to the Supreme Court and got decisions there. On the contrary, Mr. Taft knows well that I censured him, not for having thus continued the prosecution of the suits that I had begun, but because, after he had gotten these decisions he permitted the Department of Justice to shape matters that the result was a complete nullification of all the good results of his suit.

Colonel Roosevelt refers to the pending investigation of Judge Archibald of the Commerce Court, and asserts that the Justice was appointed to placate a Pennsylvania politician, although the appointee's alleged unfitness for the office had already been called to President Taft's attention. The statement continues:

"In Kentucky and in Indiana, in New York City and elsewhere, Mr. Taft knows well that the delegates elected for him represent bare-faced frauds. He stands guilty of approving and encouaging fraud which deprives the people of their right to express their will as to who shall be nominated.

"Crooked Misrepresentation" Charged.

"In all these primaries and conventions I have stood for absolute honesty and fair play. Mr. Taft has stood for crooked misrepresentation of the will of the people.

"As for the Lorimer case, the facts are these: I fought Mr. Lorimer hard and in the open for 18 months. Originally Mr. Taft was secretly against Mr. Lorimer. As the Illinois primaries approached Mr. Taft's followers in the Senate supported Mr. Lorimer, and Mr. Lorimer was the leading Taft worker in Illinois. As long as the matter came up again and it appeared that Mr. Bonaparte had not understood that my judgment was that the course advocated by Mr. Smith was the proper one to follow.

"Taft and Bonaparte Differ.

"Accordingly the matter was gone over at length in the Cabinet meeting. Mr. Bonaparte was the only member who was inclined to believe that the suit should be continued without regard to Mr. Smith's investigation. Mr. Taft emphatically took the opposite ground; and it is utterly impossible that he should have forgotten that he did, as a member of my Cabinet, take the opposite ground.

"Of course, as a member of my Cabinet whom I had appointed for the Presidency, he knew and could not avoid knowing everything of importance that went on. It is impossible to reconcile the present position by any standard of honorable conduct.

"I saw Mr. Perkins in regard to this matter precisely as I saw Mr. Morgan at the time of the hearing of the Northern Securities Company suit, and as I saw representatives of the Standard Oil Trust again and again at the beginning of the Standard Oil suit, just as in the case of every large law suit I saw any party interested who asked to appear before me; I believed then, and I believe now, that the course urged by Mr. Smith was the only one to take.

"Mind Unchanged as to Trusts.

"Mr. Taft says I have changed my mind about the anti-trust law. He well knows that the position I take now is precisely the position I took again and again in speeches and in messages to Congress while I was President. He was then in my Cabinet and repeatedly expressed his approval of what I thus said.

"Mr. Taft says I have said that the anti-trust law ought to be repealed. Mr. Taft well knows that this is not true. I have always explicitly stated that it ought to be kept on the books, and really enforced (not merely nominally enforced, as has been done by Mr. Taft in the Standard Oil and American Tobacco Trust cases) against all trusts guilty of anti-social practices, but I have always said, and now say, that by itself the anti-trust law will never solve the problem of dealing with the great corporations, and that to control the great industrial interstate corporations we should have a law akin to the present interstate commerce law—but without the mischievous Interstate Commerce Court.

"Mr. Taft says that I censured him because he prosecuted the Standard Oil and American Tobacco companies

SHRINERS ON TIME

El Kadir Temple Delegates Reach Los Angeles.

WEEK'S FESTIVITY AHEAD

Members Ready to Take Part in List of Scheduled Events—Proposal to Have Permanent Meeting Place Considered.

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—El Kadir Temple of the Mystic Shriners arrived here this afternoon at 4 o'clock—15 minutes ahead of time—a fact of which the Shriners are proud. The Portland delegation is made up of 155 members and will take part in all the many scheduled events. The Portland visitors stayed over 12 hours in San Francisco to view the site of the Panama-Pacific Exposition and inspect the site for Oregon's building.

The rule, every man for himself, prevailed during the San Francisco stop-over, and that the side issue agreed with all is evidenced by the fact that all arrived in good health and fine trim for a week of work and festivity. The four representatives to give the shrines of the Shrine, R. D. Cannon, W. C. Bristol, George F. Robertson and William Davis, are quartered in the hotel which is the official headquarters of the grand potentate. The others are staying at a hotel nearby.

