ROOSEVELT FEARS · LOSS IN ILLINOIS

Many of Delegates Will Be Taft Men at Heart, Colonel's Managers Hear.

SECOND FIGHT NECESSARY

Party Leaders Who Want to Send Colonel Chauncey Dewey to Convention Meet Rebuff and Put War Paint On.

CHICAGO. April if.—(Special.)— Friends of Theodore Roosevelt in Illi-nois are showing some alarm today lest they be cut out of the victory they won in this state in the primaries on Tuesday of last week. They are clothing themselves in habiliments of war in anticipation of another conflict at the Congressional district conventions to-morrow and the state convention at the Congressional conventions. The delegates elected by these conventions probably will support Roosevelt, but it is said they will be Taft men at heart and that is what is worrying the Roosevelt Republicans.

While Colonel Roosevelt won an in-dorsement from Republicans at the primaries, the supporters of President Taft elected a majority of the precinct committeemen who select delegates to the Congressional conventions. The the Congressional conventions.

Some leaders in the party who believe that Colonel Chauncey Dewey, because of his early and consistent advocacy of Roosevelt's nomination, is entitled to recognition and have asked that he he sent to the National conthat he be sent to the National con-vention as one of the eight delegates-at-large from Illinois, but it is said hat they were informed that could not be done, as Chicago's share of the "big eight" had been disposed of to others. Similar reports come from other districts and the Roosevelt supporters say they will have to make another contest to maintain the victory won last week.

NEW ORLEANS, April 17.-The general elections in Louisiana yesterday resulted in the entire Democratic state ticket, headed by Judge Luther Hall, of Monroe, being elected. An exceptionally small vote was polici.

Democrats Elected in Louisiana.

SCHOOL FAIR ATTRACTS

O'Reilly's Home Credit Plan to Be Topic of Discussion.

SALEM, Or., April 17 .- (Special.) -The little school in Spring Valley, Polk County, will become almost of National prominence at its annual school fair, according to present indications, as it is predicted that leading educators of the East will attend to see the results the East will attend to see the results of A. I. O'Reilly's home credit plan.

Mr. O'Reilly's home credit plan.

Mr. O'Reilly is principal of the school and the system of giving pupils credit for work done at home has been the cause of hundreds of inquiries from all over the United States.

The school fair and picnic will be held June I. Governor West and Superintendent Ackerman will speak and a large list of prizes will be given for work of the children. All of the children, it is planned, will wear dresses that they made themselves and the luncheon that will be provided will be luncheon that will be provided will be the product of the children's own work

DOUBLE DEFENSE OUTLINED

Insanity and 'Accident Pleaded by Miss Viola Carver.

LOS ANGELES, April 17 -- Insanity and accidental shooting will jointly comprise the defense of Miss Viola Carver, the Tacoma girl charged with the murder of J. Edwin Edge, a young realty dealer here, several weeks ago, according to the line of questioning taken by her attorneys at the beginning of her necliminary eventuation. ning of her preliminary examination

Three witnesses appeared for the state-Mrs. Hanna Edge, mother of the man killed; Coroner Hartwell and the autopsy surgeon, Dr. G. W. Campbell. The testimony disclosed no new facts. The girl's father, John E. Carver, was the first wigness called by the defense and he was followed by others, who testified to Miss Carver's demeanor testified to Miss Carver's demeanor prior to the shooting. The case was continued until tomorrow morning.

PENNIES WILL PAY DEBT

the home here of the Daughters, was suggested by Mrs. Willard T. Block of Illinois, and adopted. Each of the more than 70,000 members is to be urged to lay aside a penny a day for a year, the result to be announced next year.

HOP APPEAL DISTRUSTED

Bourne's Latest Attempt to Secure Political Support Is Claim.

