OPEN CONTEST REGRETTED

Attitude of Cabinet Members Who Were in Colonel's Official Family Is Subject of Speculation in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25 .- Newspapers and the offices of Washington correspondents were besieged today and tonight with personal and telephone calls from politicians and statesmen asking what Colonel Roosevelt had to

In the list of callers were several Roosevelt boomers who recently had called on the ex-President and to whom it was supposed advance infor-mation of his intentions had been giv-en. It was evident that few were prepared for the crisp, unequivocal state-ment from the Colonel that he was a candidate for the Republican nomina-

It has been only in the last fortnight that President Taft has been willing to admit to his closest friends that he believed Colonel Roosevelt would enter the race account him for would enter the race against him for the nomination. It is doubted whether up to the last minute he was convinced ly that any announcement coming from his predecessor would be with out a string attached.

That President Taft was hurt deeply to know that from now on he must engage in an open contest against the man under whom he had served for years became known soon after the Roosevelt letter was made pub-

Relations Exceptionally Close.

The relations between Colonel Roose veit and President Taft, when President Taft served as Secretary of War, were exceptionally close. For months President Taft refused to believe that Colonel Roosevelt would oppose him for a renomination and that he was convinced the Colonel would turn a deaf ear to all urging that he himself become a candidate was known to all Mr. Taft's friends. These friends have pointed out that Secretary of War Stimson, who ran for Governor of New Fork with Mr. Roosevelt as his most enspicuous backer, and also Secre-jury of the Navy Meyer, who was in the Roosevelt cabinet, were in the Taft official family.

It has been a matter of comment that occetaries Stimson and Meyer have frequent visitors to Colonel velt's offices in New York, or his home at Oyster Bay. These visits were accepted as proof that Taft and Roosevelt were not wholly estranged. There is a great deal of speculation tonight as to the probable attitude of the members in the Cabinet. If their support is given to Colonel Roosevelt their resignations may be expected.

resignations may be expected.

So far as Secretary Stimson is concerned, it is known that he entered the Taft Cabinet unhampered as to future political activity. Colonel Rossevelt is known to be one of the men he consulted before accepting the war portfolio, and it is said upon un-questioned authority that he stipulated he should not be expected to do campaign work. Yet he has accepted an invitation to speak in Chicago on March 4 at the Taft Club meeting. Only as recently as last Friday Secretary Meyer met a rumor that he was about to resign with this statement:

"If I remain in the Cabinet, as I in-tend to do, it is quite evident that my loyalty will be with my chief." Many who inquired as to the phraseelogy of the Roosevelt letter were in-tent upon learning whether it was made clear that the Colonel would be a candidate only until the Chicago conven-tion made its choice. Many political leaders professed to believe that if the Colonel falled to get the nominati would head a third party, Third-Purty Idea Discredited. Even before the Roosevelt letter was sived, the bureau which has charge his interests issued a statement denying the third-party rumor. The let-ter issued from New York was taken as positive evidence that Mr. Roose-

It was reiterated tonight by friends of the President that he was willing to let stand his announcement of several weeks ago that nothing but death ould take him out of the fight for omination.

"That such a proposition has been made to Colonel Roosevelt has not been denied. It is stated that the activity of the Administration nomination cam-paign managers in making use of the steam roller caused several admirers of Colonel Roosevelt to fear the Chicago convention would be 'packed,' and that the popular will of the people would find no expression there. In this event, it was asserted, it would be well to give the people a chance to express their sentiments at the polls, an independent party being formed to place Colonel Roosevelt's name before them. "From an authoritative source it was learned today that Colonel Roosevelt

did not look upon the proposition with favor, and, in effect, stated that such a Oregon Republicans Think Effect of Declaration Will Be to Aid Taft.

PETITIONS ARE STILL OUT

Party Leaders Express Disappointment and Chagrin-Nottingham Says Colonel Not Playing Fair With President.

Announcement by Roosevelt that he would be a candidate for the Presidency, although not wholly unexpected, came as a surprise to many Oregon Republicans. The surprise was occasioned from the belief that Roosevelt, in view of his positive anti-third-term declarations of four years ago, would withstand any pressure that might be applied to force him into the contest

Assurance that Roosevelt will be a candidate before the Chicago convention will serve only to incite the supporters of President Taft to redouble their efforts in his behalf. Circulation of Taft petitions has been under way in several counties for ten days, and probably three times the required number of signatures for placing his name on the ballot have been obtained. These petitions will be gathered in the first of next week and arranged for filing in the Secretary of State's office prior to March 9, the final day for filing.

