Case Found Nor Gunry .- Edward Case, under indiciment for introducing liquor into the Silets Indian reservation, was found not guilty by a jury in the United States District Court yes-terday. The principal witnesses for the Government, four of them, testified to the guilt of the defendant but at the same time told that they had liquor on their person at the same time and five bottles of it were consumed during a two days and nights sitting in a game of poker in which Case won the money. After the jury was discharged one of its members said: "As the witnesses were as guilty as Case it did not seem fair to find him guilty for them to get even for his winning their money." SALOON MEN WOULD RESTRAIN TRANS-FER.—Alleging that they were induced to sign without consideration power of attorney transferring the control of their saloon, the Trocadero, 40 to 42 Fourth street, to Emil Glutsch, collector for the Henry Weinhard brawery, and that Glutsch later fraudulently induced the City Council to pass a resolution transferring the license to himself, James Mulinos and James Pappaioinnou have started suit in Circuit Court to restrain the actual transfer. The de-fendants are Glutech and City Auditor Barbur. The plaintiffs assert that Glutsch represented to the City Coun-cil that he had paid $2000 for the saloon whereas he paid nothing.

salood whereas he paid holding. $10,059 Asker Pon AllEgeb False Assest.—Charging false arrest on a charge of larceny by ballee and sub-sequent acquittal in Municipal Court, O. A. Brooks has started suit in Circuit Court to recover as damages $10,-050 from W. H. Henderson and W. A. Leet, the latter an attorney. The men he asserts were responsible for his incarceration. He was arrested on April 28. Brooks is a broker and the trouble arose in connection with a trouble arose in connection with a mortgage which figured in a real estate trade which Henderson was making. Action IMPERATIVE DECLARED.—Mayor Rushlight was appealed to yesterday to order enforcement of the anti-spli-ting ordinance, through a communica-tion signed by Mrs. Jane M. Lamson, secretary of the Visiting Nurse Asso-ciation. The organization alleges that the law is poorly enforced, and says that action is imperative. It declares that the streets and sidewalks are left in a dirty condition and that something should be done for the preservation of the public health, to say nothing of appearances. appearances

MISS MARTIN WARNS AGAINST HORSE DEALER ANSWERS CHARGES .- F. Honse Drates Asswers Chances.-F. A. Johnson, who has been held to the grand jury for alleged, misrepresenta-tion in the sale of a team of horses to a woman, asserts that there is an-other side to the story than that ap-pearing at the preliminary. He says: "In the sale of the horses to Mrs. Self-ures t did not make any misrepresen-PRAGE .- The anti-suffragists held a meeting at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Forest Grove, Friday night, Miss Martin speaking against suffrage. She called attention to an editorial in the New York Times, in which, commenting upon the suffrage parade, the dangers of the movement were called to the attention of the men of this country. inger I did not make any misrepresen-tations and when I learned that she was dissatisfied with her purchase. I assured her that I would return the "The ballot will secure to women no right that she needs and does not pos-sess," said Miss Martin. "Woman is thoroughly protected by the existing purchase money as soon as the man, who had owned the team, returned to the city and for whom I was making the sale. The woman afterwards sold who had owned the team, returned to the city and for whom I was making the sale. The woman afterwards sold the team which should have relieved me of any liability. The testimony of the veterinary surgeon as to the ad-vanced ages of the horses and that one of the horses had epileptic fits was not correct. There are more good horse-men than bad and I insist that it is not fair to class all of them as bad." HALL ASSOCIATION FORMED, —A hall association has been formed for divi-sion No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, of Albina, by election of the following directors: Patrick Ryan, John O'Hare, John Farrell, E. H. Deery, T. J. Murphy, D. W. Lane and John Keating. The first four are for two years and the remainder for one year. A subscrip-tion list has been started toward the building fund and nearly enough has been obtained to pay for the lot on Russell street between Union and Rodney avenues, 50x145, for $5400. Judge W. N. Gatens is the advisor of the building committee. Tentative plans of a building have been drawn. It will be two or three stories and cost $12,000. RESERVOIR WHLL STAND.—The gas reservoir which stands in North Alholder of property, are not in danger. Her dower rights are scrupulously upheld by the probate courts.