AURORA, Or., April 17 .- (Special.) Hopgrowers here pronounce the appeal sent out by the E. Clemens Horst Comsent out by the E. Clemens Horst Com-pany, hopgrowers, of San Francisco, as an eleventh-hour attempt to secure support for Jonathan Bourne for Sena-tor. They declare that the alleged labors of Bourne in behalf of the hop-growers are simply imaginary and that the fight for the American market is a delusion; that foreign hops do not and cannot compete, to any great extent, with Coast hops. The Clemens Horst appeal will fall on deaf ears hers, as Bourne is out of

"FIGHTING BOB" ELECTED

Girls in Mock Election at O. A. C. Give La Follette Majority Vote.

DREGON AGRICULTURAL COL-Leigh. Corvallis, April 17.—(Special.)

A militant band of college suf-fragettes took a hand in the election of delegates for the mock nonpartisan Adv.)

National convention today at the last minute, and, by veting solid for La Follette, turned the Wisconsin's Sens-tor's threatened defeat into glorious wictory.

With the aid of the feminine votes the La Follette forces were able to secure 120 % delegates out of the 256 elected. The girls, in battle array, appeared on the scene at noon, during the drill hour, and, displaying unique banners, marched about the campus to the music of the cadet band and the accompaniment of their own dishpan from corps. The demonstration was accompaniment of their own dishpan drum corps. The demonstration was effective and when the parade, more than 100 strong, swept down upon the polls with their combination "La Follette-suffragrette" war cry, the victory was conceded to "Fighting Bob." Theodore Roosevelt, his closest competitor, secured 10515 delegates. Taft will be supported on the first ballot by nine delegates, five were instructed to vote for Governor Wilson, of New Jersey, and two will ride the water wagon with Chapin.

As soon as the returns of the elec-

As soon as the returns of the elec-ion had been announced a meeting of the National central committee was called and after reconsiduration it was decided that a two-thirds vote will be

STEAD IS FORGIVEN

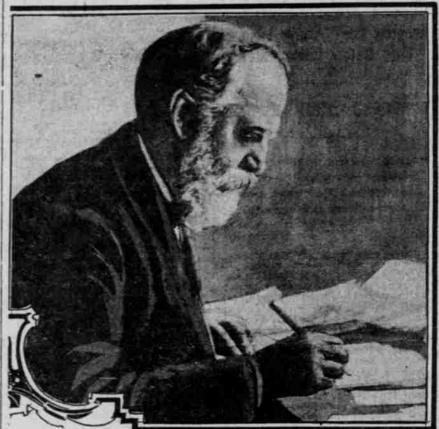

Britain Mourns Editor It Has Grilled in Bygone Days.

BRAVERY IS RECOGNIZED

Brilliant Journalist and Reformer Who Sided With Boers Now Estimated With Admiration by Countrymen

The day's campaign was closed with a big rally in the evening. A parade of a big rally in the evening. A parade of terest in London is centered more deeply on William T. Stead than on any band, marched from College Hill and other passenger on the Titanic. It is possession of the business district. Stump speakers for La Follette delivered orations pleading his cause.

FAMOUS BRITISH EDITOR, WHOSE LAMPOONINGS ARE FOR-GOTTEN WHEN NEWS COMES HE IS AMONG TITANIC'S VICTIMS.

WILLIAM T. STEAD.

OTHER LINERS REPORT BEING IN MIDST OF BERGS.

President Lincoln's Captain Tells of Experience Like That in Polar Seas.

NEW YORK, April 17.- The steambip President Lincoln, of the Hamburg-American Line, which arrived today from Hamburg, reported that on April 12 she entered a large field of ice, dotted in all directions with large and small icebergs. Captain Magin said it was easy to imagine that the ship was in the midst of a polar country covered with nothing but ice and snow, rather than on the Atlantic Ocean.

The center of the field, Captain Ma-The center of the field, Captain Magin said, was in latitude 41:55 north and longitude 50:14 west, which is close to the point where the Titanic struck an iceberg two days later. The Titanic's graveyard is in latitude 41:16 north and longitude 50:14 west.

