THE MORNING OREGONIAN. FRIDAY, APRIL 26. 1912.

French Colonel Bound, Then Slowly Stabbed to Death, in Morocco Revolt.

JEWISH

Hundreds, Starving, Seek Refuge in Animal Cages of Sultan's Menagerie - Mobs Loot and Burn in Wild Disorder.

FEZ. Morocco. April 22 .- (Delayed in ransmission.)-The Jewish quarter of Frammanon, -- Ine Jewiss quarter of Fer presented a lamentable spectacle as a result of the recent pillaging and looting by the revolting populace and matineers among the Moorish soldlers. Of the 12,000 Jewish residents no fewer than 7000 were made homeless by fire and these now have taken refuge, half naked and hungry, in the gardens of the Sultan's Palace. Hundreds of emaciated human beings are hundreds of emachated numan beings are hundled there together in empty cages of the Sultan's menagerie and these are surrounded by cages con-taining wild beasts, which, maddened by the sight of human flesh, fill the gardens with their roars.

Women Ringleaders in Murder.

One of the assussing of Colonel Lory confessed that the Moorish women were the ringlesders in his murder. They lied his arms and feet and then slowly stabled him to death. The mob sacked and burned at its pleasure, destroying and burned at its pleasure, destroying everything that came in its way. The provisions of the bureau of cor-porations act, delay was demanded by comity toward the Senate.' Perkins' Protest Root.

Objects too heavy to be carried off, ike beds and furniture, were first tacked to pieces and then piled in the streets and set on fire. The streets were a picture of desola-on. Here and there are to be seen the naked corpses of persons who were struck down when trying to escape.

Consuls Aiding Homeless.

French, British and othe Consulates bread is being supplied to the starving refugees and the Consuls made efforts to find shelter for the Ine bodies of the French officers

Life bound of the French officers killed in the fighting have not yet been all found, but those recovered show that the soldlers suffered terrible tor-tures and that their bodies were mul-bated in a terrible measure ated in a terrific manner. Many arrests of Moorish soldiers and citizens of Fez have been effected. The prisoners will be tried by courtmartial.

neither the Attorney-General or the Preident for a month.

Specific Information Asked For.

Senator Clark, of Wyoming, pointed out that the Johnston resolution dif-fered from the others in that it called fered from the others in that it called for certain specific information. He and Senator Nelson gave instances ff which Colonel Roosevelt, when Presi-dent, had withheld correspondence from the Bureau of Corporations. Sen-ator Bristow remarked that evidently there was no disposition on either side which Colonel Roosevelt, when Presi-dent, had withheld correspondence from the Bureau of Corporations Sen-ator Bristow remarked that evidently there was no disposition on either side of the chamber to criticise President Taft, to which Senator Williams pro-tested viscorously.

for anybody, it secured their good will for Mr. Tat." The statement of Colonel Roosevelt in part follows: for Mr. Taft. The statement of Colonel Roosevelt in part follows: "As regards the harvester trust mat-

Smith's Investigation Pending.

