While residents there are justly proud of it and interested in its being made accessible, the whole city is vitally interested.

city is vitally interested.

It seems necessary to educate the public to know what it really owns. To do this, it is suggested that the Elks' Convention Committee, the Ad. Club. Commercial Club, Automobile Club, Hotel Association and all business or improvement associations at once soud provement associations at once send special committees to inspect that park, and particularly to follow the route of the unfinished road leading to the summit. They will then observe the beauti-

When these committees have seen it all, let them report back to their bodies whether Portland can afford to allow the road to remain unfinished and unused while so many visitors are here this Summer, and ought to have the benefit of it.

It is contended by the Park Board that they may not have enough money to do the work, because of the drain on funds to complete the Terwilliger boulevard.

Civic pride should induce all Port-land, and not Mt. Tabor alone, to in-sist that the necessary money be appropriated by the Council to finish this road, and to connect it with every en-irance by which vehicles will seek to enter the park. It will be one of the best investments the city can make and a source of pride to every citizen, even

MAN STABS SELF AT PARTY

Police Say Guests Went on With Dance, Leaving Him.

was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital in an ambulance.
According to the police, Whiton had quarreled with some of those at the party and while the guests were dancing he secured a knife from the kitchen and going into a front bedroom stabbed himself. His cries summoned a number of the men, who carried the wounded man onto the front porch and Charles Baunoire called an ambulance. Charles Bauncire called an ambulance. The police say Whiten was lying in the rain when the ambulance arrived and that the guests had left him to resume their dancing.

"Dr. Lessing-Bolgar was a man of very convincing address, and for a time would have been able to gain a hearing almost any place," said Mr. Chapman. "I had, however, received information that led me to believe that he was not reliable, similar to that obtained by the German society of Portland, and consequently warned commercial clubs in Oregon, which are members of the Oregon Development League, to be on their guard against him.

No Recommendation Given. 'I am certain that he carried with him no credentials from Governor West, as he is said to have asserted before leaving Oregon last year. In my capacity as Immigration Agent, I gave the Governor such information as I had concerning the man. "He is only one of a type of socalled immigration agents and publicity men with which the commercial clubs of the state are continually coming in contact, and it has been the uniform policy to issue no credentials or recommendations to men of that

Mr. Chapman confirms the statement of Martin Dudel, of the Nachrichten, that the "steamship immigration agents," one of which Dr. Lessing-Bolgar appears to have been, according to the dispatches from Budapest, where to the dispatches from Budapest, where he was taken into custody, bring to the United States a class of immigration which is unfit and undestrable. Going among the poorer classes in the European countries, they persuade them to embark for America, holding out to them hopes of large fortunes to be picked up easily in the United States, and receiving for their activities a commission from the passage money paid by the immigrants.

Portland Left in October. Dr. Lessing-Bolgar's arrest in Budapest was precipitated through his effort to pass himself off as a professor from the Oregon Agricultural College. A journalist present at the meeting where he made this assertion, disputed it and asserted that the "professor" was mercby an immigration agent. The scene ly an immigration agent. The acene that followed attracted the attention of the police, who immediately looked into the record of their visitor, disclosed his alias and, finding that he was wanted in Vienna on charges of fraud, took him into custody.

Dr. Lessing-Bolgar left Oregon the latter part of October, after extensive advertising operations of a largely unauccessful nature in the Willamette Valley, saying that he intended to make a personal visit to Hungary and there, explaining with lectures and stereoption. Illustrations the experiment con illustrations the opportunities in Oregon, to interest the better class of agriculturists in emigrating to this country. He said that during his absence he would leave the management of his publication, the International Immigrant, in the bands of Frederick W. Jobiemann, who had been active introducing him to various bus men and organizations in the city.