The steamer St. Laurent, from Bordeaux, reported the same ice field while Captain Wood, of the steamer Etonian, which arrived tonight from Antwerp, reported that on April 12 he encountered a field of ice 150 miles in verp, reported that on April 12 be untered a field of ice 180 miles in length.

STOCKINGS AID SUICIDE

Patient at Salem Asylum Makes Noose From Hosiery.

Plan to Pay Off $170,000.

WASHINGTON. April 17.—The important business today before the Daughters of the American Revolution in annual session here was the election of 10 vice-presidents-general to serve two years Neminations were made at the morning session.

A plan for wiping out the debt of $170,000 on Continental Memorial Hall, the home here of the Daughters, was woman had arranged the stockings to the window and hauled the table to same. She put the rope about her neck apparently and jumped clear of the table.

The asylum employes are exonerated from the blame by Coroner Clough. The woman is said to have been weak-minded from youth, when her mother had taken care of her until she was sent to the asylum on account of the age of the mother. She is said to have been a good patient. A brother and the mother live here, and another brother in Polk County.

TITLE TO LAKES SOUGHT

Governor Preparing Bill Affecting Three Bodies of Water.

SALEM, Or., April 17.—(Special.)—A bill which is now being prepared by Governor West and members of the State Board to be forwarded to United States Senator Chamberlain in Congress will provide for a clear title to Summer, Abert and Warner lakes, in Lake County. Summer and Abert lakes are subject to a tentative contract with C. M. Sain for the development of saits and phosphates.

Warner Lake is the prospective source for a large irrigation project. It is plauned to drain Warner Lake and use its bed for development of rich agricultural lands. There is now some doubt as to the state's title to all three of these takes, which doubt is the ob-ject of the bill to clear away.

Roosevelt leads; others follow. (Paid assumed that the brilliant journalist and indefatigable reformer is dead and and indefatigable retormer is dead and the assumption causes widespread grief. Even his enemies have forgot-ten their enmity and speak of the vet-eran admirinally and tenderly. "We are convinced," they say, "that in some respects he was a humbug, but after all he was a gifted and fearless man.

"One of Mr. Stead's chief faculties was getting himself swindled. Two days before he left London the correspondent saw him walking on the Strand, wearing a dark suit, an overcoat and a felt hat and carrying a crumpled black bag. Close to his side shuffled a dispersuable-looking man, pouring a tale of woe into the editor's ear. Mr. Stead's face was grave and he was looking straight about 18 stormed at

It is said he never turned anybody away unaided. All sorts of people went to his office for counsel, the foretalked with him freely and esteemed his ideas even after he almost got himself murdered and greatly damaged his business by siding with the Boers against the British. Those who knew him best loved him most.

CREDIT MEN IN SESSION

Judge Morrow Cites Violation of Law Regarding Doors.

Members of the Portland Association of Credit Men, at their meeting last night in the Commercial Club, heard an address from Judge Robert G. Mor-row on "Progressive Changes in the Law." Other speakers were Raiph W. Law." Other speakers were Raiph W. Hoyt and Dr. Emmet Drake, president and secretary respectively of the Rose Festival Association—both of whom spoke on the subject nearest their hearts. In addition, E. M. Underwood, chairman of the fire insurance com-mittee, addressed the meeting in ref-erence to fire martial law and also in regard to the interest aroused locally in connection with the cleaning up of the streets.

Judge Morrow called attention to the fact that in several of the buildings here doors are not made to swing out wards as well as inwards and remark-ing that the majority of rooming-houses had doors which opened in-houses had doors which opened in-wards only. This he said was a direct violation of the law.

A committee was named to work for a state taw providing for the settle-ment of commercial disputes cutside the courts along the lines of the state law of New York. F. L. Shull, secretary of the Portland Flouring Mills, was appointed chairman

It was decided to send two delegates to the National Convention of Credit Men to be held in Boston, June 18 to 21. President W. J. Henderson and Secretary C. R. Miller were chosen delegates.

CROOK SHOWS GROWTH

Registration Figures Indicate 3 Per Cent Gain in Two Years.

