INDICTMENT NULLIFIED; GRAND JURY DISMISSED.

District Attorney Cameron and Inquisitors Find That True Bill Had Been Returned Unjustly.

Attorney Cameron, the February grand jury was dismissed yesterday by Presiding Judge Kavanaugh, and the court siding Judge Kavanaugh, and the court also quashed the indictment which had been returned by the January grand jury against Neil W. Turrell for the alleged embesalement of $1800 from the General Film Company.

H. C. Stevens, manager of the film company, the hendquarters of which is on Seventh street, signed a statement in which he said that Turrell had returned to the company all the money and property which he was alleged to have converted to his own use, and the written motion of District Attorney Cameron for nullification of the indictment contained the statement that Turment contained the statement that Tur-rell was prepared to pay all the ex-pense to which the county had been put by reason of his indictment. Turrell was indicted by the January grand jury. He was then in Colorado. When he returned last week, in company with his stepfather, J. A. Davis, after ineffectual efforts had been made to settle the case from Colorade, and Governor West had communicated with the Governor of Colorado to ascertain why the Sheriff of Boulder County had not made the arrest Turrell went be-fore the February grand jury and told his story, and the recommendation to Judge Kavannugh resulted. The signed statement of the grand jury bears date of February 29.

Turrell was supployed by the Granes.

Turrell was employed by the General Film Company as bookkeeper. His de-falcations, it was alleged, extended over a period of several months. He left Portland for his old home in Colo-rado December 28, 1911, and the aleged shortage was discovered in checkng his books. J. A. Davis, his stepfather, is prominent in Colorado pol

But the remarkable feature of the case is that it's all true. The press agent

Miss Butler didn't smile.
It seems that, although Miss Butler admits she is an actress and that part of the professional duties of an actress is to have her jewels stolen in every metropolis where city editors will stand

Miss Butler, accompanied by her brother, Lew Butler, went to detective readquarters and laid the facts befor petectives Day and Hyde. At the suggestion of the woman, Superintendent Holmes, of the Pinkerton agency, was called in and is working with the city officers on the search for the gems.

Miss Pearl Linden and restored to her Sunday, by the same detectives who are engaged on the present case, the co-incidence has aroused much comment. Miss Butler last saw her diamonds Monday night, when she consigned them to their usual place in a pocket of an underskirt, which remained hanging in her room from that time till after noon resterday, when she went to take it down and observed that it was much lighter. During the night and after the hotel employes cleaned the room, early yesterday, the doors to Miss Butler's rooms and to her the room, early yesterday, the doors to Miss Butler's rooms and to her brother's, which adjoins, were locked and the keys were in the locks. It is believed that, while the burglar might have turned the key with pilers, he would not have taken the trouble to go through the same difficult operation to lock the door again from the outside.

The detectives started with absoluteby no clew and are at a loss to figure out how the gems could have disappeared. Miss Builer is positive that the diamonds were in the room Monday night and that she had not taken them out from that time till she discovered the loss, pesterday afternoon. She im-mediately called ner brother, but he was mable to ofter any suggestion.

SALEM, Or., March 5 .- (Special.)-Numerous inquiries which have poured into the State Board of Tax Commisinto the State Board of Tax Commissioners and the State Treasurer's office as to the high taxes and the apparently varying levy in the different counties for state taxes, brought forth a statement from Treasurer Kay today in explanation of these matters.

"The state tax levy for 1912 is 3.44 mills," said the State Treasurer. "But in many counties it is found that the state levy will run from four mills up to five mills or even more and the people of these counties are at a loss to understand this condition.

HINDU RIOTS CASE ENDED

Court Quashes Indictment of ex-Mayor Hendricks of St. Johns.

One of the last chapters was added yesterday to the history of the famous St. Johns riots against Hindus, which occurred in the Spring of 1916, when Presiding Judge Kavamaugh, on motion of District Attorney Cameron, dismissed the indictment against J. F. Hendricks, then Mayor of St. Johns, which indictment grew out of the trouble. Mr. Hendricks was accused of having neglected to use his authority as an officer to quell the riots, the specific allegation being that he made no attempt to interfere in behalf of the Hindu laborers attacked.

Hendricks was indicted by the county grand jury of April, 1816. Those named in the indictment as leaders of the riots, which had for their object the ridding of St. Johns of Hindu laborers, were Gordon Dickey, Ray Van de Bogard, John N. Groves, John Hess, Milton Unger and Frank Jones. Dickey was singled out as the ringleader and was indicted and convicted, the trial being held before Judge Coke, of Marshfield. A motion for a new trial was overruled recently and Judge Coke consented to have Judge Gatens, act in his stead in sentencing Dickey. Dickey's attorneys. John F. Logan and John H. Stevenson, made strong efforts to obtain a parode and were successful. Dickey was paroted and ordered to report at regular intervals to Probation Officer White. He is now working in Eastern Oregon. Dan J. Malarkey, who was employed as special prosecutor by the British Government, which demanded the punishment of the rioters, the Hindus being British subjects, said last night.

TAFT CAMPAIGN TO START Clackamas County Republicans Will

OREGON CITY, Or., March 5.—(Special.)—Chairman Stipp, of the county central committee, announced today that the big Republican rally to start the campaign for President Taft in this county would be held on March 16 at Shively's Opera-house. C. W. Fulton, ex-United States Senator, and C. M. Idleman probably will be the speakers. The plan is to invite the Republicans of Clackamas County to join with those of Oregon City in working for the interest of Mr. Taft. While the sentiment in Clackamas County is overwhelmingly for Mr. Taft, it is thought best to organize a committee to carry on the campaign. Even among the Republicans who are friendly to Coloniel Roosevelt, it is felt that the expressiont should not be a candidate this year.

against because of this apparent discrepancy. The state board in making its equalization always increases the assessed valuation of the assessors rather than cut it down.

Take a concrete instance. For an example, one county sent in an assessed valuation of $10,000,000. The board might find it necessary, in equalizing, to increase that valuation to $12,000,000. Consequently it would be necessary for that county to make the levy in the specific instance on the ratio of $14 mills to the ratio obtained by that county would be no more than if a levy of $14 mills was made against the smaller figure.

"We are also constantly bombarded with queries as to how the State Board reaches the equalized value. The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influence, (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied on with implicit confidence.
