BUSINESS MEN MAY AID

PROSPECTS FOR WILLAMETTE ENDOWMENT BRIGHT.

If Methodists Fail to Secure Entire Amount Needed Outsiders May Complete Fund.

That help from an unexpected source may be extended to the Willamette endowment campaign under certain circumstances, was the word received yesterday by the managers of the campaign.

The information, in brief, was to the effect that certain big business men of this city, outside the Methodist Church, have been watching the campaign, and that they have tacitly reached an unspoken agreement that when they are satisfied that the Methodists have done all that they possibly can, if the $150,000 allotted to Portland is still a few thousand dollars

"why" they will help out the Endowment Fund.

"The man who gave me this information," said Dr. Hancock last night, "is of such prominence in commercial circles that the mention of his name would at once guarantee the importance and genuineness of his statement."

"He said that business associates and acquaintances with whom he had talked had indicated their willingness, in case of necessity, to assist Willamette on the one condition that the Methodists of the city first make a bona fide effort to the limit of their ability."

"I also desire to say that our workers and managers have found that the business and professional men of the city are taking a keen interest in the Willamette campaign now on, their interest at the present moment is centered on Willamette."

While there was only about $1500 actually pledged as the result of yesterday's work, several large contributions were almost closed, and one man said that he would make announcement of his gift, which will be a large one, at the end of the week.

One of the pledges was for $1000, and there are bright prospects that this gift will be made larger before the campaign closes.

Grace Church has nearly completed the work of preparation for a campaign to secure the balance of its $25,000. More than half of that amount has been subscribed, and it is hoped to secure the entire amount within a short time.

COUNTY DIVISION IS CRY

IDARHO AGAIN STIRRED AT PLEA FOR NEW DISTRICTS.

Advocates of Change Meet at Shoshone and Organization Is Perfected in Lincoln County.

BOISE, Idaho, March 14.—(Special.)—County division is to be a battle cry before the twelfth Legislature in this state when it convenes in Boise, this issue coming up then as it did during the last session, causing some of the most bitter conflicts the state has seen.

Several large gifts are being considered by wealthy members of the church, and it is hoped before the end of the week to secure several of these.

almost as many and may be asked to give life to ever more.

Following a meeting of the advocates of county division at Shoshone, this week, an organization has been perfected in Lincoln County, the object of which is to divide that county into two others making three with the old one, leaving Shoshone the present county seat of Lincoln, and placing county seats at Gooding and Rupert.

The other proposed county division fight originated in Burley, Cassia County, a few days ago, where a plan was proposed and the Burley Chamber of Commerce decided to push it, by which Cassia can either be divided or the county seat removed from Albion to Burley. The Burley backers are after the county seat and expect to secure it through a removal election. This is the plan that will be worked up at least. If it is successful the county division issue will be dropped.

Efforts will also be made to divide Canyon County.
