H. L. Hald, George C. Carl and E. D. Findley were appointed to confer with the Portland Gas Company concerning abating the noise of the gas engine operated at the tank and improvement of the grounds. H. L. Hald, who circulated a petition for the removal of the tank, made a statement setting forth the objections to the tank and he was followed by W. M. Killingsworth. S. C. Bratton, representing the gas company, made a statement that the tank was a necessity for the distribution of gas to the community, and that if removed it would have to be placed somewhere else. Mr. Bratton declared that the gas tank is absolutely safe. He promised that the grounds about the tank should be made beautiful, and that the gas engine, which makes a great noise at night, should be muffled. Councilman Maguire said he would present the petitions to the Council for the removal of the tank
