

RIOTS MARK GREAT STRIKE IN GERMANY

Fight at Herne Results in Death of Union Member. Situation Grave.

VANS CARRY MEN TO WORK

Vast Walkout Brought About by Socialist Trades Bodies Grows More Bitter and Shipments of Fuel Dwindle in Empire.

BERLIN, March 14.—The coal miners' strike in the great German coal fields of Westphalia continues to spread. There are more than 240,000 men now on strike and the situation is becoming worse everywhere. Conditions have taken a most serious turn in several districts and already have resulted in a fatal conflict between the police and the strikers in the district of Herne.

Feeling among the men is increasing in intensity, owing to the rigid repressive measures of the authorities and it is said officially that the provincial authorities have been instructed to call out the troops if the police prove inadequate to deal with the situation. Mineworkers and leaders of the so-called Christian trade unions, whose members rapidly are breaking away and joining in the strike which was brought about by the Socialist trade unions, are clamoring for military assistance.

Sale of Spirits Forbidden. The police precinct at Mochum, the center of the strike region, has forbidden the sale of spirits.

Disturbances have been reported from various sections. The most serious of these occurred at Herne, a mining village five miles from Bochum, where a number of strikers threw stones and fired revolvers at a detachment of armed police. One of the strikers was killed.

At Hambern, in the district of Dusseldorf, where fighting occurred yesterday between the strikers and the police and a number of persons were injured, large reinforcements of police have arrived. The strikers repulsed by bombardment with notes and stones the police escorting the non-strikers.

Non-Strikers Carried in Wagons. The mineowners have provided covered wagons in which the non-strikers are escorted with police protection to and from the pits. Many arrests have been made.

Conditions are tending more and more toward a strike among the miners in Lower Saxony and Silesia, where the men are pressing their demands for a 15 per cent increase in their wages and for shorter hours.

Coal shipments are falling off everywhere. Only 12,000 carloads were sent off by rail yesterday from Essen, where the usual daily shipment is 20,000 carloads.

A coal famine is reported from Cassel.

BRITISH ISSUE UNSETTLED

Miners Show Signs of Making Concessions for Peace. LONDON, March 14.—Thirteen days of coal strike; no settlement yet. That is the situation here tonight.

The joint conference of coal miners, mineowners and members of the Cabinet adjourned tonight until tomorrow afternoon to consider certain proposals made by the Prime Minister, the announcement put it.

Concerning the nature of the proposals and the results achieved at the conference, which lasted several days in its policy of field tactics, but there are indications that some progress toward peace has been made and the miners have refused to accept a position that the only basis of a settlement would be the owners' acceptance of the Federation's schedule of minimum wages.

MISS FLORENCE E. TURNER TO APPEAR TODAY AT THEATER.

Leader in Famous Company Tells of Her Work With Henry Irving and Joseph Jefferson.

Miss Florence E. Turner, of New York, one of the leading moving-picture actresses of the country, arrived in Portland from California yesterday and will remain several days as the guest of M. G. Winstock, manager of the People's Theater, where Miss Turner will appear in impersonations today.

Miss Turner's career has been interesting. Born in New York, of a Spanish mother and an Italian father, with a craving to become an actress from her earliest recollections, playing the child "Minnie" in "Rip Van Winkle" with Joseph Jefferson when only four years old, and never surrendering her ambitions, she at last succeeded, when Sir Henry Irving discovered her talents.

"The actress talk to make the audience more real. We used the ocean and river at times. I was almost drowned once when playing the part of a drowning girl, who was supposed to have fallen from a boat, rowed by a coward and who was to be rescued by a swimmer from shore. I went down twice, for I could not swim, but fortunately I grabbed the boat and saved my own life, for the 'hero' was so long coming out. He was a professional swimmer, but his clothes bothered him. It just happened that I was on the opposite side of the boat from the camera, so the picture was a great success."

"On another occasion when I was supposed to be adrift on a raft in an unfrequented part of the ocean, so many ships passed and the camera that I had to do the act over again."

"Our pictures are appreciated more in foreign countries than they are here. It seems strange that so many people should write to me. A few weeks ago I received a handsome locket and chain from Norway, the gift of three girls, who had learned to like me through my acting in pictures."

young, but I stayed to watch the other girls perform. They were frightened. I spoke to a man who seemed to have something to say. 'This young woman will do,' he remarked. It was Henry Irving."

ELKS CROSS OREGON LINE

Forty-Mile Sled Trip Must Be Made From Enterprise to Wallawa.

BAKER, Or., March 14.—(Special.)—Headed by Taft and Roosevelt, the bull leaders, the 15 elk from Jackson's Hole, Wyoming, imported to this state by the W. P. O. S. Elks, first breathed the air of their new home state this noon and seemed to like it. They crossed the border and rolled into Enterprise at about 1:30 o'clock.

The entire town turned out to see the travelers and the Elks of that city gave them a most fitting reception. State Game Warden Finley wired from Huntington to Postmaster W. J. Lachner, of Baker, acting exalted ruler of Baker Lodge, No. 23, and to the newspapers, inviting the Elks, school children and citizens to visit the strange shipment on freight train No. 55, of the O.-W. R. & N. Railroad.