PRINEVILLE, Or. April 17.—(Special.)—The completed registration figures for Crook County show a marvelous growth in Central Gregon during the last year and a half. The increase in registration since 1910 has been 625, or about 14 per cent. The total registration this year was 2425, as against 1800 last year.

Prineville shows the largest registra-

Princyllic shows the largest registration, or a total of 288, while Bend is second, with a registration of 204. The total Republican registration was 1546, or a gain in a year and a haif of 492.
The Democratic registration is 688, a gain of 175. The Socialist has a total of 112, and shows a gain of 27. The Prohibitionists have 24 voters and a total of 20, 50 who registered refusing to give their party affiliation or giving it as independent.

Attention, Republicans! Taft would be defeated in November, so why waste your vote? Roosevelt is your man. (Paid Adv.)

Industry-not tin soldiery. Geo. Shepherd for Congress. (Paid Advt.)

KING POWDER Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

ASTOR TO BEGIN SEARCH

THOUSAND . TON STEAMSHIP CHARTERED FOR SEARCH.

Young Man Now Presumably Head of Family to Divide $100,000,-000 With Stepmother.

CHICAGO, April 17 .- (Special.)-If Colonel John Jacob Astor went to his death in the wreck of the Titanic, the American head of the family will be William Vincent Astor, a student at Harvard, who has not yet reached his majority. The young man probably will divide with Mrs. John Jacob Astor a fortune estimated at $100,000,000.

news of the sinking of the Titanic for time prostrated this young man, who will henceforth wield princely powers. He waited at the offices of the Astor estate until his physical powers gave way under the strain. Then he went to the Astor home, but his inaction did not last long. He made arrangements to charter a 1900-ton steamship equipped with fast engines and wireess apparatus to go in search of his

The ship is in command of Captain Farquhar, who rescued 40 persons from the wreck of the La Bourgoyne. Young Astor and his father have been "pais, They were almost inseparable during the days preceding the Colonel's second marriage, the son supporting the father with fine spirit. The divorce which separated Mrs. Ava Astor from r husband served to strengthen the tie between father and son.

F. M. WARREN, BIG LOSS

PORTLAND MAN, TITANIC'S VIC-TIM, VALUED PIONEER.

Banker and Merchant, Supposed to Have Gone Down in Disaster, in Enviable Station.

Frank M. Warren, who it is feared was one of the victims of the Titanic disaster, has long been one of Portland's foremost and most substantial citizens, although it is seldom that his lowking straight ahead. He stopped at hame has come before the public eye. Of the few real large and progressive men of the city he is one and recognized as such, building up his reputation with years of successful business connections.

Mr. Warren is not a native-born Oregonian, but to all intents and purposes he is, as, after being born in Ellsworth, Me. 64 years ago, he came to Oregon with his parents when 3 years old by way of the Panama route. Starting his business career early, he became a clerk in the Fortland office of Wells Fargo & Co. Express at the of Wells, Fargo & Co. Express at the age of 15, and while in his boyhood days became manager of the local office. His activity in the pursuit of business attracted the attention of W. S. Ladd and he became connected with ren's father's fish business became involved it was at Mr. Ladd's suggestion and support that he left the bank and and support that he left the bank and took charge of that business.

This was the actual beginning of Mr. Warren's business career and the fishing interests of the Columbia River and entire Pacific Coast bear testimony to his accomplishments. From the first he was a leader in the business and of him it is said by his competitors that he never made a mistake and every venture resulted with a balance on the credit side of the ledger. With his canneries and cold storage plants on the upper and lower Columbia and in Alaska he accumulated a large fortune, it being largely en-bia and in Alaska he accumulated a large fortune, it being largely enhanced by judicious real estate investments and being connected with a number of commercial enterprises. Early in life Mr. Warren married Miss Anna S. Atkinson, daughter of Rev. George S. Atkinson, a pioneer missionary of Oregon. Four children are living, two sons and two daughrill divide with Mrs. John Jacob Asor a fortune estimated at $100,000,000.