of Smith's must be considered as one of Smith's must be considered as one conducted by the Senate itself and it would be appropriate for the Depart-ment of Justice to await its conclu-alon before proceeding with the suit. "You never gave me any instruc-tions of any kind about the suit. I have an indistinct recollection that you whed me to as semebody who wished as you acquiesced in the view taken b the Cabinet to the effect that owing t munications. In the first he recites that on August 24, 1907, he met me at York, where he said that Mr nim the reasons why it was impossive to hurry it up. "5. Not only did I not suppress any papers connected with the case, but I left every paper on file either in the Department of Justice or in the Bu-reau of Corporations and if anything wrong had been done either in the way of omission or commission, the Adof omission or commission, the Administration had three years and two months in which to correct the wrong Johnson Lorimer Supporter. "6. Mr. Taft has been over three years in the White House. During that period he has had ample time either to publish the facts or to take action against the Harvester trust. He has taken no action except that now taken. five days before the Massachusetts primary, "T. This matter was brought up in the Senate on the motion of Senator Johnston, who, as a member of both then learned from Herbert Knox Johnston, who, as a member of both committees to investigate Mr. Larimer, has been his carnest supporter and ad-worate. The conditions under which it was passed and responded to give ground for the belief that the pre-ar-ranged purpose was to show that some improper reasons had favored the Har-vester trust and the Morgan interests. When under my Administrations the Northern Securities' suit was brought against Mr. Morgan, I was expecting to run and, as a matter of fact, did run for President in 1904. When this Har-vester trust matter came up it was Smith that he was engaged in an in-vestigation of the affairs of the Har-vester trust directed by the Senate under a resolution. I think, by Senator Hansbrough, of either North or South Dataste Dakota. "Smith said the institution of suit against the trust would put a stop to his investigation and I reported the situation of affairs at a Cabinet 'After a full, but harmonious discus-After a full, but harmonious discus-sion, it was decided on the advice of Secretaries , and Taft, that inasmuch as either house had a right under the law creating the Bureau of Corporations to direct an investiga-tion by the bureau, this investigation of Smith's must be considered as one for President in 1904. When this Har-vester trust matter came up it was certain that I was not going to run and Mr. Taft expected to run and I ex-pected that be woold run in 1908. The action that I took against Mr. Morgan was taken when I personally was-to pay for any consequences resulting from Mr. Morgan's III will. If the ac-tion taken in the Harvester trust did accure the good will of that trust, or any of the Morgan interests for any-body, it secured their good will for Mr. Taft. "But, as a matter of fact, in neither case did I consider in any way whether any support would be gained, for or alienated from either me or Mr. Taft. Taft asked me to see somebody who wished to talk with me about it, or on behalf of the trust, and think it probable this In both cases and in all other cases of the kind, I consider nothing but what was demanded by right and justice." was Cravath, as I knew he gave me his brief and other papers. Of course, you had nothing to do with preventing the institution of the suit, except insofar SMITH INQUIRY LONG DRAWN

Bonaparte Says Colonel Finally

Gave Consent to Suit. BALTIMORE, April 25. — Respecting Fresident Roosevelt's letter to Attor-ney-General Bonaparte, directing the latter to withhold the anti-trust suit against the International Harvester Company, contained in the correspond-ence sent to the Senate yesterday by the Department of Justice, former At-

Perkins protested against any suit (which he, Mr. Perkins, then under-stood to be pending) being brought ngalisst the Harvester trust while the investigation by the bureau was still pending; that on August 28 he called on the Department of Justice, former At-torney-General Bonaparte said today: "The letter in question was written when I was absent from Washington and when an investigation by the De-partment of Justice was in progress in regard to the affairs of the harvester trust, but before any report had been made to the department or any de-claion reached by It. "Several months later, after the de-partment had received a full report from its representative, a Mr. Town-send, I announced to the President that I was ready to institute a suit for the me at Oyster Bay and advocated my carrying out the policy of seeing that the bureau's investigation was finished b fore any suit was started, on the ground that the investigation would be far more effective for reform than any far more effective for reform than any suit: that the suit being a civil and not a criminal proceeding, no statute of limitations applied and consequently haste was not essential, and, finally, that if the corporation was a substan-tial offender, the suit would have vasily more chance of successful prosecution after the bureau got through its work. "Mr. Smith states that I gave him no instructions except to go and see the Attorney - General, Mr. Bonaparte, at once, which he did next day. He adds that on September 21 he wrote me a long memorandum setting forth the from its representative, a suit for that send, I announced to the President that I was ready to institute a suit for the dissolution of the harvester trust. It was then ascertained that the Bureau of Corporations had not yet completed its investigation of the same Harvester trust (which it was conducting by di-rection of a resolution of the Senate), and, the matter being submitted to the Cabinet. It was decided that the suit should await the conclusion of Mr. Her-bert Knox Smith's inquiry. "It was supposed then that this would cause but a short delay. The inquiry lasted, however, not only dur-ing the remaining year of Mr. Roese-velt's administration, but during some three years of Mr. Taft's administra-tion, and so far as I know is not yet finished.

