BOYS TAKE LAUNCH TRIPS

Summer Open Air Activities Are Begun by Y. M. C. A. Juniors.
Spring activities have been taken up by the boys' department of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association. A summer schedule of launch trips has been worked out for the boys' clubs and these trips are now taken each evening of the week, except Sunday. Short Bible study meetings and games are held at suitable places along the river.
In addition to these daily trips, several longer excursions will be taken later in the season. The first of these will be from June 24 to July 4, when camp will be pitched near Horsetail Falls and side trips taken to points of interest along the Columbia.
J. W. Palmer, boys' secretary, is planning many interesting features for the Summer work. Arrangements will be made for regular gymnasium classes and an effort will be made to enroll large numbers of public school boys for Summer memberships.

WOMAN PLACED ON STAND

W. P. Lord, Jr., Accused of Breach of Promise to Marry.
SALEM, Or., April 9.—(Special.)—Taking of testimony started yesterday in the action brought by Mrs. Lillian Smith of Portland, against William P. Lord, Jr. Mrs. Smith is asking for $25,000 damages for an alleged breach of promise to marry.
The defendant is the son of ex-Governor Lord. Mrs. Smith occupied the stand most of the afternoon following the impaneling of the jury, and told of her alleged relations with the defendant and had introduced into the evidence several letters purporting to be from the defendant.
Mrs. Smith was formerly a resident of Salem, where she was employed in the Royal Cafeteria.
The commercial and industrial interests of the west coast of South America are expecting great things following the completion of the Panama Canal and are actively setting ready for the event.

DR. HOMAN SPEAKS TODAY

Address Will Be Second in Series Arranged by Y. M. C. A.
Dr. Fletcher Homan, president of Willamette University, will deliver an address at 8:30 o'clock this evening in the auditorium of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association. Dr. Homan's subject will be "Christianity through the Church."
This is second in a series of four addresses arranged by the religious work department of the Y. M. C. A. The speeches are being given on Wednesday evenings, and are open to all members. Those attending meet for supper at 6:30, and adjournment is promptly at 7:30 o'clock. Dr. Homan will be followed on April 17 by Rev. Henry Marcotte, and on April 24 by Dr. John H. Boyd.

J. W. Thomas Dies at Oswego

OSWEGO, Or., April 9.—(Special.)—J. W. Thomas, of Oswego, died yesterday, aged 78. The funeral will be held at 2 P. M. April 11, in the Oddfellows' Hall, under the auspices of that order. Burial will be at the Oswego cemetery. Mr. Thomas has been a resident of Oswego for 20 years, having held the office of Mayor. He is survived by a widow and a son and daughter, George E. Thomas and Mrs. E. P. Clay, all residents of Oswego.

Apes do not count further than four, and the Boers of the Transvaal when they want to hunt these animals, hide in numbers exceeding four. Four apart in succession in such a manner as to be noticed by the apes when they come forth and are easily captured.
