HOQUIAM WRITER SCORES SOCIALISTS

Johnson Attacks Leaders of I. W. W. and Methods of Organization.

VICTOR BERGER DENOUNCED

Congresman Declared to Be Disapcintment - Public Libraries Are Full of Dream Books That Teach Nothing.

Hoquiam, Wash., April 17.—(Special.)—Every seat in the Hoquiam Theater was occupied tonight by those who desired to hear the debate between Fred Holmes, an officer of the Industrial Workers of the World, and Albert Johnson, editor of the Dally Washingtonian. Holmes undertook to prove that the L. W. W. is the only organization to represent labor in the industrial field, and that the L. W. W. is not an anarchistic organization, Mr. Johnson denied these statements, and launched at once into an effort to prove that socialism, anarchy, the L. W. W. and atheism were one and the same. He read the Socialist marriage ceremeny, the Socialist Sunday School the Socialist Sunday School orimer, and quoted Socialist hymns.

"Inasmuch," said Mr. Johnson, "as one of our Hoquiam Socialist citizens. O. C. Fenalson, was kicked out of the State Socialist Convention and out of the party because he wanted to display the stars and stripes in that conven-tion, it is quite proper that Hoquiam should show to all of its people, and as many others as will listen, that there is no place in the United States for socialism. In other words, no place for snarchy, free love, organized atheism or the I. W. W. materialism.

Secialism Fills Libraries.

Secialism Fills Libraries.

'I find that our public libraries are full of Secialistic dream books, starting nowhere and ending nowhere. I can't find in a library in the Northwest sny anti-Socialist books, such as 'Questions on Secialism and Their Answers,' by Kreas; 'The Superstition Called Socialism,' by C. W. de Tunxelman, and Fundamental Faliacies of Socialism, by Skelton. I call upon good citizens to get these books into the public libraries at once to offset the perfumed literature of Sparge and Hillquit, and the Socialist Bible.

"Their writings are saturated with the spirit of the marxian philosophy, which is a menace to religion and organized government everywhere. When Berger was elected to Congrass I, like thousands of other citizens, thought that his election would be a good thing for the Government; that we would have a good look at a Socialist in one of the high places in the gift of the American people. But little did i know that Victor Berger, in the Socialist Herald on July 31, 1895, think of it, less than four years ago, had published over his own signature the following vile sedition:

Berger Talks Revolution.

To is easy to predict that the safety and hope of this country will finally lie in one direction—that of a violent and bloody revolution. Therefore, I say, each of the 500,000 workingmen who instinctively incline our way, should, beside doing much reading and still more thinking, also have a good rifle and the necessary rounds of ammunition in his home and be prepared to back up his ballot with his bullets if Berger Talks Revolution. " back up his ballot with his bullets if

What do you think of that, while you are quarreling among yourselves politically, and letting here and there an anarchist slip into office in order that he may organize the machinery of this great free government against you? I charge that Berger, backed by the Socialist party, is maintaining a vile, revolutionary headquarters in his rooms in Congress. I charge that the Socialist party is paying for his clerks and engaged in sending perfumed anarchy, thinly disguised as revolution, into every hamlet of this great country.

Denunciation Under Cover. When the L. W. W. radical Socialist newspapers denounce Berger, they are working under cover. They don't mean it. It makes no difference to them whether a revolutionist recents and pretands to pray, or whether he runs around with a saucepan full of dynamite in his hand. Here in Hoquiam we can prove this. I am not permitted to go into personalities, but since the veracity of my newspaper has been questioned I have a right to call to your attention the fact that every minor agitator here has denied that he minor agitator here has denied that he has said anything against the glorious stars and stripes. They leave that for the hig leaders to say, and then they run around and peddie their propagands newspapers, which are full of it. "Read what Richard Perin says in the Socialist New York Call, February to this year:

10. this year:
"If I had been Samuel Gompers when was approached by the capitalists placing his foot on the American g. I would have answered: "Yes, I for placing his foot on the American hag, I would have answered: "Yes, I trampled on it, and more than that, I spit upon your flag, not mine. I loathe the stars and stripes, once the symbol of liberty for all, but now the stripes represent the bloody stripes left by your lash on the back of the worker. and the stars the builet and bayonet wounds in his breast. To hell with

Hoquiam Strike Near End. If that isn't the rankest kind of treason, then, in the name of God, what is? Think of that stuff being peddled around the streets of Hoquism, and no man with power to put the peddler

"The I. W. W. strike on Grays Harbor is broken. For three days the local leaders themselves have been sitting leaders themselves have been sitting over in Finnish Hall wanting to go back to the mills, but afraid of the black list. Why shouldn't they be black listed, every man of them? They black list my newspaper, and write me letters threatening assessination, and yet, according to their printed book of tactics, when defeated in a strike, they are told to lie, to cringe and to whimper, and to get back into the mills, where, at the mest favorable opportunity, they can pull the whistle and tunity, they can pull the whistle and start a new strike."