long memorandum setting forth the facts and giving his views on the gen-eral subject, and that on November 7 he notified Perkins verbally in accord-ance with my instructions that the bureau's investigation would come first.

finished. "The President's letter of August. 1907, did not in any wise delay or af-fect the action of the Department of Justice, and when I told him I thought the suit should be undertaken, which probably was five or six months later, he immediately acquiesced. "The only impediment was the dis-covery that Mr. Smith's inquiry still was unfinished and his (Mr. Smith's) statement that he could not complete "Mr. Perkins and Commissioner Smith called upon me in reference to Taft and Roosevelt Forces in Missouri Dispute Over Compromise Terms.

NO DECISION IS REACHED

Leaders in Behalf of President Blame Secretary Nagel for Mud-Session of State Committee Stormy.

거	1	11		5	Un	4
1		00		12	E	٠
1. S.	1.1	6	8	3	1	1
LATE.	- *		1		2	л
	. 8.	0	1.21	12	8	1
	1.1		1	.0	8	-1
	1.2.1	- 21	100		120	1
1	÷.	- Q	22	1.	12
	22	-	-	-	-
bama	12	80.01				٠
rado12	10			10
sectiont 14		3.0005	12.5	- 22	100
iware 6						٠
Colum. 2	2	Seco				٠
1da	12			44
zia	20.				6.4.	٠
all 6	- 6	Ten.
ois	2	- 56		10	1.0
na	20	. 8	16.6	44	++
	16		- 8		2.4
02 8.04		26.08	14.0
neky26	22	ा क ?		+ *	2.2
tinna20	6	44.4	1.4		4.8
e	See.	- 33			1.22
Igan 30	10	4	1.0		*8
ouri 36	10	10				1
tastppt, 20	20	411		4.4	474	1
aska 16		34			¥.#.	1
Hamp. 8		944	19.90		1.0	I
Mexico S	80	- 2	14.4			4
		1.20	1.0	-10		1
bakota .10 homa .20		18	24		1.5.5	л
on16	1.1	10	22		4.4	Ξ.
sylv76	11	53	122	1.4.6	12.20	1
ppines. 2				- 25		τ.
dand 10	10		1.5		100 C	1
malina 18	14			11	1	1
crolina18	14	222	22	100
nont S	- 6					٠
nia	22	1.1.1		1001	- 14
onsin26	100		25	28	1.5	٠
	1000	1000		-		٠
		201		26	18	1.0

ST. LOUIS, April 25 .- (Special.)-The Missouri Republican state conven-tion at a late hour tonight was in deadlock over the choice of delegates to the National convention. Confer-ences showed prospect of continuing far into the early hours of the morn-ing Dispute areas over the terms of ing. Dispute arose over the terms of an agreement thought to have been reached to unite the pactions by diciding the delegation. At all o'clock, because of the Taft leaders' contention that the Hadley-Nagel agreement had been to divide Nagel agreement had been to divide the delegation, four and four, steno-graphic notes of the conference had been sent for. The Tafi men were con-tending that they had been sold out. The conference probably will continue all night. The Taft men were em-phatic in charging bad faith. E. L. Morse, of Excelsion Springs, a Taft leader, blamed Secretary Nagel. "Until the Secretary came here we had the fight won," he said, angrliy. "He began making compromists, and as a result we find a Roosevelt vic-tory."

Morse is regarded as the political manager of R. C. Kerens, Ambassador to Austro-Hungary and a Taft ap-pointee. Morse's complain was joined TENTLEMEN of the jury: We submit Exhibit Number One-the only evidence that you will requireour showing of men's fine clothing for your Spring wearing.

> Gathered from many a land was this mighty array of fabrics - gathered from looms that have yielded of their best; from all America, fancy weaves with the glorious tints of Springtime woven into them; sturdy homespuns from the quaint old looms of Donegal; tweeds from Bonnie Scotland; conservative serges and cheviots from our English cousins-no land too distant -no waste of waters too wide for this world's exhibit.

