'THIRD DEGREE" TACTICS CHARGED

Attorney for Defense in Humphrys Trial Says Brothers' Statements Not Voluntary.

CASE GOES TO JURY TODAY

Evidence Against Dr. North Is Brief; Alleged Low Intelligence of Accused Due to Close Relationship of Parents, Argument.

CORVALIAN Or. April 18—(Special)

When the defense rested its case in the Humphrys trial this afternoon Atternsy Jeffreys made several motions to the general effect that the jury be instructed to disregard all evidence as to the confessions made by the two-brothers and made an extended argument, citing numerous authorities in brothers and made an extended argument, citing numerous authorities in behalf of his motions. He contended that the confessions were involuntary and had not been freely made by the defendants, but that the testimony proved that the Humphrys were mentally weak and had been subjected to severe questionings under conditions that made, the examinations an application of the "third degree."

He asserted further that the written confession of Charles Humphrys, pre-

He asserted further that the written confession of Charles Humphrys, premared by District Attorney Tongue, of Washington County, and signed by Humphrys could not be taken into consideration by the jury, as it was not in the language of the defundant, but of the man who wrote it.

District Attorney Bryson made a brief avgument against the motions, which were overruled by Judge Hamilton, who held that the testimony did not show that the confessions were obtained by threat or promise and were under the rule obtaining in this state entitled to go to the jury.

Evidence Against Dr. North Brief. Evidence Against Dr. North Brief.
The defense made but little showing in its promised effort to prove that strong evidence existed against Dr.
North as the murderer of Mrs. Griffith, introducing only the testimony of Sheriff Gellatly, who told of the reasons that made him suspect the dentist, who was arrested soon after the murder and released upon a preliminary hearing.

The defense introduced a number of witnesses from the vicipity of Dailas and Yoncalls, who testified that the deand Yoncalla, who testified that the de-fendants had always borne a good rep-utation and were below the normal in intelligence. A physical reason for their mental incapacity was advanced by the evidence of W. H. Jackson, of Yoncalla, and Miss Frances Jackson, of Portland, brother and sister of the de-Portland, brother and sister of the de-fendants' mother, who said that the mother and father of the two brothers were first cousins. The purpose of this were first cousins. The purpose of this evidence is not to claim insanity as a defense, but to show that the men are easily imposed upon and that their confessions were only the assent by weak minds to the suggestion of aironger intellects.

The state holds that the men are far m imbeelles, but he is imbeelles, but he is state and are of the lary would commit such a crime.

Case Goes to Jury Today.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Arthur Clarke began the opening address to the jury on behalf of the state and had not concluded when court adjourned for the day. He clearly and strongly reviewed the testimony that had been introduced. The case will go to the jury tomorrow.

The brute, which weighs 15 pounds, was captured recently on Humbur Mountain, Clatsop County, by A. R. Thompson, of Seaside. It was placed on exhibition in a store here where it attracted the attention of a party of visiting railroad men.

That'd be a great present for the "That'd be a had been introduced. The case will go to the jury tomerrow.

In part. Deputy Prosecutor Clarke said: "A borrid crime has been committed and the evidence is in the hands of the State's Attorneys appointed to prosecute James and Charles Humphrys. Upon their arrest, both men confessed before numerons witnesses giving horrible details of the murder. This evidence and these confessions you have before you. You have been told how Mrs. Eliza Griffith, a frall widow, highly regarded by all her neighbors, lived alone on an isolated farm: how her friends on the morning of June 3, 1911, found her gone from her home and the bouse in disorder and after a brief search discovered her dead body brief search discovered her dead body in the shallow pond with abrasions on her neck and wrists evidently made by her neck and wrists evidently made by a rope that was found near the body. One finger nail was torn doubtless in the struggle for chastity and life against the cowardly brutes who assaulted her. Fresh scratches were seen on the face of George Humphrys the morning after the murder, which he did not hear at 6 clock the evening before. Every detail in the appearance of the bedy of the woman and in the torn-up condition of the house tailles exactly with the description of the crime given in the confessions of the defendants. Their guilt is certain.

BEAST SENT TO ST. PAUL

Weighing 35 Pounds, It Is Captured by A. R. Thompson, of Scaside, Or., on Humbug Mountain in Clatsop County.

"That'd be a great present for the 'old man'," one of them remarked.

Mr. Thompson was standing by. 'Say, what would be the way to go about it to send that to Mr. Hill' he

"I'll send it to him," remarked George H. Smitton, assistant general freight agent of the Great Northern Railway. "All right; ship it tonight," said Thompson. "And tell Mr. Hill that's just a sample of what Oregon can

Smitton first made overtures to Gen-oral Superintendent Rogers to freight the miniature tiger to Portland in his private car which was lying parked in the yards.

"Nothing doing," remarked Mr.
Rogers, "I am taking no chances with a tiger and my car is not a circus

As Smitton jumped on the train he ordered the local agent to ship the cat and it left for Mr. Hill's St. Paul address tonight. Telegrams have been sent along its route of the diet which must be prepared for it, and railroad men are warned not to come within reach of its steel cage. The animal already has destroyed two stout cases with its vicious claws.

Just what Mr. Hill will think when exhibit A of Oregon's wild animals reaches him is left to conjecture.

Three Lines Seek Franchises in Marshfield District.

MARSHFIELD, Or. April 29.—(Special.)—With three different railroads wanting franchises in the Coos Bay cities, the railroad situation here is more promising than it has ever been at any previous time in recent years.

The Southern Pacific, through C. J. Millis, who is now in the city, has made application for a waterfront franchise in North Bend. The earliest date at which this can be granted is June 28, and the Southern Pacific has promised to begin work within 50 days from the time the franchise is granted. Mr. Millis has also requested that he be given a franchise in Marshfield. In this city the waterfront franchise has already Tracks, and wants a franchise of its own.

The Terminal Company, now building its line in Marshfield, has asked for a hearing before the Council at North Bend, but so far no franchise has been granted the terminal in that city.

H. A. Sumner, representing the Pacific Coast Line and the Pacific Great Western, proposing to build from Eugene to Coos Bay, has also been in the city and has applied for a franchise in North Bend. The Wilsel Company, of Portland, said to be connected with the Sumner interests, has purchased 450 Killing of E. W. Mutch in Defendant's Saloon Investigated.

Ernest L Cetinger, who is under in-dictment for second degree murder for the killing of W. E. Mutch in Octinger's saloon at 9 First street on the night of January 19 last, went on trial in Judge Gantenbein's department of the Circuit Court yesterday. Nine prospective ju-rors were passed for cause. Court adjourned shortly after 2 o'clock in the afternoon because there were no more veniremen on hand to be examined. It is expected that a jury will be secured

There were no eye witnesses of the homicide and Oetinger's story of it, which he will tell on the stand in his own behalf, is that he shot in self defense. Mutch, who, although a prosperous man, had a criminal record, is alleged by Oetinger to have abused him to the point where shooting was necesporation with the County Auditor. The time is 50 years and capital stock $10.000. The five trustees named to man-age the business are George H. Tucker, T. J. Long, J. Frase, R. B. Silva and Charles Gessell. Chehalis is named as the principal place of business, This company has been assured a site and 3500 cash with which to help erect a building in this city. The company expects to be able to secure regularly the milk from between 2000 and 3500 cows.

particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased fiesh might be to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result. Just as long as the pollution continues in the blood, the ulcer remains an open cesspool for the deposit of impurities which the circulation throws off. S. S. S. cures Old Sores by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of impurity and taint from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. When S. S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the discharge ceases, the infigumation leaves, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use.