The proposal to establish a permanent meeting-place for the Shrines is being considered. "We are open to conviction," said Mr. Cannon. "I shall wait until the committee reports," said Mr. Robertson. Davis is of the opinion that while the novelty might appeal, it would be better for the Shrines to meet yearly in different places in order to give the members a chance to see the world as they pass through the desert from one oasis to another.

The largest delegation to arrive, and which without doubt will hold the numerical record during the week, was from the Shrine Temple in San Francisco. It is estimated that fully 1000 nobles of Islam arrived this morning by steamer and by train, and 60 of them made the trip in automobiles. With Islam Temple came Aloha Temple from Honolulu. A special train from Helena and Butte, Mont., brought 100 Shriners.

A large majority of the 475 members of the Imperia Shrine are now in the city and the remainder are expected to arrive before noon tomorrow. Today was spent in sightseeing. Almost 100 automobiles were placed at the disposal of the visitors and thousands of them visited the various points of interest in and about Los Angeles. Tonight there were special religious services for the Shriners at Temple Auditorium, which were largely attended.

There will be no meeting of the Imperial Council until Tuesday.

Philadelphians Cause Sensation.

The arrival of Lu-Lu Temple, of Philadelphia, created a sensation. There were 248 Shriners in the party, which traveled on a special train in two sections, and they were accompanied by a band of 70 pieces. Potentate Kendrick stepped from the train into a white chalet drawn by two white horses and was followed by four men bearing a gilded imitation of the famous Liberty Bell. The temple, garbed in pure white, had a big reception tonight.

The delegation of 600 from Medina Temple, Chicago, is among the belated ones and the Chicago specials will not arrive until tomorrow morning.

VICTIM OF AUTO-ROLL DIES

Race to Beat Train Costs Life of Boise Business Man.

ONTARIO, Or., May 5.—(Special.)—Frank Eastman, who was injured in an automobile wreck near here last evening, died this morning. Michael Hunt, who suffered a broken shoulder-blade, and William Sweet, who sustained painful bruises, will recover. All are from Boise, Idaho.

When the wreck occurred, the big car was going at high speed, the driver trying to beat the train from Boise to Ontario, and would have succeeded, barring an accident. The car struck a raised culvert, went into the air and came down in a nosedive 45 feet from where it left the ground. The front wheels were slightly turned, and this caused the car to turn partly around and roll over, finally stopping right side up and facing in the opposite direction from which it was going. Mr. Eastman was a business man of Boise, and leaves a widow and children.

clusive of Arkansas and Nevada he yet could not obtain enough votes to bring about his nomination and by next week the possibility of all combinations against the President will have passed, as the strength of Senator La Follette has not gone beyond the 36 already reported and Senator Cummins has been unable to add to his record of 10.

Bay State Called Knockout.

"The knockout blow which Theodore Roosevelt received in the Massachusetts Presidential primaries is likely to be emphasized by the recount of the votes now going on at the behest of the Taft managers in the state. It has been definitely established that about 18,000 ballots cast for Taft delegates at large in Massachusetts were declared invalid by the election officials because the voters voted for nine instead of eight Taft candidates for delegates.

"That the Taft victory will be confirmed morally by the recount and will more than likely be confirmed legally is no longer a matter of doubt.

"Another significant feature of the Massachusetts primary stands revealed in the slimness of the Democratic vote and the known presence of Democrats at the polls who announced openly their intention to help nominate Roosevelt in order that the defeat of the Republic-

BUYS SHIPHERD SPRINGS

Shipperd Springs, located at Cargon, Wash., on the North Bank Railroad, and one of the most popular health resorts in the vicinity of Portland, has again become the property of the former owner, E. L. Shipperd. Mr. Shipperd will assume active management at once, assisted by W. S. Adams, who resumes his place as assistant manager.

The host of friends of Mr. Shipperd in Portland will certainly be pleased to learn that he is again to be the man at the helm of this famous health resort.

PRESIDENT PAYS TRIBUTE TO BUTT

Voice Fails and Tears Fall Steadily When Devotion of Aide Is Recalled.