Designed and tailored by American tailors to fit the American form and to please the American eye

SELLING

We're more interested in quality than we are in price; we rest our case on the goodness of our clothing; $20 to $35 will cover its cost-you'll say it's an economical price when you see it.

The Men's Shop, Entire Main Floor

LEADING CLOTHIER

would Roosevelt," he said. "It would have to be a matter of grave public concern in which vital in-terests of the country were affected," returned Senator Bristow, "before I would dig up the confidential corres-pondence of my predecessor's secretary and his cabinet officers in regard to matters in which he had a porfect the confidence of the department and print them for political campaign pur-poses."

Williams Ferrs Caesarism.

Senator Williams, speaking from the center sisle of the Senate, discussed keynote phrasing?" He declared that if Americans were not careful they might sink into Cae-

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., April 35 .- "The talk about the suppression of the re-port is nonsense," said Colonel Roosevelt tonight in a statement setting forth his connection with the Interna-tional Harvester Company case.

tional Harvester Company case. The Colonel asserted that at a meet-ing with his Cabinet, at which Mr. Taft was present, it was decided that the Bureau of Corporations be in-structed to complete its investigation of the harvester company before suit was instituted, following the usual course of procedure in fuch cases. Mr. Taft, he added, concurred in this de-cision

During the rest of his Administra-tion, a period of a year and a half, the Colonel said, the Commissioner of Cor-porations was unable to complete his investigation. He said that in the investigation. He said that in the three years of the present Administra-tion Mr. Taft at any time could have ordered the Attorney-General to bring suit against the harvester company or could have requested the Commissioner of corporations to hasten his investi-gation, but that Mr. Taft had taken no action, "except that now taken five days before the Massachusetts pri-

Candidate in 1904, Not in 1907.

Colonel Roosevelt also said that when the Northern Securities suit was brought against the Morgan interests in 1904, he was expecting to run for President, but that when the harvester iested vigoroualy. "If the Senator can show me the present President has traveled in the same way as the former President, I will condemn him as strongly as I would Roosevelt," he said. Attorney-General not to take up the case until he had seen me. This was the request I invariably made in every case of the kind. While I was Presi-dent I expected each of my Cabinet officers to keep me in touch with every Attorney-General not to take up the permitting the action to go on. In all such cases, unless I was already thor-oughly familiar with the facts, I wrote

Full Responsibility Assumed.

Senator Williams, speaking from the center aisie of the Senate, discussed the "third term." "Are you going to come out for a third term?" he demanded. "Are you going to forget what Washington, Jef-ferson, Jackson, Lincoln and McKinley did and said? - Are you going to put all that behind you because of a little keynote phrasing?" in which I made the request orally, often by telephone, where no written

A deelawa careful they man fism. He referred to seident as "Saint Theo" and at when Mr. Roosevelt had, spoked of good trusts and bad trusts, he had mean to funply that the trusts supports in the Administration must be deal with leniently, while those who fought. It must be trasted severely. "Perkins had said he would fight he Administration and he said it out was not willing to play in the President could." Mr. Bristow closed the debate with the of Colonel Roosevelt." The Administration Roosevelt." The Administration and he said it out was not willing to play in the President could. "Bristow closed the debate with the debate with the precedings against the Standard Oil Com-pany. I saw various labor leaders at the time of the proceedings against the time of the proceedings against the interior, in the Treasury De-partice and in the Attorney-General's of the Interior, in the Treasury De-partice and in the Attorney-General's to the said to be in all the othe states. "In this harvester trust case I acted to and any other s to man any other s to man. The same and the set of the states the time of the states in all the others to man any other s to man an cases, and as under like circumstances I should always act, and any other ac-tion would have been grossly improper. "The talk about the suppression of the report is nonsense. The Bureau of Corporations has never made report on the subject. The letter of Commissioner Smith to me protesting against action by the Department of Justice, followed exactly the same course as was fol-lowed with all such letters that I re-ceived.

celved. Colonel's Position Summarized.

