COUNTY VOTE ANALYZED

Review Shows Three of Successful Candidates Owe Their Nomination to East Side and Country Vote.

M. G. Munly, Democratic nomines for Representative in Congress from this district, yesterday denied the rumor that he expected to retire from the contest in favor of another Democrat er an independent candidate. A report has been in circulation to the effect that Mr. Munly would withdraw as a Congressional candidate because of his business intersts.

"You may set that rumor at rest at once and for all time," said Mr. Munly yesterday. "I have accepted the nomination of my party and am a candidate in every sense of the word. At the proper time I shall make a vigorous campaign."

Munly Will Take Rest.

For some time preceding the primary election Mr. Muniy was in Southern California for a vacation. It probably was this fact which gave rise to the was this fact which gave rise to the rumor that he would not accept the nomination he received for the Con-gressional office. Mr. Muniy will leave in a few days for a Pacific Coast re-sort, where he will conclude the vaca-tion that was interupted by the recent election. Later he will return to Port-land and cutline the thorough cam-paign he contemplates.

A review of the Republican vote cast in the late primary election shows that the combined vote of the East Side and country precincts was 18,546, as against $400 on the West Side. The total vote on President on the Republican ticket was: West Side, 9400; East Side, 16,-430; country, 2116.

Lafferty, for Representative in Congress: Dr. T. L. Perkins, for State Senator, and C. A. Perkins, for State Senator, and C. Applegren, for State Representative. Neither of these three candidates carried the West Side, but the heavy vote they polled in the East Side and the country gave them the nomination.
