WORLD OPENS ITS PURSE

Food, Clothing, Shelter, Care and Money Provided to Many Who Lost Husbands, Fathers and Possessions in Disaster.

NEW YORK, April 22 .- (Special.)-Nations of the earth have responded liberally to the needs of the survivors of the Titanic disaster and up to to-night it is estimated that an aggre-gate of more than $1,000,000 has been subscribed toward the relief fund. These subscriptions have come from foreign countries, from persons in every walk of life, rich and poor de-every walk of life, rich and poor de-nating allke to the fund that those who lost their husbands and posses-sions when the giant liner plunged to the bottom might be cared for and might not have their grief made harder to bear by poverty.

One of the largest individual contri-butions was that of Vincent Aster, whose father was numbered among the Titanie's dead. This was a check for $16,000. Andrew Carnegie gave $5000, John D. Rockefeller $2500, M. Guggen-heim Sons $1000, and George F. Baker $1000.

England Gives $700,000.

In England the total contributions to the fund amount to between $600,000 and $700,000, $600,000 having been subscribed at the Mansion House alone. Almost every nation of the world has responded to the call. England, Ireland, Germany, Sweden, Italy and other European lands have sent their share to the rapidly increasing fund. And not only has money been given without stint but food, clothing, shelter, doctors, nurses, hospital care, in fact, everything which the bereaved survivors find necessary for their immediate wants has been turne! over. New York ("ity has responded as a unit and business men, corporations, claritable organizations, city officials and individuals have joined together in one great move in the name of char-

Taft Declares Lost Aide Merely Carried Notes of Introduction.

WASHINGTON, April 22,-In response to a letter from William J. Oliver, of Knoxville, Tenn., C. D. Hilles, secretary to President Taft, denied today on bealf of the President that Major A. W. but had been sent abroad on a mission to Rome. In part the letter reads:

The President feels Major Butt's leas keenly and is only consoled by the knowledge that he gave up his life as a soldier and a man. There is absolutely no truth in the report that Major Butt was on a mission to Rome. The sole object of his trip was the benefit of the long seavoyage, and to add to the interest of his trip the President gave him several formal notes of introduction to personages in Rome whom he knew. None of the letters contained more than a formal introduction." The White House was informed that e National Guard of Wyoming, both officers and men, desired to contribute to a memorial to Major Butt.

SEALBY SHOWS REMEDY

Hold Congress Responsible.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., April 22.-Captain Inman Sealby, who was command-er of the steam vessel Republic when she was rammed by the Fiorida, would make Congress responsible for the lives of travelers on the ocean. Captain Sealby is a student in the University of Michigan.

"I believe that by way of reducing "I believe that by way of reducing the possibility of such tremendous disasters as that which overtook the Titanic, said Sealby, "increased lifeboat facilities should be added to the passenger steamships, and that watertight bulkheads should be constructed as strong as the hull itself."

I would recommend, first, that the commanders of the North Atlantic steamships be ordered by their owners to go south of the ice track and always to travel slowly in a fog. Any infringement of this should be met with instant dismissal.

"Second, the Government should hold
