STUFFED" MENAGERIE WON'T BE LENT. -"It will never do for the city to begin lending its stuffed menagerie," declared Councilman Menefee, when a request was read before the ways and means committee yesterday, in which the Hotel Portland asked for the loan of the stuffed elk in the city museum for use in its decoration scheme during the Elks' convention next Summer. "If we start anything like that," he continued, "it won't be many months until our municipal collection of stuffed jackrabbits, and bears and rattlesnakes will be scattered about at every home and fireside in the city. Besides, there may be a few visitors drop up to the City Hall during the Elke' convention. I move the request be denied." The committee was unanimous in its agree-ment and the municipal "stuffed menagerie" will remain intact.

SLOVER ASKS SPECIAL FUND.—Police Chief Slover communicated yesterday with the ways and means committee, asking that an ordinance be prepared providing for an emergency appropriation of $250 monthly for his department, for use in collecting evidence for the prosecution of those conducting undesirable resorts in the city. He stated that the fines from arrests of this nature would amount to approximately $1250 a month, and the city would accordingly be amply reimbursed. Mr. Slover will be asked to appear before the committee at its next meeting and go into the matter in detail. Lack of such ready funds as might be afforded by such an emergency appropriation. by such an emergency appropriation had, he said, proved a drawback in the efforts to secure evidence necessary for the conviction of the class of lawbreak-ers against whom he was preparing to direct his efforts.