HEROISM TO BE EXPECTED

Self-Sacrifice Keynote of Character, Simple, Straightforward and Incapable of Intrigue. Friends Add Praise.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The life of Major Archibald W. Butt, as a soldier, newspaper man, aide to Presidents and lodge member, and his heroic death on the Titanic were commemorated by his Commander-in-Chief, the President, the Secretary of War, a Senator of his native state, a contemporary in the newspaper field, and the fraternity of Masonry at an impressive memorial service here today.

The tribute President Taft paid to his late aide epitomized all that was said.

"Everybody knew Archie as Archie. I cannot go to a box at a theater; I cannot turn around in my room—I cannot go anywhere without expecting to see his smiling face or to hear his cheerful voice in greeting. The life of the President is rather isolated, and those appointed to live with him come much closer to him than anyone else. The bond is very close and it is difficult to speak on such an occasion.

"Sacrifice Keynote of Character.

"Archie Butt's character was simple, straightforward and incapable of intrigue. A clear sense of humanity lightened his life and those about him. Life was not for him a troubled problem. He was a soldier and when he was appointed to serve under another, to that other he rendered implicit loyalty. I never knew a man who had so much self-sacrifice, so much self-sacrifice as Archie Butt.

"Occasions like the sinking of the Titanic frequently develop unforeseen traits in men. It makes them heroes when you don't expect it. But with Archie it was just as natural for him to help those women as it was for him to ask me to permit him to do something for someone or for me."

"He was on the deck of the Titanic exactly what he was everywhere. His death leaves a void with those who loved him, but the circumstances of his going are what we all would have had, and while tears fill the eyes and the voice is choked we are felicitated by the memory of what he was."

President Taft spoke with difficulty and he was forced to an abrupt ending by a failure of voice and a steady flow of tears. Behind him, Mrs. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Butt, of Augusta, Ga. Opposite them sat Secretary Wilson, Secretary Meyer and other prominent officials.

Senator Bacon sat with the members of the Georgia delegation in Congress, and throughout the meeting place were fellow soldiers, friends of the official headquarters of the Shrines. The Masonic fraternity was seated with the speakers.

Senator Smith, of Georgia, who once employed Major Butt as a Washington correspondent and knew him as man and boy, spoke freely of his associations. He said he could not fall to mention the splendid courage of another Georgian, Jacques Putrelle, who lost his life on the Titanic, a fellow worker with Major Butt.

Edger C. Snyder, a Washington newspaper man, spoke of Major Butt's activity in the newspaper field and quoted a tribute written by Henry Woodgreen, a former associate of the President's aide. Carter B. Keene, master of Major Butt's lodge, also spoke. Philander C. Johnson read a poem dedicated to Major Butt.

can party in November might be an assured fact.

The allegation has been made after a careful canvass of the Massachusetts vote that Mr. Roosevelt received nearly 30,000 Democratic votes in the recent primaries and it was a notorious fact that he advertised for Democratic votes in the Massachusetts newspapers. If these figures are correct he was really defeated by President Taft by a majority of more than 50,000 Republican votes.

SUPERINTENDENT IS NAMED

Sheridan School Board Engages Professor A. Dawkins.

SHERIDAN, Or., May 5.—(Special.)—At a meeting of the local School Board Friday evening, A. Dawkins was employed to superintend the Sheridan public schools for the coming year. This is Professor Dawkins' fifth year in Sheridan.

Professor Dawkins is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University and holds a master of arts degree, besides having held papers in Illinois, Nevada and Oregon. Before coming to Sheridan he was principal of schools at Cripple Creek, Colo., and professor of mathematics at the Ashland normal.

The local high school has shown a marked growth since his coming here.

Correct Clothes For Men.

With our Pilgrim Fathers it was starched linens, homespuns, knickerbockers and modest waistcoats.

In all ages the well-dressed man meant the successful man. The details which enter into the designing of clothes carried out here will make the wearer look successful and help him be successful.

NEW DEPARTURE

The Cost of Interments Have Been Greatly Reduced by the Holman Undertaking Company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embalming, horse to cemetery, outside or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, casket and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
