

IRISH LEADERS HIT

Newspapers Criticise Methods in Home Rule Campaign.

QUESTIONS NOT ANSWERED

Proposed Enactment Causes Discussion Concerning Possible Harm to Country's Interests Under Bill Awaiting Voters' Approval.

DUBLIN, March 22.—(Special.)—It is said that Mr. Redmond and his colleagues will be hard put to persuade their followers that the proposed home rule, minus the amendments would afford a satisfactory settlement of the Irish problem. The silence of the leaders on this subject, and still more the petulant reproaches addressed by them to the newspapers, have caused a little irritation. Speaking at Dublin last week, John Dillon sternly rebuked several inconveniently curious people. Premature discussion by Nationalists of the government's plans was, he said in effect, a wholly unwarrantable proceeding, calculated seriously to embarrass the party.

A correspondent of the Freeman's Journal in the course of a vigorous protest against the "mischievous secrecy" of the leaders, asks by what process of reasoning Mr. Dillon arrives at the conclusion that the party would be strengthened by suppressing discussion. "They ought," he says, "to be told exactly that the country is thinking, what matters it deems important, and what are the probable limits of concession and negotiation."

Mr. Dillon, the Irish Independent, "deprecates premature discussion. We deprecate premature discussion. Such a policy would not be fair to the government because the persons to deliver the final verdict are the people of Ireland."

Complete Local Rule Asked. From the first this journal has left Mr. Redmond in no doubt as to what his followers want. "Full self-government in all purely Irish affairs must," it asserts, "mean the management of all our own affairs, including the right to levy all taxes as well as to control all the spending departments within the country."

"J. J. Dolan, a member of the Directory, and a gentleman who takes a fair and level-headed view of public questions, says the government cannot fail to understand that the expectation and sentiment of the Irish people, and also their sense of the material interests of the country, require that the control of our customs and excise, as well as the rest of our internal affairs, should be put in our own hands. This view is representative of that entertained by most of the intelligent Nationalists throughout the country, men whose support of the party is beyond question. It is not conceivably possible that a scheme of full self-government could withhold from Ireland the power of levying these taxes."

Publication Gives Views. "Sinn Fein" which represents the separatist section, says that home rule without the control of customs and excise would be a mockery.

"There is no more secrecy for our finances, our trade, our future in such a Ireland than there is in the present," says "Sinn Fein." "We lie as much at the mercy of the majority in the English Parliament under such conditions as we lie now. We have exchanged our present position of powerlessness and irresponsibility for one of powerlessness plus responsibility. Take our spirit industry."

"It yields us over £2,000,000 or one-fourth of our whole revenue. If England puts an extra duty on home-made spirits and decreases production, she increases a quarter of our revenue. The duty would, of course, apply to English-made spirits in England, but their yield is only equal to 5 per cent of English revenue. Falls tax on spirits, therefore, would hit Ireland exactly five times as heavy as it would hit England. An English Chancellor of the Exchequer could thus at any time practically push Ireland to the verge of bankruptcy without endangering English stability."

"Customs and excise is not a question of Ireland adopting protection or free trade, or of Ireland imposing a tariff against England. It is not a question of separation. It is a question of whether an Ireland which is a part of the British Empire is to have security of tenure in her commerce and industry, whether an English politician for an English party shall see at any moment upon the system of Ireland and plunge this country into financial chaos."

BUSINESS PUPILS PLAY

First Game of Commercial Baseball League Puled Off.

The first game of the Commercial Baseball League, a minor organization composed of teams representing the different classes of the Christian Brothers Business College, was held Thursday, the Commercial Grammar nine defeating the Commercial Class, 4 to 1.

Puglist Seeks Matches.

Containing that he has won 23 out of 40 fights and never had his eyes blacked, Pete Jensen, the "battling Dane" of Denver, is here after the scalp of either Bud Anderson or Danny O'Brien. Jensen and his manager arrived from Boise Thursday and if nothing hobb up here they will travel on to San Francisco. Any other weighing in at from 125 to 135 pounds would be acceptable opponents.

Mayer Beats Harris at Billiards.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Philadelphia went down in the National three-cushion billiard championship race again last night when Harris of Chicago defeated Mayer of Philadelphia, 50 to 41. The game went 102 innings. Mayer's high run was five and Harris four.

Amateur Athletics.

Lincoln High School's nine indulged in its first practice game yesterday, defeating the Trades School, 29 to 9. The pitching of Tuerck and Provost was the feature of the game, these two taking the opposing batters down in one-two-three order. No man of the Trades got past second base and only Schilt on second for Lincoln was also good and assures that individual a chance on that sack in the league games.

The Jefferson nine has been weakened by the departure of four men, whose places will be hard to fill. The latest to go is Johnny Murphy, who has left school for good, it is thought. There is a rumor that he is going in for professional ball. Vesper, now with Oregon University; George Keep and Walter Morgan are the others that will be missed. Earl Arthur, a former player for the school and incidentally one of the best pitchers that has ever appeared on Portland intercollegiate diamonds, has been coaching the nine some. Arthur will probably play with one of the valley teams this year.

The Lewis & Clark High School football team, of Spokane, will be seen on the Multnomah gridiron November 15, according to Manager Bremser, of Lincoln High. This will be the second of two games to play a Spokane team in that season, Jefferson having a game at Spokane with Spokane High.

Forie Casey seems to be able to inject baseball into the grammar school boys for his aggregation. Coach School, defeated the Shattuck nine, 9 to 1, yesterday. The pitching of Coulter, of Shattuck, was one of the best points of the game. The catching of Wax for the defeated also caused favorable comment.

STUDENTS TO WRESTLE

OREGON "AGGIES" WILL MEET WASHINGTON MEN.

