

MONEY LAIVSHLY USED, IS CHARGE

Taft Manager Says Big Sums Are Expended in Interest of Roosevelt.

INSTANCES ARE CITED

"Scrip" Circulated in Oklahoma and "Certificates" in Pennsylvania. Other States Show Effect of Cash Campaigning.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—(Special.)—William L. McKinley, director of the National Taft Bureau, said today: "The lavish expenditure of money in this campaign by the backers of former President Roosevelt has led to the question being raised: Were the victories of Roosevelt in Pennsylvania and Oklahoma due to a 'great popular demand' for his renomination or to the use of money?"

"Sufficient illustrations will be cited in this statement to show exactly how much money was used in specific instances and how it was used to warrant the assertion that in no pre-convention campaign in the history of the country has money been used in such large sums, amounting, in view of the general verdict of the country with respect to certain expenditures by Senators of the United States, to plain bribery and corruption, as has been expended by the backers of Theodore Roosevelt."

Oklahomans Paid by Checks.—Information came to the Taft National Bureau some weeks ago that checks had passed in Oklahoma to Roosevelt men, and the charge was made that these checks were in amounts of $75 each and were paid for votes in conventions. It was in this state that Theodore Roosevelt said there was a "genuine primary." The "crew" which carried Oklahoma for Roosevelt has been working in Texas and Nebraska since and has now shown up in Arkansas. What the "wrecking crew" is doing in Arkansas is shown by this extract from a telegram received today from a reputable citizen of that state:

"Roosevelt managers are using money under the guise of paying wages to workers, another name for bribery."

"The way state law is attempted to be evaded by the managers of Mr. Roosevelt was illustrated in the primaries in Allegheny County, including Pittsburg, where 'Roosevelt scrip' or 'due bills' were issued in an amount, estimated by conservative men to have been $100,000.

"Instead of having their managers stand at the polls and pay $5 each to voters as they voted the Roosevelt ticket in Pittsburg, a certificate was issued indicating an appointment as a Roosevelt worker in the primaries, and when completed by the chairman of the district committee it was good for $5 at headquarters. These certificates were liberally distributed in Pittsburg and other sections of the state, and it is said no less than 20,000 were given out. In that case $100,000 was the cost of this sort of work."

"Messengers" are Well Paid.—After the certificates had been printed the word "Messenger" was displayed across the face, no such person as a "worker" being recognized in the corrupt practices law. It also came to the attention of the Taft managers that large sums were paid for editorial endorsement of former President Roosevelt, and still further larger sums were paid for organizing the state. Roosevelt managers admit they spent $50,000 sending out one postal card to 2,500,000 voters. That the total expenditure of the Roosevelt forces in Pennsylvania alone amount to a sum between $250,000 and $500,000 is the conservative estimate of some of Mr. Roosevelt's own managers in Pennsylvania.

"In New York County alone on primary day a sum approximating $200,000 was expended by the Roosevelt men in a vain endeavor to carry the city for former President Roosevelt.

"In one district in Chicago $7000 was subscribed by two men alone and used on primary day. As indicating the use to which this money was put, one little precinct captain alone was offered $200 to support Roosevelt and decline to do so for any price. In this connection one district captain in New York did sell out to the Roosevelt managers, plainly showing that Roosevelt was not the candidate in answer to a great popular demand, but the beneficiary of a bag of good hard dollars.

Paroled Prisoners Delegates.—In Missouri the Roosevelt forces, as in Oklahoma, have run special trains—of negroes, most frequently, and sometimes whites—to all Congressional district conventions. In the Fourteenth District in Missouri it is a matter of court record that the judge, a Roosevelt man, paroled three prisoners out of jail and made them delegates in county convention. In Kentucky, in the First District, where they raised a charge of "fraud" and specifically charged that a Federal official done some certain acts, whereas as a matter of fact the man named was neither a Federal official nor had he performed the acts charged, the Roosevelt managers ran special trains and a steamboat full of negroes to the primaries to intimidate the voters.

"The next question is, therefore, where is all this money coming from? It must not be forgotten that among the understrappers in the Roosevelt camp are several millionaires who constitute the 'Roosevelt guerillas' and who roam about from state to state—most of it new territory to them—and tell the voters that among this number are Gifford Pinchot, the former head of the forest service; John F. Bass, brother of the governor of New Hampshire, who explained the defeat of Roosevelt in North Dakota on the ground that 'Democrats had voted for La Follette'; when, as a matter of fact, Mr. Roosevelt got the votes in the Democratic end of the state himself; Everett Colby, of New Jersey; George W. Perkins, of the United States Steel Corporation and the International Harvester Company, who is generally credited with raising more money for Mr. Roosevelt than any other three men; Frank A. Munsey, of New York, an owner of steel common stock; Governor Chase S. Osborn and Truman H. Newberry, of Michigan; Chauncey Dewey and Alexander Revell, of Chicago; Thomas Niedringhaus, of St. Louis, and Walter Dickey, of Kansas City, Mo., and a host of others. Every man in this list is a millionaire, some of them several times over, and all are spending their money like water for Mr. Roosevelt."

Trial of Men Charged With Virginia Courtroom Murder to Begin April 30—Self-Defense Will Be Contended.

HILLSVILLE, Va., April 23.—Six members of the Allen clan were arraigned here today to answer for their part in the Carroll courthouse tragedy of March 14, when Judge, Prosecutor, Sheriff, a juror and a spectator were shot to death. The prisoners, including Floyd Allen, upon whom a prison sentence was about to be imposed when the shooting commenced, his sons, Claude and Victor, and his nephews, Sidney Edwards and Byrd Marion, are charged with murder in the first degree. They were brought here from Roanoke last night. Attorneys for the accused men have admitted that an effort would be made to place responsibility for all five murders upon Sidney Allen and Wesley Edwards, the only two members of the gang still at large. It will be claimed Floyd Allen shot in self-defense when attacked by court officers; that Claude and Friel Allen fired in the excitement of the moment, and that Sidney Edwards, Byrd Marion and Victor Allen did not shoot at all. Each pleaded not guilty. A change of venue was asked and granted, the

SAGE TEA DARKENS THE HAIR AND RESTORES COLOR TO GRAY HAIR

Cures Dandruff, Stops the Hair From Falling Out and Makes It Grow.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Special agent, Owl Drug Co.
