Dr. G. F. Laddix and G. F. Downer showed a number of dogs which Dr. Henry Jarrett, the judge, declared were among the best he had seen in the country. He has judged at the New York and Philadelphia shows.

Champion Dundee Swasher took high honors in the heavyweight bulldog division, with Rodney Merley, owned by McCarthy and West, second. LEWISTON, Idaho, April 4.—(Special.)—According to the oldest politicians in Nez Perce, one of the pioneer localities of the state, sharply drawn political lines in county politics have been totally wiped out by the prohibition movement which has swept over this state during the past two years. At a recent meeting of the well organized dry forces, it was decided that in the forthcoming election and primaries, candidates would be indorsed by them irrespective of party but upon the stand they assume regarding the local option question. Politicians say that the struggle for supremacy in the local fight will resolve itself into a contest far bitter than has been witnessed in North Idaho since pioneer days. second.