The shock and sorrow caused by the lews of the sinking of the Titanic for time prostrated this young man, who will henceforth wield princely powers.

The witted of the offices of the Astor The State of the State of the Astor The State of the State of the State of the Astor The State of the State est personal friends, spoke of Mr. War-ren as follows: "When I learned of the awful disaster and that there was little hope for the safety of Mr. War-ren it was impossible for me not to weep. He was one of the first men I weep. He was one of the first ment met upon reaching Portland in 1877, and from that day we have been the closest of personal friends. We have been connected in business affairs and investments and no man could be fairer or more religiously honest, both in deed and thought. He is a typical clean man of the highest type. His death would be a loss to Portiand that can only be appreciated by those who knew how he had striven for its advancement and satisfied with its sucvancement and satisfied with its suc-

BLUE LAW ADVOCATE OUT Liberal Platform Appeals to Voters

at Tacoma.

TACOMA, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)

—The city election yesterday was signalized by the defeat of Commissioner F. H. Pettit, present Commissioner of Public Safety by A. U. Mills, who run on a more liberal platform. Pettit has been an advocate of the blue Pettit has been an advocate of the file laws and enforced them when possible. Mills defeated him by a safe majority, the vote being 9502 to 7236. Nicholas Lawson, ex-Commissioner of Light and Water, recalled a year ago, was returned over Hamilton F. Gronen, a former employe appointed to office a former employe appointed to office after the resignation of Ben. J. Weeks, who superseded Lawson at the recall election a year ago. Lawson polled $293 votes and Gronen, 7747.

Owen Woods, Commissioner of Public Works, was elected by the heaviest vote of the day, 10,131. A. H. Barth (Soc.) ran a poor fourth, polling 5542 votes.

The vote cast was comparatively light, 5000 of the registration. The main fight was between Pettit and main hight was and Lawson. The latter was elected to a short term of two years, while Woods and Mills were elected for four years. Newly-elected Commissioners will take office May 1

Kelso Starts "Blue" Law Campaign.

KELSO, Wash., April 17 .- (Special.) At a meeting of the City Council last night an ordinance was passed closing picture houses, pool halls, business attracted the attention of W.

S. Ladd and he became connected with the Ladd & Tilton Bank as a teller. He was advanced rapidly until he held one of the most important positions in the bank, and when in 1876 Mr. War-

(Paid advertisement.)

VOTE COUNTY COMMISSIONER

107 x JOSEPH T. ELLIS

Dr. Sam C. Slocum

CANDIDATE FOR REPUBLICAN NOMINATION FOR

Coroner

INDORSED BY THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

We, the undersigned duly licensed We, the undersigned duly licensed and qualified physicians and surgeons of the City of Portland, Oregon, and the County of Multnomah, believing that the Coroner should be a physician, and having known Dr. Sam C. Stocum for the past several years, and knowing him to be thoroughly competent to perform the duties of said office, heartily recommend him for that office.

Andrew C. Smith Ben L. Nord

K. A. J. Mackenzie E. A. Somer Geo. F. Wilson Holt C. Wilson R. C. Coffey
L. H. Hamilton
C. D. Bodine
Geo. F. Kochler
A. J. Gissy
Chester C. Moore
S. M. Strohecker
R. S. Stearns
F. M. Taylor
Fred J. Ziegler
Frank H. Wood
Donald H. Jessup
M. G. McCorkle
Marie D. Equil
K. J. Manion
R. E. Dunlap
Jos. D. Sternberg
Wm. House
L. Buck
Alan Welch Smith
J. Chris. O'Day R. C. Coffey Alan Welch Smitt
J. Chris. O'Day
E. B. McDaniels
Roy McDaniels
Roy McDaniels
Paul Rockey
Wm. S. Knox
Theo. Fessler
W. R. Coffman
J. Lorne Manion
C. P. Murbach
C. G. Sabin
Geo. S. Whiteside
P. M. Brooks
G. Norman Pease
J. E. Kane
E. E. Cable