"Let me sum up: "1. I took precisely the action in the Harvester trust case that I took in all "Intrester trust case that I took in all similar cases. "2. I am entirely responsible for the action taken, but it was taken with the full approval of the entire Cabinet, in-cluding Mr. Taft, who was a member of the Cabinet.

abinet. There remained at the time less

"There remained at the time less than a year and a half of my administration. During this time, for the reasons given by Mr. Smith, he was not able to furnish the report ordered by the Senate. During this period, as Mr. Smith writes me, the only instructions I gave him in regard to the report were orders intended to facilitate its preparation and publication. "4. Over three years have elapsed since Mr. Taff became President. During this entire time the letter of Mr. Smith has been in the office of the Attorney-General and Mr. Taff cannot have forgotten the debate about it in the Cabinet meeting when he was a member of the Cabinet and in which he took part. During these three years statement that he could not complete it if the suit should be brought."

ASSOCIATED PRESS ELECTS

Frank B. Noyes, of Washington Star, Is Chosen President.

NEW YORK, April 25 .- The Board of Directors of the Associated Press elec-ted the following officers today: President-Frank B. Noyes, Washing-Star First Vice-President-General Charles H Taylor, Boston Globe. Second Vice-President-Crawford Hill, Denver Republican. General Manager and Secretary, Mel.

ville E. Stone. Treasurer-J. R. Youatt. The following are the directors elec-

The following are the directors elec-ted for a three-year term. Thomas G. Rapler, New Orleans Pica-yune; Herman Ridder, New York Staats Zeitung: W. H. Cowles, Spokane Spokesman-Review; Victor F. Lawson, Chicago Daily News; Frederick Roy Martin, Prividence Journal.

Martin, Prividence Journal. Charles A. Rook, of the Pittsburg Dispatch, was elected for one year to fill the vacancy caused by the resigna-tion of the late Albert J. Bart.

tion of the late Albert J. Barr. The following boards and committees for the Western division were chosen: Advisory board—C. A. Morden. Portland Oregonian; A. J. Blethen. Seattle Times; I. N. Stevens: Pueblo Chieftain; A. N. McKay, Sail Lake Tribune; R. A. Croackay, Sait Lake Tribune; R. A. Cro-thers San Francisco Bulletin. Nom-inating committee-Charles W. Horm-ick, Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Audit-ing committee-A. N. McKay, Sait Lake Tribune.

PORTLAND NUPTIALS FAIL Alice Alden Married in Rose City in 1908 Gets Decree.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 25 .- (Spe cial.)-Judge Campbell today granted Alice Alden a divorce from Clinton Al-den, awarding plaintiff $50 a month alimony. Crueity was alleged. They were married in Portland, December 10, 1908.

The plaintiff alleged that her husband frequently cursed and abused her and said that while they were living in Pikit, Philippine Islands, he caught her by the arm and sprained her wrist. It is further alleged that he failed to support her and her two children and she had to obtain employment. Mrs. Alden said her husband earned Mirs. Alden said her husband earned $155.85 a month. Decrees were granted in the suits of Frankie Shepheard against John W. Shepheard and Grace Simpson against Walter A. Simpson Mrs. Simpson was awarded the custody of their two chil-dren.

I. C. Bridges Is Delegate.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 25.-(Spe-cial.)-I. C. Bridges, of this city, was today appointed delegate to the Na-tional convention of the Knights and Ladies of Security, which convenes at Los Angeles, Cal. in June. Mr. Bridges has been an active member of the Oregon City order for the past five years. Two years ago he was elected alternate to the National convention remnanty matter came up in 1967 he member of the Cabinet and in which the took part. During these three years is the National convention held at Springfield, III. There were about 20 delegates attending the convention held in Portland today.

in by numerous other Tail leaders. They said they had been led into a trap by Governor Hadley and the Roosevelt leaders. Representative Bar-tholdt was another leader who ex-pressed indignation.

The convention, which up until o'clock tonight bore every indication of being a Taft affair, with the Roose-velt-Hadley delegates holding a rump session, did not get started until $:30 o'clock. Only a temporary organiza-tion was effected and the session ad-Journed until tomorrow. Whether President Taft will be in-

Whether President Tafi will be in-dorsed is still in doubt, as both sides refuse to talk on this subject. It is probable that the Roosevelt forces will get a majority of delegates-at-large inesmuch as the state com-mittee, after a riotous session lasting all day, in accordance with the com-promise, seated geveral Roosevelt state convention delegates.

