Chinese Missionary Speaks at Centerary.— Rev. James Noave, who for 18 years was a Methodist missionary in China and pastor of the Methodist Church at Chengta, China, occupied the pulpit of Centenary Methodist Church last night and told about conditions in China as a republic. His subject was "The New China." He reviewed the situation under the republican form of government and predicted a great future for the nation as a republic. Rev. Mr. Neave was near the center of the revolution, as Chengtu is a place of importance, around which many of the military activities were enacted. He contended that the republic will become permanent, and China, with its millions of people, will become one of the great powers of the BOYS CAUGHT IN DEN

Dan J. Malarkoy, at-torney for Hicks, said yesterday that he intends to open the defense with evidence showing the methods of the union men in conducting the strike. "I have not decided yet who will be called to the stand first," said Mr. Malarkey. "It will be my purpose, first of all, to show that Mr. Hicks had cause to fear the pickets because of cause to fear the pickets because of their actions. It will be shown that Hicks was bounded, threatened and abused until he was in a state of con-stant fear and that he was really jug-tified in what he did, under the circumstances.

"We have a large amount of evidence te introduce, but believe it can all be taken by the end of the week. It probably will be the first part of next week before the case goes to the jury, be-cause of the arguments and evidence which will be introduced in rebuttal.