The Elks members and high school students were notified, and when the train arrived at 6:30 o'clock tonight, nearly 2000 people were at the depot to greet the visitors with cheers. The train stopped long enough for all to file through the car and view the elk, who seemed surprised at the reception. The animals are in a box car, at each end of which State Game Warden Finley and Deputy Craig and Uhl have their desks. The animals, Finley says, are the finest ever shipped from Wyoming. They are standing the trip well and the importation promises to be a decided success. The car will reach La Grand late tonight, and tomorrow will proceed to Enterprise, where they will be crated and hauled in sleds 40 miles to Wallawa, Oregon, where, where they will be released to range over 2500 acres of fenced land.

EDDY WILL IN LAST COURT

Arguments Begun Before High Tribunal in New Hampshire.

CONCORD, N. H., March 14.—The controversy over the will of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, reached the tribunal of last resort in New Hampshire yesterday, when final arguments, which will extend over three days, were begun before the Supreme Court on the construction of various clauses in the will.

The proceedings opened with the presentation of a brief in which it is alleged that the provisions of the will bequeathing the greater part of the property to the directors of the Christian Science Church in Boston, are a violation of the statute limiting bequests to churches.

Arndt Would Get Match.

Walter Arndt, the Portland light-weight wrestler who defeated Clyde Vanderschuer, last night, is anxious to get on in a preliminary to the Berg-Zhysaco match scheduled for March 22. Arndt also issued a challenge to any light-weight on the Pacific Coast.

MME. SCHUMANN-HEINK GETS ROYAL WELCOME

Hellig Theater Is Taxed by Music-Lovers Anxious to Hear the Noted Songstress.

BY JOSEPH M. QUENTIN.

I only needed the concert that Madame Schumann-Heink, contralto, gave last night before an audience that taxed the seating capacity of the Hellig Theater to demonstrate the remarkable talent in which she is held by the Portland public.

When she came first on the stage to sing the opening song of the occasion she was greeted with enthusiastic applause that came from all parts of the theater, applause that was renewed again and again, until it was quite evident the singer was affected by the hearty and cordial welcome. Applause at $3 per seat is surely an evidence of friendly feeling toward a concert artist, a tribute that ought to make any singer feel grateful.

The art of Schumann-Heink and her knowledge of what the public wants to hear, is a tribute that grows with the years. In this direction she is, better than ever, a great artist who is lucky enough to be able to supply what is required from her as an entertainer. Of course there are too enthusiastic friends who think that when they mention Schumann-Heink's name you are expected to give three cheers—friends who insist that Schumann-Heink's voice is better and fresher than ever. It is not. It would give the voice as they pass. It is comforting to relate, however, that Schumann-Heink's organ-like notes have still wonderful appeal, and "the singing that shows the years" is only perceptible to the most critical ear.

Germany who attended last night's concert were "Lena" (Halsbach) and the familiar "Rosary."

The piano accompanist was Mrs. Katherine Hoffman, originally from St. Paul, Minn., but who has been accompanist for Schumann-Heink for six years, and had concert experience in Germany and other parts of Europe. Mrs. Hoffman was given with fine skill. The concert was one of the Lois Stearns-Wynn Coman series.

ROOSEVELT HIRES NEW PRESS AGENT

Publicity Manager Is Author of Book Entitled "Taft, Man of the Hour."

SEEKS WESTERN MANAGER

Appeal Made for Negro Vote, and Dixon Figures That Its Control Will Affect 115 Members of Electoral College.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Oscar King Davis, head of the Washington bureau of the New York Times, will be general publicity manager and assistant to Senator Dixon in the Roosevelt headquarters. It was announced Wednesday by Senator Dixon.

Mr. Davis, it was said, is to be more than head of the literary bureau of the National headquarters; he is to be a working assistant to Senator Dixon and part of an "assistant general manager." Announcement of the selection of a well known Western member of Congress to take active control of some of the Western work in the headquarters is expected within a day or two.

The new Roosevelt publicity expert has been for several years a Washington correspondent and represented a New York paper in Manila during part of Mr. Taft's service there as Military Governor. He wrote a campaign book on "The Man of the Hour." In the last Presidential campaign, and has been an intimate friend of both Colonel Roosevelt and President Taft.

The Roosevelt headquarters yesterday gave out a statement prepared at a conference of negro ministers in Washington claiming to represent 100,000 negro voters. This statement declares for Roosevelt as the "friend of the negroes." The statement is signed by Bishops J. S. Chalmers, of Philadelphia, A. J. Warner, of Tennessee; G. L. Blackwell, of Indianapolis; E. Tyne, of Nashville, and G. W. Clifton, of Charlotte, N. C., and by more than 50 negro ministers of various denominations.

The petition, addressed to negro voters, urges them to do all they can to aid Colonel Roosevelt. It asks that they do all they can to compass the defeat of William Howard Taft, who thinks that 10,000,000 negroes should accept his appointment as an assistant Attorney-General and a Collector of Customs as a panacea for his degrading Southern policy.