OLCOTT-FIELDS RACE IS CLOSE

Revision of Official Count Given Out at Baker.

BAKER, Or., April 25.-(Special.)-Revision of the official count given out today on the following offices show: Republican, Congressman-Cochfan, 282, Ellis 278, Roosevelt 39, Rusk 402.

Sinnott 206. Secretary of State-Fields 550, Olcott 540.

Dairy and Food Commissioner-Cot-tel 204, Edwards 150, Lea 126, Mickle 428.

Railroad Commissioner-Aitchison 549, Schulderman 285, Stayton 240, Democratic, Circuit Judge-Clifford 265, Messick 337, Smith 443,

BRYAN CANDIDACY LOOMS UP

Democratic Leaders Informally Discuss "Commoner's" Attitude. WASHINGTON, April 25 .- The visit of William J. Bryan to Washington yesterday and his conference with the various party leaders here, particularly in the Senate, was followed today by widespread discussion of the possibil-ity that the distinguished Nebraskan again will be the Democratic candidate President.

Mr. Bryan said to interviewers that he was not a candidate for the nomination in any sense of the word. Despite this public utterance, some Democratic Senators in discussing their informal talks with Mr. Bryan, were inclined to the belief that under certain condi-tions Mr. Bryan would not decline the

The impression left was that if Colonel Theodore Roosevelt should be the Republican nominee Mr. Bryan would like to take the field against him.

COURTHOUSE BIDS OPENED

Washington County Receives Tenders on New Building.

HILLSBORO, Or., April 25.—(Special.) —The County Court today opened bids on construction of the new courthouse addition for Washington County, and figures were received as follows: Built according to plans and specifi-rations, structure complete and ready to occupy: Wineland Building & En-gineering Company, $39,465; N. G. Pe-terson, $39,977; Bross Construction Company, $32,247; Edward Kilfeather,

E

If you can invest $1000 anywhere, with more definite assurance of increasing it to $4000 by the end of the year 1917, than by purchase of Real Estate in Portland, I certainly would not expect you to invest it in Eastmoreland. Otherwise, I would.

F. N. CLARK, Selling Agent, SPALDING BLDG.

The Great Eternal Plan

There are no errors in the Great Eternal Plan, and it is constantly the aim of well-informed business men to attain as much as possible of this ideal. Errors in successful business must necessarily be few, otherwise the business ceases to be successful. Misrepresented stock, unreasonable prices, poor service, constitute a major portion of business errors. We freely assert that such things are foreign to our business. Our goods bear the best brands and trademarks, our prices more than compete, and our service is the real dependable sort. Perhaps you have been looking for these things. We invite your investigation, and as an urgent request for the same, we present the following:

Family Scales, 24 pounds, by ounces, with scoop; regular $1.50.....$1.10 Bucksaw, double brace, fine blade, reg. $1.25 85¢ Lawn Mower, 14-inch, with grass-catcher,

complete, regular $3.50	3.50
Food Choppers, No. 1 Ruswin, reg. $1.50$	1.00
Cotton Hose, 3-4-inch, regular $5.50	4.75
Alarm Clocks, regular $1.25	85¢
me	504

Tack Hammers	5¢
10-inch Ball-Bearing Brace, holds all kinds of Bitts, regular $2.50	1.85
Auto Screwdrivers, 3 bitts, regular $1.25	95¢
Auto Drills, with 8 drills, regular $1.25	95¢
Steel Square, 16x24-inch, good value, special	50¢
Floor Scraper, rosewood bottom, reg. $1.50$	1.10
Rule, 2-ft., brass-bound, special	25¢

Oregon Hardware Co.

70-72 Third Street, Next to Western Union Telegraph Office. "YOU WILL FIND IT WHLL PAY TO BUY OUR WAY"

Tie-out Chains, with swivel, regular 85c..... 50¢