ABERDEEN, Wash. March 31-(Special.)-Four thousand dollars for John Tornow, dead or alive, is the s stance of a notice posted today in the office of Sheriff Ed Payette and as result 15 men, well armed, left this morning in search of the slayer of John and Will Bauer and Deputies Colin McKenzie and A. V. Elmer, Members of the posse were Undertaker W. R. Whiteside, acting as Coroner, and

E. Whiteside, acting as Coroner, and Attorney Dan Pearsail, representing the Prosecuting Attorney's office.

This afternoon a telegram was sent to Governor M. E. Hay, who is now in San Francisco, requesting that $2000 more be added by the state for the capture of the fugitive. As the county has already offered a reward of $500, this will bring the probable total to $6500. With hard travel it is expected With hard travel it is expected that the posse will reach the scene of the tragedy tomorrow morning and that by Faturday afternoon the two bodies will be returned to Aberdeen. The posse has been ordered to shoot Tornow at sight.

Mckenzie is Forewarned. That McKensic had a forewarning of his fate was made known this morn-ing through a statement from Mrs. T. H. Hill, who, with her husband, were almost inseparable companions of Mc-Kenzie. Before leaving on his last trip into the woods McKenzie, grasp-ing Mrs. Hill by the hand, said: "I have

Only a brief inspection will be made of the bodies, which were left after they were found by Fitagerald yesterday just as Tornow had left them. Tornow Once in Portland Refuge.

John Tornow, Selieved by Sheriff Payette to be the murderer of Mc-Kenzie and Elmer, first came into the attention of the officers and of the public more than two years ago when he showed signs of insanity and was sent to a sanitarium in Portland. He escaped from the institution and made his way across a country with which he was not supposed to be familiar, on foot, the entire distance, back to Satnear where the Ternow family tartum angered him with his relatives and civilization as well, and he disposed of his property and went into the woods to live, becoming a hermit who seldom came to civilization, and then only to get the bareat necessities, such as matches, flour, etc. He lived in the woods between Satsop, Grays Harbor and Olympic Mountains, but in the Winnochee Valley mainly. He is sustained his contention. Chehalis and another in Portland, both in a Montesano bank, and is said to have had upwards of $1990 in cash on his person when he went to the woods to become a hermit.

FIVE REFUSE TO STRIKE

Spokane Carpenters Ignore Orders Issued by Union

SPOKANE, Wash, March 21 .- (Special.)-Orders to cease work for Contractor Skinner on the lower floor of the Halliday Hotel building, which is undergoing alterations, have been is-sued to members of the Carpenters' Union, because of the employment of on-union painters on the job.

Five union carpenters refused to obey ne order and are threatened with having charges preferred against them in their organization. The trouble is an outgrowth of the fight instituted by master painters of the city on March I. to establish the "open shop" and to re-duce wages of painters to $4 per day. Il per day lower than the union scale Contractor Skinner has refused to have the non-union painters replaced by members of the painters union and it is expected that action will be taken by the trades unions of the city to place him on the list of the firms unfriendly to organized labor.

Further effort to bring the carpenters out on a strike will probably be made Friday at the regular weekly meeting of the carpenters' union.

two young men who reside at Puget Island, were arraigned in the Justice Conti today on an information charging them with larceny from the person by stealing $195 from Gay Thompson, keeper of the Government light at the upper end of Westport Island. The men admit having taken the money, but as the evidence showed the crime was committed in Columbia County, the men were remanded to the County, the men were remanded to the County Jall.

The robbery was committed last Tuesday. The prisoners went to Thompson's home and purchased a piece of old fish net. They handed him a ten deliar gold piece to pay for the net, and as Thompson took a can the net, and as Thompson took a can from a cupboard in which he had $125 in gold and $126 in silver to get the change, they saw the money. Later, when Thompson accompanied them to the boatlanding, the larger of the two struck Thompson in the eye, knocking him down. They then tied him with a piece of web, took the money.

No Trace Yet Obtained of Whereabouts of Captain Augustus H. Bishop of First Infantry. Accounts Are Checked.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., March 2: -(Special.)-Mrs. Bishop, wife of Captain Augustus Hall Bishop, of Company G. First Infantry, has almost despaired of ever hearing again from her husband, who disappeared mysteriously last Thursday night in Portland. Mrs. Bishop and her two children will return to her brother, who lives at Detrolt, Mich., as soon as she can make arrangements for the trip.

A board of three officers, with Captain Newman, First Infantry, as chairman, has been appointed to check up Captain Bishop's company accounts, of which he had charge. This checking would be done even if the Captain would be done even if the Captain were here, before another commander of the company took charge. The report of the board will be made to Colonel McGunnegle, and he in turn will report to higher officers.

No trace whatever has been found since Captain Bishop left, and it is known that he did not have much money when he left the post last Thursday. He was not dressed for Thursday. He was not dressed for leaving longer than a few hours, not even taking an overcoat. Many causes even taking an overcoat. Many causes have been rumored as to why he left, among them being that he had overdrawn his company's funds. This does not seem at all probable, his friends say, because the amount he could secure would not be more than a couple of hundred dollars, and his salary is $240 a month. He had at different times been a little hard pressed for ready money, it is said, and secured small loams from brother officers, but these had all been repaid before he

Some persons hold the theory that someone believing him to have money, killed him to rob him, or drugged him and the effects of the poleon may have proved fatal. He was fond of the army and took much interest in his
