from Vancouver Barracks and the Army officers thought it the proper caper to have as distinguished a gentleman respond to the toast. Colonel Ferguson, however, had been paying his respects rather assiduously to the wine bottle, but came to his feet when called upon.

WITNESS EXPENSE TOO BIG, SAYS COMMISSIONER.

District Attorney Oriticised for Retaining Testifiers Long-Claims Range From $5 to $100.

Following a request of Adolph Shultz, of Burns, Or., to the County Court yesterday morning asking payment of a balance of about $55 which he says is due him as a witness for the state in the Wilde case, County Commissioner Hart criticised the District Attorney because many witnesses were detained here for long periods in connection with that case. The County Court had allowed Mr. Shultz $85.50.

"I believe that Mr. Shults is morally entitled, if not legally, to the money he claims," said Mr. Hart. "The facts are