"If these negro bishops and ministers are correct in their signed statement that the colored voters will not support Mr. Taft if he is nominated," said Senator Dixon in a statement to the press, "it means the certain loss of the 12 electoral votes in Indiana, 23 in Illinois, 18 in Missouri, 3 in Delaware, 8 in West Virginia, 2 in Ohio and 1 in Kansas and 1 in Maryland. With the elimination of these 115 electoral votes, the nomination of Taft would mean political suicide."

AUTO-TRUCK KILLS BOY

HEAVY WHEELS BREAK BONE AND DEATH ENSUES. Nine-Year-Old Lad Killed While on His Way Home From the Vernon School.

Sam Westermann, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Westermann, 1394 East Eighteenth street North, was crushed to death under the rear wheels of an auto truck, at East Twenty-first and Wagon streets Wednesday afternoon, while on his way home from the Vernon School with several companions.

The truck belonged to the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. According to his companions, who witnessed the accident, young Westermann, by mistake, ran directly under the wheels of a car which was backing up. The vehicle was one used for hauling lime poles, and was a long, skeletonized affair, with three trucks instead of the usual two. When the first two trucks had gone by, the children, little Westermann started to cross the street, probably thinking the vehicle had passed, and not noticing the rear truck.

After the truck had passed over him the children rushed up to him and picked him up. At first he struggled faintly, but life, apparently, was all but gone.

was partial to the tongue of the Teutonic fatherland. Those of us who could not understand German and look as if we did and be thankful to avail ourselves of the translation in English enclosed in the program, a welcome innovation.

Schumann-Heink sang the Saint-Saens numbers with wonderful control and expenditure of breath, and the vocal work was eminently satisfactory, especially in the softer finish. Her half-voice was a musical treat. The Schubert and the Schumann excerpts were nobly given. The two encore numbers in this group were "Little Spinning Song" (old German), and Schubert's familiar "Erl King." Schumann-Heink "acted" the latter number with great ability, and was so realistic in the terror scene that her audience shivered with the mystic thrill created.

The Arndt "Boiero" was skillfully sung, and the thrill given was a pleasant surprise for a contralto. One of the best-sung songs of the entire concert was Sauter's dramatic "Try of Ration," which was given with a wailing, wailing tone of a woman who has lived. Miss Bauer's "Light" is a gem, and was splendidly sung. Schumann-Heink's English is unusually distinct, so distinct that it is an object lesson to people who speak English as their habitual language. The other two encores were "Lena" (Halsbach) and the familiar "Rosary."

The piano accompanist was Mrs. Katherine Hoffman, originally from St. Paul, Minn., but who has been accompanist for Schumann-Heink for six years, and had concert experience in Germany and other parts of Europe. Mrs. Hoffman was given with fine skill. The concert was one of the Lois Stearns-Wynn Coman series.

most extinct. Principal Walker, of the school, was called by the children and carried the child into a residence. The number of the truck, which had stopped after the accident, was 2308. The child's body appeared to be unscathed. Apparently his back bone had been broken and internal organs crushed.

IMPERIAL ARMY A-MARCH

10,000 TROOPS SEEK TO RESTORE EMPEROR TO THRONE. Six Hostile Armies in Field in China and Foreign Legations Are Gloomy at Outlook.

PEKIN, March 14.—General Sheng-Yun, who under the empire held the post of Governor of the province of Shensi, is marching at the head of 10,000 troops from the province of Kansu to Peking to restore the Emperor to the throne.

The commander of the Emperor's guards at the palace sweeping over the city, which the present disorders have not aggrieved to the forced compromise their leaders are negotiating; the Manchou troops, the Mongols, Chinese garrisons in the north; General Sheng-Yun's army, composed largely of Mohammedans, and in the province of Yunnan an army of independence.

The diplomatic representatives in Peking are pessimistic because of the apparent weakness of the Chinese administrators and disciplinarians.

J. C. Stevens Given Reception. J. C. Stevens, who will leave in a few days for Barcelona, Spain, where he has accepted a position as engineer on a large irrigation and power project, was guest of honor last night at a reception tendered him at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kandler, 28 East Thirtieth street, by the Nebraska University Club.

Mr. Stevens is well known in Portland and until recently was with the Government reclamation service.

J. R. EARLY, LEPER, FRETS Man Denounced by County Officials Says He Wants to Be Let Alone.

TACOMA, Wash., March 14.—(Special.)—John Ruskin Early, the famous leper, who with his family located recently at the suburb of Summit View, is worrying because the county authorities have alleged he had threatened physical violence because of delay in getting action on his case by the Pierce County Court, the county, state or National authorities.

"If I were going to be hanged," he said today, "I'd want to know it and have it over as soon as possible. The suspense would be worse than the hanging. That's the way I feel about the proceedings in my case. I wish they would do something and remove the suspense."

"I don't believe I could be forced off my little place here as long as I behave myself. It would suit me first rate to be let alone just as I am now. It would save a lot of bother to other folks, too, if they took the same view of the situation. It won't take me long to get this place in such shape that it will support me and my family. I am going into the chicken business and am going to raise White Leghorns for eggs exclusively. I could do a lot more if this continual waiting for the officials to try to do something didn't get on my nerves."
