RECORD OF CANDIDATES NOW TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Investigating Committee Also to Determine Desirability of Men for Office.

Through the agency of the Efficiency Government League, there has been mailed to every candidate for state, district or county office a list of questions to be answered at his pleasure, touching on his qualifications for the office he seeks. The membership of the league embraces the Christian Endeavors societies, the Epworth League, Raptist Young People's Union, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., the Brotherhoods of several churches here and various other religious organizations.

"The purpose of the league," said one of its officers last night, "is to look into the record of each of the candidates for nomination from a nonpartisan standpoint and report to the various organizations which it represents so that they may determine which candidates would represent them best in promoting the interests of good government and high."

Among the questions to which answers are requested by the league are the following:

De you believe in the strict enforcement of a high standard of morals? A liberal standard of morals? A liberal standard of morals with strict regulation, or an open town? If you are a candidate for State's Attorney or Sheriff, and elected, will you use your untiring seforts to suppress vice of all forms, including sambling, prostitution, grafting, white slavery, violation of the liquor laws and especially prosecute the readhouse nuisance? Are you connected in any way, directly or indirectly, with the liquor business? If no, state connection. Are you in any manner obligated to the liquor business? If no, state connection. Are you in any manner obligated to the liquor interests, directly or indirectly, in any property used as a saloon or other liquor house on a public dance half? What interests, if any, are back of your candidacy? Have you ever been convicted or indirectly for the violation of any law? Do you pay or provide for your debts and obligation to any special interest, business or trade? If so, state the interest, business or trade? If so, state the interest, business or trade to which you are obligated. Do you helieve in the strict enforcement of the same as seems to meet with popular favor? What is your ciew as to the method of handling the social evil?
