All-Day Sales in Basement—Prices Low As Hourly Sales

A day for unparalleled bargains in our Basement "Underprice Store." For this event we will make prices just as low as we would for "Hourly Sales." We regard as our logical customers that portion of the public which buys intelligently, which has perception of quality, good taste for style and patterns, and of economical ideas. There are two classes of people who patronize big stores, one backs its intelligent standards with ample means; the other, a larger family to provide for and income less flexible, a more rigid thrift. To both these classes, especially the latter, this store makes a direct appeal. "Low-priced, poor merchandise is one of the tragedies of the world"—(Woodrow Wilson). Some people mistake economy by buying a mess of trash. It's extravagance. Our merchandise is bought by an organization of experienced men and women, who buy by comparison, with quality as the first consideration. The items mentioned in this ad, merit your visit to our big Basement Store.

Two Great Specials in Dresses

Lot 1--$5.95 Women's Silk Dresses

TAZWELL WELL INFORMED

Judge Explains How Chinese Lottery Used to Be Operated. "They didn't use to play Chinese lottery that way," said Judge Tazwell, in the midst of a trial yesterday in which certain features of the game were being explained, supposedly for his enlightenment. A titter arose through the courtroom. The court looked self-conscious for a moment, then grinned with the rest, and went on to show that the efforts of attorneys to enlighten him were not altogether necessary. The point at issue was whether a strip of white paper, containing 20 Chinese characters and admitted to be a notification of the result of a drawing, was an appurtenance of a lottery with-

SHORT-CUTS DISAPPROVED

City May Make Draastic Changes in Traffic Regulations. If you are in the habit of "cutting across" streets, instead of crossing directly at intersections, you had best break the habit, for in all probability you will have to soon. Also, do you stop your auto at the curb and leave it there while you go shopping, or are at your business in the downtown section? This, too, is to be stopped. Traffic regulations, now forming and to be incorporated into a new ordinance governing the handling of crowds and teams, vehicles of all descriptions, and everything that moves

RAMBLERS' CLUB FORMED

Y. M. C. A. Bible Students to Take Weekly Trips Near City. With the opening of fine weather, Spring and Summer activities are being taken up by the Portland Young Men's Christian Association. One of the important innovations will be inaugurated tonight in the formation of a Ramblers' Club in connection with the religious work department. The club will meet on Wednesday evenings, riding or walking to some point of interest near the city each week. The party will leave the Y. M. C. A. at 6:30 o'clock tonight and will walk to Macleay Park, where an informal Bible study meeting will be held. W. W. Dillon, leader of the club, has ar-

RAID IS HELD SIGNIFICANT

Police See Meaning in Deputy Page's Action in Arresting Women. Deep significance is seen around police headquarters in a sudden raid, Monday night, upon the notorious resort of Louise ("Mother") Olesce, on North First street, in which a deputy from the office of the District Attorney took an active part. The raid was