Ben L. Norden Jas. C. Zan E. H. Thornton

E. H. Thornton
S. H. Sheidon
Fred Gullette
F. C. Humphrey
I. G. Grim
J. J. Panton
Otis F. Akin
Sanford Whiting
James O. C. Wiley
D. Breuer
A. W. Balrd
Glenn Wheeler
J. N. Coghlan
Fred W. Kiehle
J. A. Pettit
George Parrish
Ralph A. Fenton
R. J. Chipman
Harry A. Start
Llöyd Irvine
J. A. Applewhite
O. A. Thornton
D. H. Rand
T. W. Kirby
E. H. Anthony T. W. Kirby
E. H. Anthony
J. H. Carrico
J. M. Short
J. K. Locke
R. W. Matson
O. A. Hess
P. F. McMurdo
J. Arch Stewar P. F. McMurdo
J. Arch Stewart
A. K. Higgs
E. N. Crockett
A. L. Berkeley
Charles L. Rybke
A. C. Panton
T. Chamberlain
James F. Bell
(Paid Advertisement.) George L. Story
J. M. Montgomery
A. E. Mackay
S. M. Gellert
Wm. A. Trimble
R. L. Gillespie
C. M. Barbee
W. W. Bruce
stanley Lamb
David Nelson
Jas. H. Bristow
H. L. Keeney
Wm. B. Hare
r. A. Short
S. M. Mann
h. M. Greene
Murch Russell
J. B. Bilderback
S. Sargenutich
C. L. Poley
A. N. Craddock
F. H. Dammasch
George Ainstie
C. A. Macrum
L. J. Wolf
W. C. Judd
J. A. Merriman
A. B. Stone
Ino, J. Sellwood
Jos S. McChesney
A. E. King
G. T. Trommatd
A. H. Johnson
C. H. Donglas
G. H. Donglas
G. H. Donglas
G. H. Donglas
G. H. Donglas A. H. Johnson
Clayton Seaman
G. H. Douglas
R. C. Yenney
W. M. Killingsworth
C. H. Wheeler Noble Wiley Jones

Wm. L. Wood

George L. Story

R. J. Marsh

tion. Mayor Lysons has 10 days in use his veto power in which case there which to sign the ordinance and make it a law. As he has declared himself for an open town, it is expected he will it over his head.

Three Day Specials at the House of Coats

MEN'S AND LADIES' TAN AND GRAY RUBBER SLIP-ONS, a splendid knockabout coat for Spring and Summer wear at $2.75

AND WOMEN in all leading shades, ragian and straight sleeves, collars in military or combination. Specially priced at $14.50 and

WASHINGTON 343

Store Open Saturday Evening Till 10 P. M.

Seeks Re-Election

To the Men of Portland-

Gentlemen: I have been selling you high-grade ready-to-wear clothes for nearly three years in an office building (rent $30.00 a month). My aim has been to give the man who has to count his dollars VALUE FOR MONEY; to give him more wool and better tailoring for his money than he would get at a high-rent store on the street. My practical experience for three years as an upstairs clothier enables me to render to the public intelligent and effective service. Your active support in re-electing me as Portland's most popular upstairs clothier will be appreciated. Yours very truly, JIMMY DUNN.

Room 315 Oregonian Building. Take elevator. (Paid Adv.)

The Eighth Reason For Eating Blue Ribbon Bread

It's fresh from the oven to you. No hands touch it-no air reaches it. Every loaf is wrapped in wax paper to guarantee you a dustproof, germ-proof loaf of bread. That's why is good at all times for all people. Taste its taste—it brings a smile of welcome to every member of the family—palatable, who lesome nourishing. It's that great big loaf—Clean and pure. To guarantee yourself satisfaction, specify "Blue Ribbon Bread" for your next loaf—

Blue Ribbon

Everybody will blow soap bubbles during soap bubble week. It will soon be here. Watch for it.

LOG CABIN BAKING CO. Vancouver Avenue and Fremont St. /

