trial. Uhlman was traced through the vigilance of a country offleer at Callahan. Sisklyou County, California, who telegraphed yesterday that the man was in his hands. He was directed to hold him till the arrival of requisition papers. The police here are informed that Uhiman has been in the camps of Northern Californis ever since his departure last July, using an allas to conceal his identity.

Just before Uhlman's departure he had received an advance of $3000 from the Weinhard estate, to be used in cash-ing workingmen's checks. It is for the alleged peculation of this money that alleged pecula he is wanted.

Besides carrying away the advance money, Uhiman is said to have held a bargain sale of the stock of liquors in the saloon connected with the hotel, and when officers went to the place to investigate they found it virtually looted. A large quantity of mining stock, of the face value of $20,000, sup-posed to have been taken also, was found behind the cash register in the saloon.

The fugitive was married and lived at 575 Vancouver avenue. It was through the anxiety of his wife that his disappearance was discovered. He had lived here for years and always was regular in his habits. When he failed to return home over night, Mrs. Uhl-man telephoned to the Weinhard peo-ple, and her inquiry led to an investigation.