Grapplers Will Contest at Corvallis in 115, 125, 135, 145 and 175-Pound Events.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, March 22.—(Special.)—The first intercollegiate wrestling match in two years at Oregon Agricultural College is scheduled for tomorrow night in the college gymnasium, when the Oregon Agricultural College team will grapple the University of Washington men. Washington will be represented by Barrington Upper, 115 pounds; Glen Hoover, 125 pounds; William Prather, captain, 135 pounds; E. L. Thompson, 145 pounds; James Sippell, 158 pounds; Warren Hardy, 175 pounds. The men who have grappled their way to positions on the Oregon team are Freydie, 115 pounds; Amort, 125 pounds; Pearey, 135 pounds; Kelly, 145 pounds; Leedy, 155 pounds, and C. E. Sitten, 175 pounds.

Under the direction of Physical Instructor Arthurbut the Oregon men have been doing good work.

Freydie, who will meet Upper in the 115-pound class, is an experienced man. His opponent is a freshman at Washington and will come on the mat as substitute for Dickson of the regular team, who was injured in the Pullman match, where he won his bout.

Amort and Hoover, in the 125-pound class, are expected to put up a strong contest for the honors. Amort is a freshman in college. Hoover has had three years' college experience.

Pearey, who will meet Captain Prather at 135 pounds, is a new man in this class. Last year he was the Northwest champion at 125 pounds. Captain Prather, who is representing Washington for his third consecutive year, still retains the 1211 championship title, although he was defeated at Pullman.

Kelly, who will contest with Thompson for the 145-pound championship, is a new man on the Washington team. Thompson is a new man on the Washington team.

Lewdy, Oregon's representative in the 155-pound class, is an old follower of the mat game, but has not tried for a place on the college team since 1910, when he won all his bouts. His Washington opponent, Sippell, has not entered a college match until this season.

The heavyweight bout, between Captain Sitten and Hardy, is attracting special attention. Sitten has held the championship in his class since 1910. Hardy is the winner of the heavyweight bout at Pullman and his contest here with Captain Sitten will decide the 1912 championship of the 175-pound class. Tonight's meet will also settle the championship in the 115 and 125-pound classes.

Fred McHenry, of Corvallis, will referee the contests.

Anderson Offered Match.

Bud Anderson, the Vancouver, Wash., lightweight, probably will be matched with Capt. d'Alene in a few days. Anderson's manager, Dick Donald, last night received a letter from Fritz Holland, matchmaker of the Idaho Club, offering Anderson the bout. The Washington lad will accept if the fight can be arranged for a date in the near future.

Baker Still Hitting Bull.

GALVESTON, Tex., March 22.—The Philadelphia Americans today defeated the Galveston Texans, 12 to 5. Baker upheld his reputation by sending the ball over the right-field fence in the fifth inning, with two men on base. Home runs also were made by Murphy and Barry.

Valuable Dog Poisoned.

SALEM, Or., March 22.—(Special.)—"Lady" Pointer, that took the big honors at the Seattle bench show and was valued at $200 by her master, Stanley Ryder, died today through the efforts of a dog poisoner.

Revolver Shoot Postponed.

The regular weekly shoot of the Beaver Revolver Club has been postponed until next Thursday. All the shoots will be held at the home of H. B. Burrows, 581 East Ninth street.

BERG WINS MATCH

Zbyszko Fails to Get Two Falls in Hour.

STRUGGLE EXCITES CROWD

Spokane Grappler Puts Up Great Contest and Is Downed Once in 27 Minutes but Manages to Stave Off Defeat.

John Berg, premier light heavyweight wrestler of the West and candidate for the world's title, defeated Stanislaus Zbyszko, the giant Pole, before a crowd of nearly 2000 people at Oregon Hall last night. Zbyszko secured the first fall in the handicap match in 37 minutes and five seconds on a punishing toe hold, but failed to place Berg's shoulders to the mat for the second time within an hour, as per agreement.

"Stronger than Gutch and as good a man as the world's champion I met four years ago," was Berg's tribute to Zbyszko following the match.

"One of the best men I have met on my trip, and a credit to the Northwest," answered Zbyszko, explaining to the crowd that he had tried honestly to win the match but Berg's cleverness and strength proved too much for the hand-icap feat.

The last 10 minutes of the bout was the most exciting seen in Portland in years. The surprisingly large crowd, considering the rival attraction at Multnomah Club, rose to its feet as Berg successfully staved off the terrific onslaught of his opponent, 55 pounds heavier, and cheered for the lighter man announced the passing of the minutes and, finally, the half minutes, which counted Berg to victory.

Berg could not possibly have lasted more than a minute longer, Zbyszko having a crotch and arm lock which surely Berg's shoulders within two minutes. Berg was rejected slowly but placed Berg's shoulders within two minutes. Berg was rejected slowly but placed Berg's shoulders within two minutes.

Realizing with 10 minutes yet to go that he stood a good chance of staying the limit, Berg worked hard to stay away from the Pole. He crawled to the edge of the mat on several occasions, a thing he disdained to do in the early periods, wriggled out of prospective toe clutches, and just managed to last.

Hogan's Star Southpaws Mercy Toy With Los Angeles Lads.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 22.—(Special.)—Hogan's star southpaws Hitt and Gray toyed with the Firemen's team today and the score of 3 to 5 does not show the real superiority of the Coast League, for the amateurs were permitted to skip wild around the bases on occasions.

Hitt let the fire fighters get one in the first inning and they scored two runs with the aid of Hosp's error. Gray also loomed up in the eighth. The Tigers showed brilliant work and in the sixth by a succession of doubles with a couple of bases on balls, sewed up the game with three runs. The firemen made the remarkable record of 23 assists in the eight innings the Tigers were at bat.
