Rossiter Delegate Elected by Some Partial That Popled Taff for President.—Many Votes Are Invalidated.

BRIDGETON, May 1.—The cabinet of the late Administration managed yesterday to provide a room for the opening session of the Pennsylvania State Republican convention, but the accommodations for the delegates proved to be inadequate.

Col. Edgerton, the Republican candidate for governor, was the honored guest of the convention and delivered a speech that was received with enthusiastic applause.

GEORGE M. CROSBY, the Democratic candidate for governor, was also present and was also received with enthusiasm.

The convention adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Governor Finzer and Major-General Wilson, who are expected to attend the meeting of the National Guard this week, are reported to have been consulted by a committee of legislators who are considering the possibility of sending the National Guard to foreign countries.

The legislators, who are reported to have been consulted by the governor and the mayor, are said to be in favor of the proposal.

The governor has not yet made a formal statement on the matter, but he is reported to be in favor of the proposal.

In other news, the Washington State Legislature has passed a bill that will provide for the establishment of a National Guard reserve.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Johnson and Senator Brown, is said to be supported by both the governor and the mayor.

The governor has not yet signed the bill, but he is expected to do so.
