

MEXICAN FORCES READY TO ADVANCE

Troops Mobilize Facing Each Other and Attack Is Expected Hourly.

300 AMERICANS IN FLIGHT

Scouts Cover Field and Thousands Are in Line Heavily Armed. Secretary Knox Denies United States Is About to Intervene.

JIMENEZ, Mex., April 22.—Should General Huerta delay the advance of his army another week it is probable he will lose the credit of having initiated the contest for the control of Chihuahua state.

General Salazar reinforced the rebel army below Reilano Sunday with 400 men under General Luis Fernandez and preparations are being made to continue the mobilization of the Liberal forces in positions facing Huerta's army. General Salazar has between 3500 and 4000 men south of Reilano and more will be sent tonight. The advance guards of the armies are close together. Scouting parties sighted each other yesterday just half way between the lines. Each retired. The main body of the rebels is at Escobedo, but attention is being paid to the flanks extending along the branch railroad to Sierra Mojada, southeast over the mountain trails to Cerro Gordo, southwest of Escobedo. Reports from scouts covering the field as far south as Torreon are that Huerta is mobilizing a force heavier than that handled by the late General Salas and that it is better equipped. The rebel expedition to Torreon De Canos, Durango, intended to effect the capture of Tomas Urbino, was a failure. Urbino had fled.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—The State Department endeavored today to put a stop to what it regards as inflammatory talk of the Government's purpose to intervene in Mexico, by declaring that the reports of the American Consular officers in that country reiterate that whereas there is not one reason for military intervention, there are countless strong reasons why there should be no intervention. Secretary Knox said that while the President had under consideration the question of dispatching a vessel to the West Coast of Mexico to look into the safety of the American residents there it did not necessarily mean that a warship would make the trip. He said the principal object was to get news about those Americans who were in a country where great disorder prevailed, with no communication with the outside world.

Alleged Conspirator Answers. Braulio Hernandez, a leading Mexican and formerly Secretary of State of Chihuahua, has voluntarily surrendered to the Department of Justice to answer an indictment at El Paso, Tex., charging him with conspiracy to violate President Taft's proclamation prohibiting the exportations of munitions of war to Mexico.

Americans Protect Interests. LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 22.—The Evening Express printed a story today based on what it claimed was unimpeachable authority, that Major Frederick W. Burnham, the former South African scout and confidant of millionaire mining promoters of the United States, was now encamped with 500 fully armed and equipped men on the banks of the Yaqui River, in Sonora, Mexico, ready for any emergency. Major Burnham's purpose, the Express story stated, was primarily that of guarding the mining and other property in Mexico, owned by John Hays Hammond, J. P. Morgan, the Guggenheims and others, in whose interests he had made many trips to Mexico.

300 Americans Flee. LAREDO, Tex., April 22.—North-bound trains today, and yesterday brought 300 Americans from Mexico. One hundred of them were railroad men and members of their families. Other railroad men are reported leaving by steamer from Vera Cruz.

MINES PROTECTED BY FORCE Former South African Scout Heads 500 Armed Men in Mexico.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 22.—The Evening Express printed a story today based on what it claimed was unimpeachable authority, that Major Frederick W. Burnham, the former South African scout and confidant of millionaire mining promoters of the United States, was now encamped with 500 fully armed and equipped men on the banks of the Yaqui River, in Sonora, Mexico, ready for any emergency. Major Burnham's purpose, the Express story stated, was primarily that of guarding the mining and other property in Mexico, owned by John Hays Hammond, J. P. Morgan, the Guggenheims and others, in whose interests he had made many trips to Mexico. The article adds: "Burnham and his force are ready for any emergency that may arise. His men are fully equipped in accordance with United States Army regulations, and besides have several machine guns. Nearly all the members of his command are former members of the Rough Riders or marine corps." The 500 men, the story recited, had been collected at the Yaqui River in groups of twos and threes, so as not to excite the suspicions of the Mexican federalists or rebels. Their ammunition, guns and machine guns, it was stated, had been smuggled across the boundary in the vicinity of El Paso.

by boat, landing in Seattle unable to talk the English language. He left a long string of incendiary fires behind him in Seattle, Tacoma, Walla Walla and California, and started several fires in Klamath County, was finally indicted, but was committed to the asylum. He gave as his reason for this mania a desire to be incarcerated in some prison or asylum so that he could be taught the English language.

Frank Tompkins, another escapee, was committed from Clackamas County. Several weeks ago he escaped from the asylum and was recaptured recently in Yamhill County. He is a pronounced paranoiac.

