Judge Morrow Renominated.

Circuit Judge Morrow has been recominated for Judge in Department No. the State Circuit Court by a vote of nearly three to one over William C. Renbow, his only op-penent. For the nomination as Cir-cuit Judge, Department No. 4, to suc-ceed Judge Gantenbein, Municipal Judge Taxwell is in the lend with Wal-demar Seton running second. mar Seton running second Returns thus far compiled insure the nomination of Waiter H. Evans for Dis-trict Attorney. He had a lead of two to ony over Senera Fouts, his closest opponent with Cameron in third place. County Commissioner Lightner apparently has been renominated. Dan McAllen is running well, but will prob-ably not be able to evercome Lightner's lead. T. J. Kreuder, organized labor's candidate, is running third.

W. H. Fitzgerald has a fair lead for sheriff over H. C. McAllister. W. B. Hollingsworth will finish third, with North running fourth.

Coffey Leads Smith.

John B. Coffey has a strong lead over H. C. Smith for County Clerk and will receive the nomination. Henry E. Reed at 11 o'clock had a slight lead over B. D. Sigler for Assessor. The contest for the Coronership is close between Dr. Sam C. Slocum and Dr. James C.

Mrs. Taussig said that the boat into which she, her daughter, Ruth, and Mrs. Harris were placed, pulled away from the Titanic with several seat spaces empty, and that she considered her husband and the theatrical man were nacrificed needlessly.

Men Wave Farewells.

The last Mrs. Taussig saw of her husband and Harris was a few moments before the liner plunged out of sight. The men, she said, stood side by side, now embracing each other and now waving their hands in farewell to

Mrs. Taussig said she heard several pistol shots and that there were three distinct explosions, one following close upon the other, before the Titanic disappeared. What the firing meant she

Mrs. Fortune, of Winnipeg, told how she and her three daughters, Lucille, Maba and Alice, were rescued after being separated from her husband and son Charles. They were put in a boat with a Chinaman, an Italian stoker and a man dressed in woman's clothing. Of the men occupants, she said, only one, the stoker, could row, and Mrs. Fortune's daughters took turns at the cars.

Danger' Not Resilised. When the collision occurred Mrs. Fortune and her daughters hurriedly dressed. They were joined by Mr. Fortune and Charles Fortune, but at the stairway to the bow Mrs. Fortune aid ber husband and son were stopped

They did not realize that the ship was in danger and did not even say goodbye to the men as they parted one of the girls, however, called back to Charles: "Look after father," which was the only message which passed between them.

Boat Is Overcrowded.

Mrs. Fortune said the boat was "ter-ribly evercrowded," four members of the crew were transferred to another boat as soon as the craft struck the water and there was consternation mong the passengers, mostly women,

The stoker, Mrs. Fortune said, knew how to handle an oar tolerably well, but the Chinaman was of little use. The man dressed in woman's clothes did his best but did not seem familiar with an oar. This man wore a woman's bonnet and veil in addition to a skirt and blouse.

Rescue Ship Loses No Time in Port After Landing Titanic Survivors.

New York Chosen Instead of Halifax Because of Passengers' Hysteria. Wireless Operator's Legs Are Crushed.

NEW YORK, April 10,-Less than 24 ours after the Cunard line steamer Carpathia came in as a rescue ship with 745 survivors of the Titanic disaster, she sailed this afternoon for the Medi-terranean cruise, which she originally started on last week.

Just before the liner sailed, H. S. Bride, the second wireless operator of the Titanic, who had both of his legs crushed in a lifeboat, was carried off on the shoulders of the ship's officers to St. Vincent's Hospital.

Captain Rostron, of the Carpathia, addressed an official note to the com-pany, giving his account of the saving of the passengers of the Titanic

Night Clear, Though Dark. The report said that Captain Rostron The report said that Captain Rostron first was apprised of the plight of the Titanic at 12:25 A. M. Monday, and that he immediately ordered the Carpathia headed for the scene of the disaster, a distance of 58 miles. At 2:40 A. M. a flare was seen, and it was taken to indicate the position of the Titanic. The report said that the Carpathia passed through a big field of icebergs and several times had to alter her course to eral times had to alter her course to avoid ice. The weather was described as fine and clear, though dark. Con-

"We stopped at 4 A. M., thus doing the distance in three and half hours, picking up lifeboat at 4:10 A. M. Boat in charge of officer, and he reported that Titanic had foundered. At 8:30 last boat picked up. All survivors last boat picked up. All survivors aboard as follows: 14 lifeboats, one boat abandened, two Berthon boats alongside (saw one floating upward among wreckage, and according to se-cond officer, senior officer saved, one Berther boat had not been launched; it having got jammed) making 16 life-boats and four Berthon boats accounted for.

View Clear for Four Miles. "By the time we had cleared first hoat it was breaking day, and I could see all within an area of four miles. We also saw that we were surrounded by neebergs."

The report said that at $ A. M. the Leyland liner Californian arrived and that her master was told of the trag-edy and asked to search for possible survivors. The Carpathia then took aboard 13 of the Titanic's lifeboats. The

"Before deciding definitely where to make for I conferred with Mr. Ismay and he told me to do what I thought best. I informed him, taking every-thing into consideration, I considered New York best. I also thought it would be better for Mr. Ismay to go to New York or England as soon as possible, and knowing I should be out of wireless communication very soon if I proceeded to Azores, it left Halifax, Bosto and New York, so I chose the latter.

about ice, and I pointed out to Ismay the possibility of seeing ice if I went to Halifax. Then I knew from the gravity of the disaster that it would be best to keep in touch with land gravity of the disaster that it would be best to keep in touch with land stations as best I could. We have experienced very great difficulty in transmitting news, also names of survivors Our wireless is very poor, and again we have had so many interruptions from other ships and also messages from shore (principally press, which we ignored.) I gave instructions to send first all official messages, then names of passengers, then survivors private messages.

"I am pleased to say that all surrivers have been very plucky. Tues-day our doctor reported all survivers physically well. Our first-class pasphysically well. Our first-class pas-sengers have behaved sp'endidly, giv-ing us their cabins voluntarily and sup-plying the women with clothing, etc.
"We all turned out of our cabins and gave them to survivors, saloon, smok-ing room, library, etc., also being used for sleeping accommodations. Our crew also turned out to let the crew of the Titanic take their guarters.
