DOMESTIC SQUARRER MAY BE AIRED -Actions for divorce, alienation of affections and assault and battery and are thous and assault and hattery and a private vendetta, are the expected autooms of a family row which was quieted by Patroiman Fuller, at 231. East Sixth street, late Thursday night, when M. C. Slater, 249 North Seviteenth street, interrupted an interview between its wife and Frank Murhard. Sater had trailed the woman to the place, and asserts that she was drunk. The indignant husband commenced proseedings by knocking Murhard down and kicking him. Then one Scott, a relative of Murhard, seized a butcher knife and slashed Slater in the hand. At this juncture Patrolman Fuller arrived and took charge of the proceed-ings. He declared the honors even and ings. He declared the honors even and made no arrests. He persuaded Mrs. Slater to return with her husband. Fuller reports that Slater will sue his wife for divorce and will commence an action against Murhard for allenating his wife's affections. Murhard promised to come back with a prosecution for assault and battery, while Scott is quoted as threatening Slater with shooting.

DEEDGING Is DISCUSSED .- "The Woodlawn Improvement Club will insist on the dredging of Columbia slough beyond Kenton for sewerage and ship canal," said Charles E. York, president of the club, yesterday. Mr. York said that so far the investigations of the that so far the investigations of the slough have stopped at Kenton, leaving out the territory east and north of Woodlawn which he declares is as much interested as the Kenton district. All the territory slopes toward the slough, said. Mr. York, and the people will object to using Columbia slough as an outlet for sewerage unless it is dredged eastward toward Troutdale. "If the slough is not dredged beyond Kenton," said Mr. York, "It will be of no benefit to dged beyond Kenton," said Mr. York, 'It will be of no benefit to Weodlawn district and we will object to sewerage being emptied into the slough.' The City Engineer has made several trips to inspect Columbia slough with a view to dredging it out, but has made no report as to how far it should be dredged. He made his last trip Monday.

WILLIAMS AVENUE TO BE LIGHTED. Plans of a unique gas light are being prepared for the special illumination of Williams avenue between Hawthorne and Killingsworth avenues. The light will consist of a single burner of much power and placed in the elbow of a curved figure. L. E. Sauvis, who has been promoting the plan to Illuminate Williams avenue, says that the light will be attractive and yet inexpensive. The post will cost much less than will be attractive and yet thexpensive. The post will cost much less than those in general use, and the expense of maintainance will be less. He reports that the property owners on Williams avenue generally are favorable to having the street lighted, and he thinks that the atreet will be the first liquininated in the North East Side. There is some agitation to light Union, avenue and Broudway, but the move-ment is not as far along as the Wil-liams avenue movement, and will prob-ably not take form until after the LIGHTS TO BE PROVIDED,—According to the announcement made by W. H. Fitzgerald, of the lighting committee of the Executive Board, electric lights may be installed at the rate of about 45 a month in the three East Side districts. Mr. Fitzgerald said that the general plan is that all lights are to be located where they will zerve the largest number of people, and the locations may not be where petitions ask. Dr. H. C. Fixet has charge of the territory south of Hawthorne avenue. Mr. Fitzgerald the territory between Hawthorne avenue and Fremont nue. Mr. Pitzgerald the territory between Hawthorne avenue and Premont street—the Eighth and Ninth Wards—and M. J. Murnane looks after the Tenth Ward. When request comes for lights, said Mr. Pitzgerald, an investigation will be made with the assistance of a committee of citizens, before they are located and ordered. Clubs or citizens are invited to appoint committees to co-operate with the lighting committee in the three East Side districts. Local committees will know where lights are needed.

I. W. W. With Banners and Placards March Streets Opposing Movement-First Meeting to Be Held This Afternoon.

Owing to a hitch in arrangements Lieutenant-General Baden-Powell, head ception which was planned for him at the depot and at the Multnomah Hotel was postponed until today. He in-formed the local entertainment com-mittee by telegraph last night that he will reach Portland at 7:50 o'clock this morning from San Francisco, in com pany with James West, executive head of the Boy Scout movement. He will be met at the depot by a committee comprising E. A. Wood, William L. Finley and Robert Strong and probably by a delegation of the Boy Scouts of Oregon, and will be taken to the Multnomah Hotel for breakfast.

His first appearance in public will be this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when he holds a general meeting for boys and men at the Gipsy Smith audito-rium. Originally it was planned to admit everybody, but the plans have been so changed that the meeting will be come only to have and men. Tonight been so changed that the meeting with be open only to boys and men. Tonight he will speak in the ballroom at the Multnomah Hotel to a gathering of about 500 persons who have been in-vited to attend. He will leave Portland tomorrow morning.

Mr. Baden-Powell stands as the head Mr. Baden-rowell stanus as the seaso officer of the Boy Scout movement, which has spread over many countries of the world, including the United States. Nearly every state has a branch of the Boy Scouts, which is growing rapidly. The Scouts are branch of the boy Scouts, which is growing rapidly.
