

LEWIS DEBENTURE PLAN PROFITABLE

Former Treasurer Declares Scheme Replenished Coffers of Concern.

MONEY IS SORELY NEEDED

Government Attorney Seeks to Show That Though Property Was Turned Over to Trust Company, It Really Was Not.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—Francis V. Putnam, former treasurer of the Lewis Publishing Company, was again called to the witness stand today in the trial of E. G. Lewis, president of the company, on a charge of fraudulent use of the mails in promoting his enterprises.

Putnam testified he and Lewis discussed suspending the company's business shortly before an advertisement entitled "The Solution" offering an issue of debenture notes, was printed in the Woman's National Daily.

"Notes were falling due and there was no money to pay," Putnam said.

Then the debenture scheme was devised and advertised and $225,000 in cash and enough securities to bring the total up to $1,500,000 came in.

Cash Is Used Up.

He said that $100,000 worth of secured 6 per cent notes which came in were placed with the People's Savings Trust Company but were removed and exchanged for unsecured notes at Lewis' suggestion. The cash, he said, was used for running expenses and to meet obligations.

Asserting that he wished to show that E. G. Lewis retained complete control of the stock in his various enterprises while at the same time advertising that he was putting these stocks in trust for purchasers of builders' fund debentures under a trust agreement between Lewis and the People's Savings Trust Company, District Attorney House today read the trust agreement.

Lewis Controlled All.

The trust company, it was set forth, gave Lewis the right to vote his stock or to represent it in any other way. Each and all shares of stock were reserved specifically to Lewis, the trust company merely acting as registrar.

The trust company waived every right to administer the stock and Lewis was left free to appoint another agent in place of the trust company whenever he saw fit.

situation was given impetus here yesterday with the formal announcement of John T. Morrison, of this city, as a Republican candidate for Governor, subject to the will of the Republican primaries.

Mr. Morrison declares himself as in favor of economy in the management of state affairs and promises that if nominated and elected he will demand this economy and work for a greater development of Idaho. Mr. Morrison was Governor from 1902 to 1904. He is the second Republican gubernatorial candidate from Boise to announce his candidacy, the first being John M. Haines, ex-Mayor of Boise. He is the fifth Republican to publicly announce his aspiration to be Governor. With five in the race now and the prospect of at least two and probably three more candidates entering, the Governorship is very much in doubt.

A boom for M. E. Lewis, of Moscow, ex-president of the University of Idaho, was launched a few days ago. Judge Steel, of Grangeville, is also strongly spoken of as the sixth candidate. The south may launch the candidacy of Senator Fred E. Gooding for Governor.

KLAMATH WOMEN SAY "NO"

Negative in Suffrage Question Debate in Club Is Victor.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—An animated and argumentative discussion concerning the woman suffrage question was indulged in by the Woman's Library Club in this city in their rooms Sunday.

Women met for an afternoon tea and for the purpose of discussion of the coming issue in Oregon, in which they are vitally interested. The sides were chosen for and against the question, in which Mrs. Cogswell and Mrs. Stearns took the affirmative side and Mrs. Emma Taylor and Mrs. Maude Ringo took the negative. The speakers for both sides expressed themselves strongly concerning the merits of woman suffrage and the discussion aroused much sentiment among those present.

As a final outcome of the argument a straw vote taken for the purpose of ascertaining the opinion of those present and the result stood 7 to 4 in favor of the negative. It was reported that so heated and interesting was the discussion that all were oblivious of the fact that the water which had been placed on the stove for the purpose of making the tea was entirely forgotten and allowed to get cold. Consequently there was no afternoon tea and many were of the opinion that politics and tea were not made together anyway.

SLAYER OF 4 HANGED

HEZ RASCO PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE ON SCAFFOLD.

Man Captured Through Odd Impromptu Made by His Shoe Pays Life for Killing of Hubbells.

MARYVILLE, Mo., March 26.—Hez Rasco, murderer of the Hubbell family of four, was hanged in the yard of the county jail here this morning. Rasco protested his innocence on the scaffold, and recited the Twenty-third Psalm.

The crime for which Rasco was hanged was the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Oda Hubbell and their two small children at their home near Guilo, Mo., on the night of November 29, 1910, and the firing of the house to cover the murders. Bloodhounds, taking the scent at the scene of the crime, followed a trail to Rasco's room in his father's home, and halted, baying at a closet in which was found a blood-stained pair of his overalls.

Rasco was spirited to North Joseph to prevent a lynching. An oddly-shaped print of a shoe-heel found near the Hubbell home was seen to correspond with the heel of a pair of shoes belonging to Rasco. The motive assigned by the state was Rasco's desire to recover money won from him by Hubbell in a poker game. He was convicted on circumstantial evidence alone, his alibi having been torn to pieces by introduction in court of a strange hunter whom he accused. The Supreme Court upheld the conviction, the bloodhound evidence being the principal point at issue.

Rasco, when 18 years old, was convicted of killing a woman with a stone, and served ten years. He confessed. Later he stole a horse and served two years.

DR. BURKE LOSES APPEAL

Sanitarium Proprietor Must Serve Seven Years in Prison.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—(Special.)—Dr. Willard Burke, convicted of having attempted to kill Lu Rita Smith and her little baby with dynamite at his sanitarium near Santa Rosa, will have to serve his seven-year sentence at San Quentin.

The Supreme Court this afternoon sustained the sentence of the lower court after conducting a rehearing into the case.

This decision destroys the last hope of the convicted man. Attorneys for Dr. Burke appealed the sentence of the lower court and took the case to the District Court of Appeals. This court sustained the decision of the lower court. The case was then taken to the Supreme Court for a rehearing.

CLUB TO HAVE BUFFET
Wets Down Opponents in New Tacoma Commercial Club.

TACOMA, Wash., March 26.—(Special.)—The "wets" won by a majority of 14 in the campaign as to whether the Commercial Club should have a buffet in its new clubrooms in the ten-story Commercial Club building just being completed. The total vote was 207 for the buffet and 293 against it.

The election took place yesterday, only members whose dues were paid being allowed to vote.

The result was announced today. There has been a rather lively campaign on between members of the club as to whether the buffet should be permitted and some hard feeling existed. It was decided to leave the matter to the membership and a spirited campaign between the "wets" and "dry" ended in a clean-cut victory for the former.