Petitions Still Circulated. Oliver M. Hickey, who has assisted to circulate Roosevelt petitions, said last night that although more than enough names had been signed, the petitions would not be filed with the Secretary of State until Wednesday. Additional names will be obtained today and tomorrow.

"I am glad to learn that Mr. Roosevelt has finally flecided to become a candidate." said Mr. Hickey. "As soon as his nominating petitions have been filed, some plan of organization work in his behalf throughout the state probably will be outlined. From the response shown by Republicans in signing his petition there is no doubt but that Roosevelt will carry the state." state.

Thomas McCusker, who is managing La Foliette's campaign in Oregon, did not manifest any surprise last night when apprised that Roosevelt had agreed to become a candidate. In fact, he evidently was in possession of ad-vance information concerning the course decided upon by the ex-Presi-dent.

Active Candidacy Surprises. Active Candidacy Surprises.

"I had anticipated that Roosevelt's answer would be to the effect that he would accept the nomination if it should be tendered to him," said Mr. McCusker. "But I did not understand that he would be an active candidate. The purpose of the progressive leaders in opposing President Taft has always been to bring about the election of as been to bring about the election of as many progressive delegates to the Re-publican National convention and then unite that strength in the support of the candidacy of Roosevelt, La Fol-lette or Cummins or some other Republican who was regarded the strongest and most available mar. Senator La Follette's petitions are be-propriety of Roosevelt's candidacy. The following expressions were obtained: C. W. Nottingham, chairman Republiccan state central committee—Taft sentiment is so strong throughout the country that he is sure of the nomination at the Chicago convention. There is no denying that Roosevelt is not playing fair with Taft. Having brought Taft out for President, Roose-velt should not only consent to giving him another term, but should also get in and assist in his re-election.

Action Is Disappointment. D. O. Lively: I am greatly disap-pointed in Mr. Roosevelt. That he should take the action he has is more than a surprise to me. There is no call for his coming out as a candidate. The country does not require his services at this time. Taft has made good and he is entitled to another term. I feel as badly over the course Boosavelt has adopted as Roosevelt has adopted ough an intimate personal friend had gone back on me

W. B. Ayer: I regard the action of Mr. Roosevelt as one of the most la-mentable things that has happened in the history of the Nation. I always have been a great admirer and sup-porter of Mr. Roosevelt, but the traditions that have been handed together with our written Constitution are too sacred to be dealt with in such a light and changeable manner as Mr. Roosevelt has assumed. He has de clared on more than one occasion that he would respect the traditions of Washington and our other great Pres-idents and would not again be a can-didate. I can only be grieved at his decision.

Annnias Club Growing. John F. Logan, secretary Portland Taft committee—I am convinced that Roosevelt has made up his mind that President Taft cannot be nominated and is afraid that La Follette or Cummins or some one else would be nom-inated and shut him (Roosevelt) out as a candidate for the Presidency for four or eight years. By the time another eight years have rolled around Roose-velt would have made enough more enemies and increased the membership of the Ananias Club sufficiently that their number alone would be adequate to defeat him for the Presidency or any other office to which he might as-

Dr. Henry W. Coe—Although I am friendly toward President Taft, I feel it is up to the Republicans to nominate a man they are certain of electing. I am certain Mr. Roosevelt would not consent to be a candidate except for the fact that a very great pressure has been brought to bear on him. I believe he is putting his personal views to one side to answer a call from the people in which he must feel that what he may have said or thought some years ago must be made subsidiary to the call from the people. I believe he will carry Oregon by a large vote.

BEST TREATMENT FOR CROUP

If your child has ever had croup, you need no description of the symptoms, but to the inexperienced, the peculiar ringing cough is often unnoticed until the disease is well under way. A child may go to bed at night in his usual health, except perhaps a cold, only to awaken a few hours later with a well-developed attack of crum and the redeveloped attack of croup and the re-mainder of the night is spent by the anxious parents in trying to relieve his suffering, which is usually more or less experimental. It is usually difficult to secure the services of a physician in the middle of the night, and he should never be depended upon as the case must be treated at once. A bottle of Chamberiain's Cough Remedy in the house will save anxiety, expense and perhaps the life of the child. When this medicine is given at the first indieation of croup, the attack may be avoided, and even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. We have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any case of croup, and it is, we believe, in more general use in the United States for that discase than any other remedy.
