THRONGS AMAZED AT LINN PRODUCTS

Manufacturers' Exposition at Albany Shows Big Variety of Exhibits.

HOME PATRONAGE IS URGED

Speakers Point Out Benefits to Be. Had by Buying "Made-in-Orezon" Goods-Show Declared to Be Credit to Community.

ALBANY, Or., April 19,- (Special.)-Residents of Albany and Linn County thronged the auditorium of the Albany Armory last night and gased with admiration upon the exhibits of Linn County merchants and manufacturers, neatly arranged around the wulls and through the center of the big pavilion. Great surprise was manifested by the crowd at the variety and quality of goods "made in Albany and Linn

The display of goods is pronounced by visitors from Portland, Salem and other Willamette Valley cities to be a credit to the enterprise of Albany searchants and manufacturers, and, as a result of the exposition, which was an "eye-upener" even to Albany residents, it is believed that the people of his community will follow the this community will follow the stogan "Patronius home industry" mere than ever before, and that efforts will be made to secure more manufacturing plants for the "Hub City."

Portland Man Spenks. Charles Coopey, a manufacturing tailor of Portland and a former resident of Linn County, gave an address to the exposition visitors last night, and aroused the Albany residents to the many advantages and resources lying at their door, waiting only to be developed to make this city one of the leading manufacturing centers in Oregon.

Albany needs more manufacturing stants with large payrolls," said Mr. Coopey, "When you secure factories with substantial payrolls then your server becooper, When you secure factories with substantial payrolls then your city will begin to grow as never before, for this money will be circulated in your own town and will be used for your benefit—instead of leaving the county and state, as it now does, to help build up some other section of the country. More factories mean more payrolls, more employes, more population and greater prosperity, and if the people of Albany and Linn County will demand goods made in Oregon, they will contribute wondorfully to the upbuilding of the entire state, and Albany and Linn County in particular."

A. M. Holden, a soap manufacturer of Portland, a member of the Manufacturers. Association of Oregon, talked on "Oregon-made" goods, and titustrated the value of having manufactories with large payrolls. His address was enthusiastically received.

Co-operation Is Urged. A. M. Hammer, of the Albany Com-mercial Club and a merchant of this-ity, who has charge of the exposition here, told of the many opportunities and advantages of Albany as a manu-facturing center, and urged the people to co-operate with the Commercial Club and give their financial and moral support in securing more factories for

OF TREASURE, SLAIN

Jacob Evans. Coos Pioneer. Shot in House, Is Found by Neighbor.

VICTIM IS SECOND TO DIE

Fragedy Near Marshfield Occurs Where Gold Is Supposed to Be Buried, and Where St. Louis Was Murdered.

MARSHFIELD, Or. April 12.—(Special)—With four bullets in his body, Evans, Coos County pioneer, and sole ossessor of the secret to treasure buried by Mexicans near his house, was found dead today at his home on South Storeh

He had been slain by someone who risited the house early this morning. The slayer's identity is not known and mystery surrounds the tragedy. Evans is the second victim supposed to have been slain by persons hunting for the buried treasure.

That Evans was murdered by some person who sought to learn the hiding place of the treasure is the belief of nuny persons here.

Kimmel Case Recalled.

Wher the Kimmel case came up in St. Louis, Mo., a few weeks ago it was Evans who told that many years ago there was buried near his house Mexican treasure, which was thought to be possibly the same one referred to in the Kimmel case when it was alleged that Kimmel was murdered in Coos County while searching for the treasure.

Living alone, Evans, who was past 70 years of age, soldom came to Marsh-field, but he had planned to make the trip here today with W. A. Joiner, a neighbor. Joiner called at Evans' house and after waiting outside valuly for Evans to appear went to a window and now Evans lying dead on the floor of the kitchen. If was not known at first that it was a case of murder, as no one was allowed to enter until Corner Wilson was notified. George M. Brown, District Attorney. and Sheriff Gage also have gone to the place to investigate.

Evalus was fully dressed, evidently ready to come to Marshfield. On the table was his own revolver. It appeared that whoever did the shooting had been inside the house and had then received the back porch and shot gone out on the back porch and shot through the glass door opening from the kitchen to the back porch. Six the kitchen to the back porch. Six shots had been fired. Two went wild and four of the bullets had entered Evans body in the region of the heart.

Evans Born in Michigan. Evans originally was the owner of the land on which Shore Acres. L. J. Simpson's Summer home, now is situated. A few years ago he sold the place to Mr. Simpson and since then made his home. at what is known as the Getty place.
It is close to South Slough on the main county road, about five miles below Empire. The house was a large, comfortable home. Evans wife is dead. He had several children. Until re-

He had several children. Until recently a young man worked for him, but for a month or more past Evans had been all alone in the house.

Evans was a native of Michigan and came to Cook County in the early 50's and was one of the ploneer gold miners of the early mining days in this part of the state. In later years he followed the business of a rancher, and was known throughout the country. He was in comfortable circumstances, He was in comfortable circumstances, but it is not believed that he had any money in the house.

Their work, their play, their dresses, their "own" rooms with ideas for "Little Men" and suggestions for mothers about them both. 1500 ideas for 1.

"Little Women" on the stage

SYMPATHETIC story about a great A play made from one of the most popular books in the world. Is there a woman who has not read "Little Women," who does not know Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy as she knew her school girl friends? Every woman, most men and all children will be tremendously interested in the play made from "Little Women" with the permission of Louisa M. Alcott's heir, the "Daisy" of "Little Men." Even the salesgirls in the shops knew the book and helped in the hunt for just the right material for Meg's dress. No modern 'best seller' can hope to equal the sales of this childhood classic, and now that it has been dramatized, thousands will renew their acquaintance with the March family.
