County Central Committee to Work for Election of People's Choice.

MEETING IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Question as to Qualification of Precinct Committeemen Prevents Organization Permanent From Being Perfected.

At a lively meeting of the Republican County Central Committee of Multnoman County at the Multnoman Hotel iast night a temporary organization was perfected temporary officers elected and the foundation laid for the support by the committee of the Repubican candidates named by the people at primary nominating election,

Owing to the fact that a serious uestion arose as to the qualifications f some of the precinct committeemen. no effort was made to perfect a perma-nent organization or to pass resolutions.

Adjournment was taken after the temporary officers were elected, sub-ject to the call of F. E. Beach, tempor-ary chairman, who will issue his call as soon as the committee on credentials is able to unravel the qualification tangle which has resulted from errors on the part of the County Clerk, and his inability to decide some tie votes which resulted in several of the precincts.

Tie Votes Result. Out of a total of 193 precincts in the county, 52 could not be represented at last night's meeting, because of disat last night's meeting, because of dis-putes as to who was elected. In a majority of these precincts the vote is tied and it has been impossible for the County Clerk to decide the ties by the usual process of flipping up coins. In other precincts, where committee-men were elected, no credentials were sent by the County Clerk to the meet-ing last night for reasons which were not explainable.

Out of a total of more than 200 per-

Out of a total of more than 100 persons present at the meeting, only 141 were qualified to vote and it was considered advisable to defer making a permanent organization until the other 52 precincts can be represented, so that if there is any indorsement of candidates it can be by unanimous vote.

The first order of business at the meeting was the election of temporary officers. The meeting was called to order by Ray Apperson and Harvey Wells acted as secretary. In the contest for temporary chairmanship, F. E. Beach and Samuel Woodward were nominated. Mr. Beach was elected by a vote of 62 to 29. For secretary, A. C. Cooper was elected by a vote of 68 sgainst a vote of 16 received by L. D. against a vote of 16 received by L. D. Mahone. Both elections afterwards were made unanimous.
