The Men's 75c for $1.50 and $2 Shirt Sale Runs Merrily On And Little Wonder—With Prices so Low

—The careful dresser, the discriminating man who wants a stylish, comfortable, correctly-made shirt of thoroughly up-to-date patterns will assuredly not miss this sale. At no time within a year has there been such a sale anywhere. We can please the most exacting man. We guarantee fit. We state positively that the bulk of the shirts in sale sold regularly at $1.75 and $2.00—some at $1.50 and many at $2.25.
—The shirts are all white and plaited styles; others in hairline stripes. The price comparisons are fair, because these shirts are equal to any and better than a great many exhibited at $1.50 and $2.00 elsewhere. —Just think of it! At the very beginning of the season these shirts are priced at less than half regular. Yesterday men took them away by the half dozen and by the dozen. Come early and get your share of these shirt bargains.

New Trimmed Tagal Hats $4.95
Sold at Just About the Price of the Shape
—The remarkable response in this sale has compelled us to turn our entire force of trimmers on these attractive hats. A sale such as this would have been practically impossible two weeks ago; indeed, it is impossible now, excepting at this store. The demand for Tagal hats is greater now than at any time during the Spring season, and their popularity is bound to grow as the season advances, for Summer toilettes demand these light weight, serviceable hats to complete an appropriate and correct costume. Many new shapes cleverly and attractively trimmed make their first appearance Wednesday morning.

There Never Was a Sale Like This, Here or Elsewhere
Regular Prices From $4 to $6 Each, Removal $1.79

—The representative of the largest wholesale millinery house in the United States arrived in Portland yesterday. After examining the hats that we offer in this Removal Sale at $1.79 he remarked that it was the greatest sale held within his memory for two reasons.
—First—Real Tagal hemp hats are now in greatest demand throughout the entire United States.
—Second—He made the positive assertion that there was not one hat in this entire collection that could be manufactured anywhere near the price we are retailing them for. He also made the statement that exclusive milliners at other stores were getting as high as $7.50 to $9.00 apiece for the identical hats.
—Here, then, is a demonstration of the Lipman, Wolfe & Co. policy of refusing a positive profit in order that this Removal Sale be everything that is claimed for it. There is no denying the fact that throughout the store every article, excepting a few restricted items, is radically reduced in price. In this hat sale we present for your selection over fifty different shapes, every one of them exact reproductions and copies of French pattern hats. They come in black, white, burnt, navy, brown, leather and other colors.