The chief objection to cosmetics is that at best they only temporarily cover up defects. There are certain true aids to Nature which may be applied with directly opposite effect. Ordinary mercelized wax, for instance, actually removes a bad or oldish complexion, by gradually, almost imperceptibly, peeling off the worn-out scarf skin. Just one cunce, procurable at any drug store, will soon unveil an entirely new and natural complexion, with an exquisite girlish color. Of course cutaneous blemishes like pimples, freckles, fine lines, moth patches, liver spots, disappear with the discarded skin.

KIDNAPERS ARE CAUGHT

AUTO FOLOWS TRIO TO CROOK COUNTY RANCH.

Mother of 4-Year-Old Boy Attempts to Reclaim Child Raised by Another Woman.

SHANIKO, Or., April 17 .- (Special.) After a 25-mile chase in an automobile, Barney Lowell and wife and Ernest Ward were arrested at Garrett's ranch, in Crook County, last Saturday evening for kidnaping little Jay Teel, the 4-year-old son of Mrs. Lowell, from Ida Ward, said to be the child's legal custodian. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell and Ernest Ward drove from Bend to Antelope. Arriving at Ida Ward's ranch about 3 P. M., Mrs. Lowell alighted from the buggy and, heavily veiled, went to the buggy and, heavily velled, went to the house. As soon as the door was opened she seized the child, who did not recognize her, and carried him to the waiting buggy.

Ernest Ward, who was mounted, continually kept riding between ida Ward and the kidnaping party, telling her that they were all armed.

Ward and the kidnaping party, telling her that they were all armed.

As soon as the party had left the ranch, ida Ward made her way to Antelope, where she enlisted the services of her brother, T. C. Ward, and other citizens, who were sworn in as deputy sheriffs by Justice D. V. Bolton. The officers followed the trail of the kidnapers to the Garrett ranch, where the arrest was made by Deputy T. C. Ward in a sitting-room adjoining the dining-room of the roadhouse, without resistance.

Mrs. Lowell at the time charged T. C. Ward, her uncle, with kidnaping her child, as the arrest was made in Crook County. The child is said to have showed its preference, however, by running to the automobile and saying that he "wanted to stay with his Uncle Chester."

After the recovery of the child, Ida.

another attempt to kidnap her son from the Ward ranch. At the time Ida Ward took the child to raise it was only 5 months old.

After keeping it a few months the baby was returned to its mother. Later Maud Teel brought her child to Miss Ward, who has cared for him ever since, and who later applied to Judge

Bradshaw for letters of adoption.

The suit was contested by the mother and a compromise is said to have been agreed to that the child should remain in the custody of his aunt. ROSEBURG, Or., April 11.—(Special.)
Laiding President Taft as the greatest progressive of the age and a leader in whom the voters could repose their utmost confidence and trust. Dr. John Wesley Hill. of New York, tonight addressed a large and appreciative audience in this city.

"President Taft is not a politician," said Dr. Hill. "but a man whose ability and forethought can be measured by the achievements of his Administration. The contemporaries of Abraham Lincoin did not see him while engaged in the difficult pursuits of his office. Tonight we see him, but are unable to appreciate the greatness of the man while he ls engaged in his work.

With Taft we cannot even appreciate the scaffolding of that great character. In him we see meckness without stupidity, patience without idleness, modesty without affectation, prodigality and statesmapship without advertising.

"We are democratic, we believe in the plain people for the simple reason

"We are democratic, we believe in the plain people for the simple reason that we believe in ourselves. Taft is a common man, lifted into great proportions, which are possible in the development of American politics. He is ready to hear the desires and grievances and hopes of the American people. His spirit permeates the entire executive department. The record of William Howard Taft is made up of such incidents as those in the simple life of Lincoln.

A number of intensely interesting incidents from the life of the President

"One reason is because be nominated. "One reason is occause one good turn deserves another, and a sense of common justice and of fair play is so ingrained in the character and nature of the American citizen that there is no question that President Taft will be nominated on the first ballot, and his present Administration vindi-cated by his return to the White Elfrida Heller Weinstein Heard in Final Recital at Multnomah.

Beautiful indeed was the singing of Eifrida Heller Weinstein in her farewell recital at the Multnomah Hotel Tuesday evening. Mrs. Weinstein, one of Pertland's most popular singers, will leave soon for Beyreuth to enter the career of an opera singer.

The recital was attended by a large number of musical people of the city. all of whom joined in praise of the artist's careful work, and in wishing her success in her new efforts,

The programme opened and closed with Wagnerian numbers, which gave excellent scope to Mrs. Weinstein's powers. The group of German songs war best liked and the singer was en-thusiastically recalled. She sang "Where Blossoms Grow." At the close of the programme, she added Mrs. Beach's "The Year's at the Spring."
Mrs. Weinstein was assisted by Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer and Jay Hutchison in the accompaniments, by Mrs.
Frankie Richet Walker, who accompanied her own song, and by Mrs.
