CAPTAIN NEVER HAMPERED

No Thought of Escape Entertained, Says Statement, Until Boat Was Being Lowered and No Passengers Were Near.

NEW YORK, April Il.-In a statement given out tonight. J. Bruce Ismay replied to several published statements regarding the Titanic disaster, particularly those in which his name is prom inently figured.

He denied that he had anything to to with the navigation of the vessel and declared that he did not consult with her captain regarding her conduct at sea, and made no suggestion as to the course or other handling of the ship.

He exercised no privileges that did not belong to any other first class passenger, he declared; did not sit at the captain's table, and was not dining with him at the time of the accident, and in fact, was in bed when the collision occurred,

Flight Never Considered. He had no idea of returning to Europe particularly to avoid appearing at the Senatorial investigation, he added, and only knew that the investigation was pending when informed of it at the pier when the Carpathia arrived. Mr. Ismay's statement fol-

"When I appeared before the Senate Friday, I supposed the purpose of the inquiry was to ascertain the cause of the sinking of the Titanic, with a view to determining whether additional legislation was required to prevent the ecurrence of so horrible a disaster.

"I welcomed such an inquiry, and appeared voluntarily, without subpens, and to all questions put to me by the act of God. "It was due to the American demand for speed," he said.
"Another sacrifice to the Moloch of progress—the mania for rapid transit." was the way Rev. A. L. Hutchinson, of Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, termed the disaster.

Policeman Shakes Hands With Man Who Trounces Other for Gloating · at Deaths on Titanic.

MILWAUKEE, April 21 .- (Special.)-Two Socialists of the "Red" type were oday loudly proclaiming on a crowded atreetear their joy over the death of men of wealth and distinction in the Titanic wreck. They especially gloated over the deaths of Astor, Straus and Major Butt.

B. W. Stone, an investment broker, was one of the car passengers, and the socialists asked him what he thought about it. "No man with a drop of true Amerl can blood in his veins would say what you are saving." he responded. 'You're a liar," shouted on of the Sodalists, as he sprang at Mr. Stone The latter arose and with a stiff battery of blows changed the fellow's face into a disfigured mass. A policeman, noting the hubbub rushed into the ear, but, when told of the cause of the battle, refused to arrest Mr. Stone, but instead shook him