Escape Recored Growing. W. H. Jones came from Washington

County, his parents living at Gaston. He was committed three months ago and gave the officers considerable trouble. While in the hands of the Sheriff on the way to Salem he escaped, and was later recaptured at St. Johns. Frank Allen, the fifth to escape, was committed from Umatilla County six weeks ago. He was recently released from an asylum in Idaho, and before that had been released from Medical Lake, Wash. Leaving the Idaho asylum he went to Pendleton, where he received word that he had lost certain property, and he again became unbalanced and was sent to the Oregon institution. All of the men are young, their ages of the men recaptured before morning, ranging from 25 to 30. Every direction is covered by the posse of attendants, and asylum authorities hope to have all

COLONEL SPEAKS IN RAIN

Roosevelt Braves Storm at Early Hour in Morning.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., April 22.—In a driving rain, Colonel Roosevelt spoke here today to a crowd which came out to meet him when he arrived at 8:50 A. M. His speech from a platform at the station, leaving for Greensboro, after a short stay here. On the way he was to make a speech in Salisbury. His chief speech of the day was to be in Greensboro, where he was to visit the Normal College.

KANSAS MAN ATTACKS T. R.

Campbell Questions Motives in Dealing With Trusts.

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Representative Campbell (Rep.), of Kansas, made a bitter attack in the House today on Colonel Roosevelt. The speech was in reply to an attack on Mr. Campbell by Colonel Roosevelt during the latter's tour through Kansas. His denunciation of the Colonel was vigorously applauded on the Democratic side of the House. "He brands as an infamous scoundrel every man whom he cannot force into agreeing with him," said Mr. Campbell. "I want to ask these two questions of Mr. Roosevelt," continued the Representative: "Did you, or did you not send a note to the Department of Justice asking that further steps for the prosecution of the Harvester Trust be suspended? "Did you, or did you not flay the 'manufacturers of great wealth' and then, in the night time, in private conference with the heads of the Steel Trust and the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company agree that they should be united for their own benefit?"

ROOSEVELT WOOES SOUTH

Colonel Longing for Electoral Votes From Dixie.

SALISBURY, N. C., April 22.—"If I am nominated, I'm going to fight to break the solid South," said Colonel Roosevelt, when he came to North Carolina today. He told the crowds that met him he hoped to get some electoral votes in the South. "We have won in Oklahoma, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Oregon and Nebraska," he said. "It is no understatement to say that three times out of four we'll 'beat 'em to a frazzle, and I am pretty generous to allow them even that one time."

DORR FALLS, TALKS

Man Held for Killing Suddenly Regains Faculties.

STOCKTON, Cal., April 22.—(Special.)—William Dorr, charged with the murder of George E. Marsh, the Eastern millionaire, and whose persistent refusal to talk since his arrest last Wednesday night has greatly perplexed the police, became very talkative tonight, following a fall in his cell, which for a few moments rendered him unconscious. Dorr collapsed and in falling struck his head violently on the floor. A few minutes later, after regaining consciousness, he called for the jailer and asked if he was in jail as the result of a practical joke. He was in a cheerful mood and declared that he had no recollection of his arrest or any of the events preceding it, except the day that he left Stockton for the East. He wanted to know where he was and how much time had intervened since he left the home of Miss Marsh to go East. He seemed mystified when informed that he had been in jail for nearly a week. He was not apprised of the charge.

MURDER INDICTMENT IS ISSUED

Circumstantial Evidence Points to Dorr as Slayer.

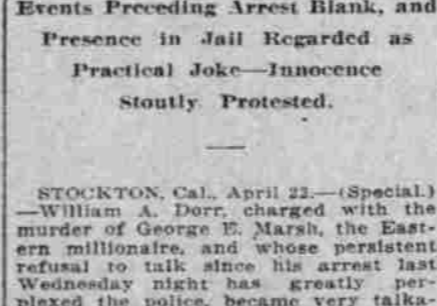

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., April 22.—William E. Dorr, of Stockton, Cal., was indicted today for the murder of George E. Marsh, a wealthy soap manufacturer of Lynn. Dorr is under arrest in California. Marsh's body, containing five bullets, was found beside the state highway in Lynn, about two weeks ago. The authorities learned that a man

STUDENTS FORM NEW CULT

Cornell Undergraduates Would Establish Latest Religion.

ITHACA, N. Y., April 22.—A number of Cornell students have taken up the task of forming a new religion. Twelve of them met in the "Dutch Kitchen" and organized the Robert Ingersoll Club, "to study, investigate and criticize the existing religious creeds of today, with a view of reconstructing religious thought and settling it upon a basis of fact and truth instead of needless facts and traditional superstitions."
